AUTHORITY FOR PUBLICATION

OF THE LEGISLATIVE MANUAL.

CHAPTER 683, LAWS OF 1892.

§ 25. Legislative Manual.—The Secretary of State, at the expense of the State, shall annually prepare and publish the Legislative Manual, and a map of the State, exhibiting the route of all railroads and canals that are completed or in course of construction. The manual shall contain the Constitution of the United States and of the State of New York, diagrams of the Senate and Assembly chambers, and such other information of the nature heretofore published therein, as he may consider useful, and shall be printed and bound in substantially the same style as heretofore. Within two weeks after the commencement of each regular session of the Legislature, and earlier if practicable, he shall deliver a copy of the manual and map to each member and officer of the Legislature, and to each State officer entitled to the session laws, with the name of each officer or member lettered on the copy of the manual sent to him.

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.

IN CONGRESS,

JULY 4, 1776.

THE UNANIMOUS DECLARATION

OF THE

THIRTEEN UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed, by their Creator, with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate, that governments long established, should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the legislature, a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected, whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the State remaining, in the meantime, exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made judges dependent on his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harrass our people, and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies, without the consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world

For imposing taxes on us without our consent:

For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury:

For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offenses:

For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies:

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our governments:

For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is, at this time, transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation, and tyranny, already begun, with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy, scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow-citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes, and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms: our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them, from time to time, of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, enemies in war, in peace friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name, and by authority of the good people of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connexion between them and the State of Great Britain, is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that as free and independent States, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent States may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honour.

THE CONSTITUTION.

We, the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquillity, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this constitution for the United States of America.

See 1 Abb. Nat. Digest, 746; Chisholm v. Georgia, 2 Dall. 471; Lane v. Oregon, 7 Wall. 71; Texas v. White, id. 700. This constitution is to be regarded as emanating not from the states as governments but directly from the people. McCulloch v. Maryland, 4 Wheat. 316, 403; Barron v. Baltimore, 7 Pet. 243; Gibbons v. Ogden, 9 Wheat. 1.

The sovereignty of the United States and that of a state are independent of each other within their respective spheres of action, although both exist and exercise their powers within the same territorial limits. Ableman v. Booth, 21 How. 506; United States v. Cruikshank, 92 U. S. 542.

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1.

1. All legislative powers herein granted shall be vested in a congress of the United States, which shall consist of a senate and house of representatives.

Story's Const., chaps. 7 and 8; 2 Dall. 409.

SECTION 2.

1. The house of representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several states; and the electors in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislature.

1 Cong. Election Cas. 69.

2. No person shall be a representative who shall not have attained to the age of twenty-five years, and been seven years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that state in which he shall be chosen.

1 Cong. Election Cas. 23, 167, 224, 411, 497.

3. Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several states which may be included within this Union, according to their respective numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole number of free persons, including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three-fifths of all other persons. The actual enumeration shall be made within three years after the first meeting of the congress of the United States, and within every subsequent term of ten years, in such manner as they shall by law direct. The number of representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty thousand, but each state shall have at least one representative; and until such enumeration shall be made, the state of New Hampshire shall be entitled to choose three; Massachusetts, eight; Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, one; Connecticut, five; New-York, six; New Jersey, four; Pennsylvania, eight; Delaware, one; Maryland, six; Virginia, ten; North Carolina, five; South Carolina, five; and Georgia, three.

See Hylton v. United States, 3 Dall. 171; Springer v. United States, 102 U. S. 586; Schooley v. Reed, 23 Wall. 331.

ARTICLE I — Continued.

4. When vacancies happen in the representation from any state, the executive authority thereof shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies.

1 Cong. Election Cas. 44, 92.

5. The house of representatives shall choose their speaker and other officers, and shall have the sole power of impeachment.

SECTION 3.

1. The senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators for each state, chosen by the legislature thereof, for six years; and each senator shall have one vote.

See Cohens v. Virginia, 6 Wheat, 390.

2. Immediately after they shall be assembled in consequence of the first election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three classes. The seats of the senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of the second year, of the second class at the expiration of the fourth year, and of the third class at the expiration of the sixth year, so that one-third may be chosen every second year; and if vacancies happen, by resignation or otherwise, during the recess of the legislature of any state, the executive thereof may make temporary appointments until the next meeting of the legislature, which shall then fill such vacancies.

1 Cong. Election Cas. 369.

3. No person shall be a senator who shall not have attained the age of thirty years, and been nine years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that state for which he shall be chosen.

1 Cong. Election Cas. 851.

4. The vice-president of the United States shall be president of the senate, but shall have no vote unless they be equally divided.

5. The senate shall choose their other officers, and also a president pro tempore in the absence of the vice-president or when he shall exercise the office of president of the United States.

6. The senate shall have the sole power to try all impeachments. When sitting for that purpose, they shall be on oath or affirmation. When the president of the United States is tried, the chief justice shall preside; and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

7. Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust or profit under the United States; but the party convicted shall, nevertheless, be liable and subject to indictment, trial, judgment and punishment, according to law.

SECTION 4.

1. The times, places and manner of holding elections for senators and representatives shall be prescribed in each state by the legislature thereof; but the congress may at any time by law make or alter such regulations, except as to the places of choosing senators.

2. The congress shall assemble at least once in every year; and such meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

SECTION 5.

1. Each house shall be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members, and a majority of each shall constitute a quorum to do business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner and under such penalties as each house may provide.

See Thomas v. Loney, 134 U. S. 372; People, ex rel. Hatzel, v. Hall, 80 N. Y. 121.

2. Each house may determine the rule of its proceedings, punish its members for disorderly behavior, and with the concurrence of two-thirds, expel a member.

Kilbourn v. Thompson, 103 U. S. 168.

3. Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such parts as may, in their judgment, require secrecy; and the yeas and nays of the members of either house on any question shall, at the desire of one-fifth of those present, be entered on the journal.

4. Neither house, during the session of congress, shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which the two houses shall be sitting.

SECTION 6.

1. The senators and representatives shall receive a compensation for their services, to be ascertained by law, and paid out of the treasury of the United States. They shall, in all cases except treason, felony and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at the session of their respective houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any speech or debate in either house they shall not be questioned in any other place.

3 Dall. 478; 4 id. 341.

2. No senator or representative shall, during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil office under the authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the emoluments whereof shall have been increased, during such time; and no person holding any office under the United States shall be a member of either house during his continuance in office.

SECTION 7.

1. All bills for raising revenue shall originate in the house of representatives; but the senate may propose or concur with the amendments as on other bills.

2. Every bill which shall have passed the house of representatives and the senate shall, before it become a law, be presented to the president of the United States; if he approve he shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to that house in which it shall have originated; who shall enter the objections at large on their journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If, after such reconsideration, two-thirds of that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered; and, if approved by two-thirds of that house, it shall become a law. But in all such cases, the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the bill shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the president within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the congress, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.

3. Every order, resolution or vote, to which the concurrence of the senate and house of representatives may be necessary (except on a question of adjournment), shall be presented to the president of the United States; and, before the same shall take effect, shall be approved by him; or, being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by two-thirds

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1.

1. The executive power shall be vested in a president of the United States of America. He shall hold his office during the term of four years; and, together with the vice-president chosen for the same term, be elected as follows:

2. Each state shall appoint, in such manner as the legislature thereof may direct, a number of electors equal to the whole number of senators and representatives to which the state may be entitled in the congress; but no senator or representative, or person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States, shall be appointed an elector.

3. *The electors shall meet in their respective states, and vote by ballot for two persons, of whom one at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves. And they shall make a list of all the persons voted for, and of the number of votes for each; which list they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of government of the United States, directed to the president of the senate. The president of the senate shall, in the presence of the senate and house of representatives, open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted. The person having the greatest number of votes shall be the president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if there be more than one who have such majority, and have an equal number of votes, then the house of representatives shall immediately choose, by ballot, one of them for president; and if no person have a majority, then, from the highest on the list, the said house shall, in like manner, choose the president. But in choosing the president, the vote shall be taken by states, the representation from each state having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice. In every case, after the choice of the president, the person having the greatest number of votes of the electors shall be the vice-president. But if there should remain two or more who have equal votes, the senate shall choose from them, by ballot, the vice-president.

4. The congress may determine the time of choosing the electors, and the day on which they shall give their votes, which day shall be the same throughout the United States.

5. No person, except a natural born citizen, or a citizen of the United States at the time of the adoption of this constitution, shall be eligible to the office of president; neither shall any person be eligible to that office who shall not have attained to the age of thirty-five years, and been fourteen years a resident within the United States.

6. In case of the removal of the president from office, or of his death, resignation, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, the same shall devolve on the vice-president; and the congress may, by law, provide for the case of removal, death, resignation or inability, both of the president and vice-president, declaring what officer shall then act as president; and such officer shall act accordingly, until the disability be removed, or a president shall be elected.

7. The president shall, at stated times, receive for his services a compensation which shall neither be increased nor diminished during the period for which he shall have been elected; and he shall not receive within that period any other emolument from the United States, or any of them.

8. Before he enter on the execution of his office, he shall take the following oath or affirmation:

“I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of president of the United States; and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the constitution of the United States.”

SECTION 2.

1. The president shall be commander-in-chief of the army and navy of the United States, and of the militia of Padelford*, 9 id. 542; The Grapeshot, id. 129; Armstrong's Foundry, 6 id. 766; Matter of Garland, 4 id. 333.

2. He shall have power, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, to make treaties, provided two-thirds of the senators present concur; and he shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the senate shall appoint, ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, judges of the supreme court, and all other officers of the United States whose appointments are not herein otherwise provided for, and which shall be established by law. But the congress may, by law, vest the appointment of such inferior officers as they think proper, in the president alone, in the courts of law, or in the heads of departments.

sary and expedient. He may on extraordinary occasions, convene both houses, or either of them; and in case of disagreement between them, with respect to the time of adjournment, he may adjourn them to such time as he shall think proper. He shall receive ambassadors and other public ministers. He shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed; and shall commission all the officers of the United States.

SECTION 4.

1. The president, vice-president and all civil officers of the United States, shall be removed from office on impeachment for, and conviction of treason, bribery or other high crimes and misdemeanors.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1.

1. The judicial power of the United States shall be vested in one supreme court, and in such inferior courts as the congress may, from time to time, ordain and establish. The judges, both of the supreme and inferior courts, shall hold their offices during good behavior; and shall, at stated times, receive for their services a compensation, which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office.

ARTICLE V.

1. The congress, whenever two-thirds of both houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose amendments to this constitution; or, on the application of the legislatures of two thirds of the several states, shall call a convention for proposing amendments, which, in either case, shall be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of this constitution, when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states, or by conventions in three-fourths thereof, as the one or the other mode of ratification may be proposed by the congress; provided that no amendment, which may be made prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight, shall in any manner affect the first and fourth clauses in the ninth section of the first article; and that no state, without its consent, shall be deprived of its equal suffrage in the senate.

ARTICLE VI.

1. All debts contracted and engagements entered into before the adoption of this constitution shall be as valid against the United States under this constitution, as under the confederation.

2. This constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, any thing in the constitution or laws of any state to the contrary notwithstanding.

Haver v. Taker, 9 Wall. 32; Foster v. Davenport, 22 How. 244.

3. The senators and representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several state legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several states, shall be bound by oath or affirmation to support this constitution; but no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States.

Matter of Garland, 4 Wall. 336.

ARTICLE VII.

1. The ratification of the conventions of nine states shall be sufficient for the establishment of this constitution between the states so ratifying the same.

Done in convention by the unanimous consent of the states present, the seventeenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, and of the Independence of the United States of America the twelfth. In witness whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names.

GEORGE WASHINGTON,

President, and Deputy from Virginia.

Attest. WILLIAM JACKSON, Secretary, and signed by thirty-eight delegates from twelve original states (not including Rhode Island).

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

[The following amendments were proposed at the first session of the first congress of the United States, which was begun and held at the city of New York on the 4th of March, 1789, and were adopted by the requisite number of states. Laws of the U. S., vol. 1, page 82.]

[The following preamble and resolution preceded the original proposition of the amendments, and as they have been supposed by a high equity judge (8 Wendell Rep. 100) to have an important bearing on the construction of those amendments, they are here inserted. They will be found in the journals of the first session of the first congress.

In Matter of Spies, 123 U. S. 131, the court say: "That the first ten articles of amendment were not intended to limit the powers of the state government, in respect to their own people, but to operate on the national government alone was decided more than a half century ago, and that decision has been steadily adhered to since."

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Begun and held at the city of New York, on Wednesday, the 4th day of March, 1789.

The conventions of a number of the states having, at the time of their adopting the constitution, expressed a desire, in order to prevent misconstruction or abuse of its powers, that further declaratory and restrictive clauses should be added, and as extending the ground of public confidence in the government will best insure the beneficent ends of its institution:

Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, two-thirds of both houses concurring, that the following articles be proposed to the legislatures of the several states, as amendments to the constitution of the United States; all or any of which articles, when ratified by three fourths of the said legislatures, to be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of the said constitution, namely :]

ARTICLE I.

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

U. S. v. Cruikshank, 92 U. S. 542.

ARTICLE II.

A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.

Presser v. Illinois, 116 U. S. 252.

ARTICLE III.

No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE IV.

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, paper and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated; and no warrants shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

See Boyd v. United States, 116 U. S. 616; People, ex rel., v. Board, etc., 32 State Rep'r, 827; Matter of Milligan, 4 Wall. 2; Murray v. Hoboken, etc., 18 How. 272; Smith v. State, id. 71.

ARTICLE V.

No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled, in any criminal case, to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation.

See generally Paschal's Annotated Const. (2d ed.) 258; Matter of Sawyer, 124 U. S. 200.

The object of the constitutional provision that "no person shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself" was not to prevent the passing of laws allowing the accused to testify in his own behalf if he choose to avail himself of that privilege, but to prevent the enactment of statutes by which the accused might be subjected to actual compulsion to give evidence; People v. Courtney, 1 N. Y. Cr. Rep. 558.

Infamous crime.—See 2 Abb. Nat. Dig. 222; 12 Cr. L. Mag. 210; Matter of Wilson, 114 U. S. 417; U. S. v. Wynn, 9 Fed. Rep'r, 886.

Witness against self.—See N. Y. Const., art. 1, § 6; 19 Eng. Rep. 617; 10 Cr. L. Mag. 417, 872; Boyd v. U. S., 116 U. S. 616; People v. Guidici, 100 N. Y. 508; People v. King, 64 Cal. 338.

As to compelling a prisoner to furnish evidence of his identity by putting his foot in a track or exposing his person, see State v. Graham, 74 N. C. 646; 21 Am. Rep. 493; Walker v. State, 7 Tex. Ct. App. 245; 32 Am. Rep. 595; Stokes v. State, 5 Baxt. 619; 32 Am. Rep. 595; State v. Sanders, 68 Mo. 202; 30 Am. Rep. 782; State v. Garrett, 71 N. C. 85; 17 Am. Rep. 1; State v. Ah Thuy, 14 Nev. 79; 33 Am. Rep. 530; Blackwell v. State, 67 Ga. 76; 44 Am. Rep. 717; Campbell v. State, 55 Ala. 80; Cooper v. State (Ala.), 4 L. R. A. 766.

Due process of law.—People, ex rel., v. Otis, 90 N. Y. 48; Nashville, etc., R. Co. v. Alabama, 128 U. S. 96; Eagan v. Lynch, 49 N. Y. Super. Ct. 454; 3 Civ. Pro. 236; Stephenson v. Hanson, 67 How. Pr. 305; Ramsen v. Wheeler, 105 N. Y. 573; Hein v. Davidson, 96 N. Y. 175; 67 How. Pr. 148; People, ex rel., v. Sheriff, etc., 11 Civ. Proc. 172; Matter of Union Elevated R. Co., 112 N. Y. 61; Lawton v. Steele, 119 N. Y. 226.

ARTICLE VI.

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the state and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law; and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense.

See 5 L. R. A. 832, note; Cooley's Const. Lim. 379, 380.

Calgan v. Wilson, 127 U. S. 540; U. S. v. Cruikshank, 92 id. 542; Miller v. U. S., 11 Wall. 268; Twitchell v. Com., 7 id. 321; People v. Petmecky, 2 N. Y. Cr. Rep. 51; United States v. Fox, 3 Mont. 512; People v. Williams, 35 Hun, 517.

ARTICLE VII.

In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved; and no fact tried by a jury shall be otherwise re-examined in any court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law.

See Kennon v. Gilmer, 131 U. S. 22; Buford v. Holley, 28 Fed. Rep'r. 680; United States v. Haynes, 29 id. 691; Edwards v. Elliott, 21 Wall. 532; Justices v. Murray, 9 id. 274; State v. Wheeling, etc., Bridge Co., 13 How. 518; Webster v. Reid, 11 id. 437; Lessee v. Moore, 7 Pet. 469.

ARTICLE VIII.

Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

People, ex rel. Kemmler, v. Durston, 55 Hun, 68; 119 N. Y. 569; Barker v. People, 3 Cow. 686; 20 Johns. 457; Pervear v. Com., 5 Wall. 475.

ARTICLE IX.

The enumeration in the constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

1 W. & M. 401; 3 S. & R. 169; 7 Pet. 469.

ARTICLE X.

The powers not delegated to the United States by the constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people.

Inman S. S. Co. v. Tinker, 94 U. S. 233; Claflin v. Houseman, 93 id. 130; Colloctre v. Day, 11 Wall. 113; Ableman v. Booth, 21 How. 506.

[The following amendment was proposed at the second session of the third congress. It is printed in the Laws of the United States, vol. 1, p. 73, as article 11.]

ARTICLE XI.

The judicial power of the United States shall not be construed to extend to any suit in law or equity, commenced or prosecuted against one of the United States by citizens of another state, or by citizens or subjects of any foreign state.

See art. III, section 1, ante; Paschal's Annotated Const. (2nd ed.) 270; Matter of Ayers, 123 U. S. 443; New Hampshire v. Louisiana, 108 id. 76; Cunningham v. Macon, etc., R. Co., 109 id. 446.

This amendment was caused by the decision in the Chisholm Case, 2 Dall. 419; see New York v. Louisiana, 108 U. S. 76.

And is limited to those suits in which the state is a real party or a party on the record. County of Lincoln v. Luning, 133 U. S. 529; Hugood v. Southern, 117 id. 52.

A state cannot be sued in a circuit court of the United States by one of its own citizens upon the ground that the case is one that arises under the constitution or laws of the United States. Hans v. State, 134 U. S. 1; 24 Fed. Rep'r, 55.

An action by a tax payer against a collector of taxes who has refused a tender of coupons which the state is bound to receive is not an action against the state but against the officer personally. Poindexter v. Greenhow, 114 U. S. 270.

A suit against a state officer to compel him to do what a statute requires of him is not a suit against the state. Rolston v. Missouri, etc., 120 U. S. 390.

[The three following sections were proposed as amendments at the first session of the eighth congress. They are printed in the Laws of the United States as article 12.]

ARTICLE XII.

1. The electors shall meet in their respective states, and vote by ballot for president and vice-president, one of whom at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves. They shall name in their ballots the person voted for as president, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as vice-president; and they shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as president, and of all persons voted for as vice-president, and of the number of votes for each; which lists they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the president of the senate. The president of the senate shall, in the presence of the senate and house of representatives, open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted. The person having the greatest number of votes for president shall be the president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if no person have such majority, then from the persons having the highest numbers, not exceeding three, on the list of those voted for as president, the house of representatives shall choose immediately, by ballot, the president. But in choosing the president, the votes shall be taken by states, the representation from each state having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice. And if the house of representatives shall not choose a president, whenever the right of choice shall devolve upon them, before the fourth day of March next following, then the vice-president shall act as president as in the case of the death or other constitutional disability of the president.

2. The person having the greatest number of votes as vice-president shall be the vice-president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed, and if no person have a majority, then from the two highest numbers on the list the senate shall choose the vice-president. A quorum for the purpose shall consist of two-thirds of the whole number of senators, and a majority of the whole number shall be necessary to a choice.

3. But no person constitutionally ineligible to the office of president shall be eligible to that of vice-president of the United States.

In Fitzgerald v. Green, 134 U. S. 377, the court say: "The sole function of the presidential electors is to cast, certify and transmit the vote of the state for president and vice-president of the nation. Although the electors are appointed and act under and pursuant to the constitution of the United States, they are no more officers or agents of the United States than are the members of the state legislatures when acting as electors of federal senators or the people of the states when acting as electors of representatives in congress."

ARTICLE XIII.*

SECTION 1.

Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

See U. S. v. Cruikshank, 92 U. S. 542.

SECTION 2.

Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Slaughter House Cases, 16 Wall. 36; Osborn v. Nicholson, 13 id. 664; White v. Hart, id. 646.

ARTICLE XIV.

SECTION 1.

All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the state wherein they reside. No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty or property, without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

This amendment was proposed by congress June 16, 1866. Ratification announced by secretary of state, July 28, 1868. See Paschal's Annotated Const. (2d ed.) 280.

* Proposed by congress February 1, 1865. Ratification announced by Secretary of State December 18, 1865.

"Person" includes "corporation." Missouri Pacific R. Co. v. Mackey, 127 U. S. 205; Home Ins. Co. v. People, 134 U. S. 594. See, also, State v. Waterloo, etc., 71 Iowa, 226; 60 Am. Rep. 786; Minneapolis, etc., R. Co. v. Beckwith, 129 U. S. 26. But corporations are not "citizens." Pembina Mining Co. v. Pennsylvania, 125 U. S. 181.

A state may pass laws regulating the privileges and immunities of its own citizens, which do not abridge their privileges and immunities as citizens of the United States, Presser v. Illinois, 116 U. S. 232.

The right to sell intoxicating liquors is not one of the "privileges and immunities," etc. Matter of Hoover, 30 Fed. Rep'r, 51.

A resident of a state is not a citizen there unless he intends by residence therein to become a citizen, Sharron v. Hill, 26 Fed. Rep'r, 337.

This amendment does not interfere with the police power of the states. Barbier v. Connolly, 113 U. S. 27; Powell v. Penn., 127 id. 678; Mugler v. Kansas, 123 U. S.

But the exercise of the police power by the states does not warrant the enactment of laws infringing positive provisions of the federal constitution. Walling v. Michigan, 116 U. S. 446.

See generally under this section Freeland v. Williams, 131 U. S. 465; Minneapolis, etc., R. Co. v. State, 134 id. 467; Palmer v. McMahon, 133 id. 660; Bell's Gap R. Co. v. Marx, 99 id. 386; Duquesne Club v. Penn Bank, 35 Hun, 392; People v. Williams, id. 522; People v. Budd, 117 N. Y. 1.

SECTION 2.

Representatives shall be apportioned among the several states according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each state, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for president and vice-president of the United States, representatives in congress, the executive and judicial officers of a state, or the members of the legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such state, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such state.

SECTION 3.

No person shall be a senator or representative in congress, or elector of president and vice-president, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any state, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any state legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any state, to support the constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each house, remove such disability.

SECTION 4.

The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any state shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations, and claims shall be held illegal and void.

SECTION 5.

The congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

See 24 Am. L. Rev. 908; Munn v. Illinois, 94 U. S. 113; United States v. Cruikshank, 92 id. 542; Kennard v. Louisiana, id. 480; Walker v. Sauvinet, id. 90; Minor v. Happerset, 21 Wall. 162; Bartemeyer v. Iowa, 18 id. 129; Bradwell v. State, 16 id. 130; People v. Budd, 117 N. Y. 1.

ARTICLE XV.*

SECTION 1.

The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

SECTION 2.

The congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

See Elk v. Wilkins, 112 U. S. 94; Matter of Yarbrough, 110 id. 651; Friesleben v. Shallcross, 8 L. R. A. 347.

This amendment does not confer the right of suffrage on any one, but prevents the states or the United States, however, from giving preference in this particular to one citizen of the United States over another on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude. U. S. v. Reese, 92 U. S. 214; U. S. v. Cruikshank, id. 542.

Section 1. When Constitution goes into operation.

The Constitution.

WE, THE PEOPLE of the State of New York, grateful to Almighty God for our Freedom, in order to secure its blessings, DO ESTABLISH THIS CONSTITUTION.

PREAMBLE. The origin of the State government was the 20th April, 1777. Jackson v. White, 20 Johns. 313.

The rule against statutory interference with vested rights, does not apply to a Constitution. Matter of Bank, 21 N. Y. 9.

The Constitution should be so construed as best to promote the objects for which it was made, avoiding the two extremes of a liberal or a strict construction. North River Steamboat Co. v. Livingston, 3 Cow. 713.

The courts, in construing the Constitution, have nothing to do with the argument ab inconvenienti. People v. Morrell, 21 Wend. 563; Newell v. People, 7 N. Y. 9, 109.

Statutes are presumed constitutional. Roosevelt v. Godard, 52 Barb. 533.

An act must be constitutional in substance as well as form. People v. Allen, 42 N. Y. 404.

The constitutionality of statutes ought not to be passed upon unless necessary. Frees v. Ford, 6 N. Y. 176; People ex rel. Wetmore v. Supervisors of New York, 2 Keyes, 288.

Nor should a statute be pronounced unconstitutional except in a case where there is no rational doubt. Ex parte McCollum, 1 Cow. 450, Clarke v. City of Rochester, 24 Barb. 446.

A conflict between the Constitution and a statute should not be implied. Cochran v. Van Surlay, 20 Wend. 365; Newell v. People, 7 N. Y. 9, 109; People v. Fisher, 24 Wend. 215.

There must be a clear conflict. Roosevelt v. Godard, 52 Barb. 533; People v. Bennett, 54 id. 480.

A statute is not unconstitutional unless in direct and necessary conflict with the Constitution. Grant v. Courter, 24 Barb. 232; Morris v. People, 3 Den. 381.

Nor unless it cannot be supported by any reasonable intendment or allowable presumption. People v. Supervisors of Orange, 17 N. Y. 235.

Nor because it merely conflicts with the spirit of the Constitution. People v. N. Y. Cent. & R. R. Co., 24 N. Y. 485.

A law unconstitutional in part may be enforced as to its constitutional provisions. Matter of De Vancene, 21 How. Pr. 289, 343.

Material and actual injury must be shown to warrant the court in pronouncing a statute unconstitutional. People v. Canal Board, 55 N. Y. 390.

A statute cannot be held unconstitutional when it may be constitutionally executed. People v. Rochester, 50 N. Y. 525.

A statute evading the terms, and frustrating the general and clearly expressed, or necessarily implied, purposes of the Constitution, is as clearly void, as if expressly forbidden. People v. Albertson, 55 N. Y. 50.

A constitutional prohibition should not be extended by construction from motives of convenience or policy. Settle v. Van Evrea, 49 N. Y. 280.

The long continued and undisputed practical construction of a constitutional provision by the Legislature has almost the force of judicial exposition in its interpretation. People ex rel. Williams v. Dayton, 55 N. Y. 367.

ARTICLE I.

No person to be disfranchised.

SECTION 1. No member of this State shall be disfranchised, or deprived of any of the rights or privileges secured to any citizen thereof, unless by the law of the land, or the judgment of his peers.

LAW OF THE LAND.—These words do not mean a statute passed by the Legislature for the purpose of working the wrong. The meaning is, that no member of the State shall be disfranchised, or deprived of any right or privilege, unless the matter shall be adjudged against him upon trial had according to the course of the common law. It must be ascertained judicially that he has forfeited his privileges, or that some one else has a superior title to the property he possesses, before either of them can be taken from him. It cannot be done by mere legislation. Taylor v. Porter, 4 Hill, 140; White v. White, 5 Barb. 474; People v. Toynbee, 20 id. 198.

Separate schools for colored children are permissible. People v. Gallagher, 93 N. Y. 438; s. c. 45 Am. Rep. 232.

Trial by jury.

SEC. 2. The trial by jury in all cases in which it has been heretofore used, shall remain inviolate forever; but a jury trial may be waived by the parties in all civil cases in the manner to be prescribed by law.

TRIAL BY JURY.—The jury intended is a common-law jury of twelve men. Wynehamer v. People, 13 N. Y. 378. But not in eminent domain proceedings. Astor v. Mayor, 62 id. 580.

But a statute increasing the civil jurisdiction of justices' courts is not unconstitutional merely because it transfers a class of cases from courts of record, where juries are composed of twelve men, to justices' courts, where they consist of six. Dawson v. Horan, 51 Barb. 459; People, ex rel. Metropolitan Board of Health, 6 Abb. Pr. (N. S.) 105.

The right to a jury trial extends only to cases in which it had been exercised before the adoption of the original Constitution. Duffy v. People, 6 Hill, 75.

The word "heretofore," in this clause of the Constitution of 1846, means before 1846, and not simply before 1777. People v. Wynehamer, 13 N. Y. 378.

A statute providing that the act of a person seen drinking liquor on the defendant's premises shall be presumptive evidence of the illegal sale, is unconstitutional. People v. Lyon, 27 Hun, 180.

Habitual criminals act valid. People v. McCarthy, 45 How. Pr. 97.

When a jury may be demanded.—On a criminal accusation for assault and battery; People v. Carroll, 3 Park, 22; for misdemeanors; People v. Johnson, 2 id. 322; under the prohibitory liquor law; Wynehamer v. People, 13 N. Y. 378; under law against bawdy-houses; Warren v. People, 3 Park, 544; in suits for penalties; Wood v. City of Brooklyn, 14 Barb. 425; for public intoxication; Hill v. People, 20 N. Y. 363; on a claim for breach of contract by a municipal corporation; Baldwin v.

ARTICLE I—Continued.

New York, 2 Keyes, 337; on question of damages in action for specific performance; Stevenson v. Buxton, 37 Barb. 13; in an action in nature of a quo warranto; People v. Albany and Susquehanna R. Co., 57 N. Y. 161; in an action to abate a nuisance; Hudson v. Clary, 44 id. 553. See, also, Sands v. Kimbark, 27 id. 141; Metropolitan Board of Health v. Heister, 37 id. 661.

When a jury cannot be demanded.—On proceedings by a corporation to expel a member; People ex rel. Thatcher v. N. Y. Com'l Ass'n, 18 Abb. 271; on inquiry by board of excise whether an applicant is a fit person to license; People ex rel. Presmeyer v. Com'rs of Police, etc., of Brooklyn, 59 N. Y. 92; on question of fact arising on motions; Porter v. Parmly 39 N. Y. Supr. 219; on proceedings against disorderly persons; Duffy v. People, 6 Hill, 75; Plato v. People, 3 Park. 386; on proceedings on recognizances; Gildersleeve v. People, 10 Barb. 35; in equity cases; Rathbun v. Rathbun, 3 How. Pr. 139; Coleman v. Dixon, 50 N. Y. 592; on proceedings to enforce personal liability of shareholder in corporation; Matter of Empire City Bank, 18 id. 199; to close business of insolvent corporation; Case of Mechanics Fire Ins. Co., 5 Abb. Pr. 444; to determine whether private property is needed for public uses; People ex rel. Herrick v. Smith, 21 N. Y., 595; on assessments of damages for property taken for public use; Livingston v. New York, 8 Wend. 85; Beekman v. Saratoga and Schenectady R. Co., 3 Pal. 45; claims by receivers of corporations against individuals; Sands v. Tillinghast, 24 How. Pr. 435; in actions involving examination of long accounts; Van Marter v. Hotchkiss, 1 Keyes, 535; on proceeding to determine claims to custody of children under apprenticeship; Matter of Donohue, 1 Abb. N. C., 1; in special proceedings such as those for the removal of tenants; Roberts v. Cone, 3 Alb. L. J., 151; in courts of special sessions; People v. Special Sessions, 74 N. Y. 496; in summary proceedings on recognizance; People v. Quigg, 59 id. 83; in summary proceedings for punishment of public intoxication; People v. Burleigh, 1 N. Y. Cr. 522.

A jury trial is not guaranteed by the constitutional provision for "due process of law." Wynehamer v. People, 13 N. Y. 373.

A corporation is entitled to a jury wherever an individual is. People ex rel. Baldwin v. Haws, 37 Barb. 440.

A trial by twelve jurors cannot legally be waived by the prisoner in a criminal case. People v. Cancemi, 18 N. Y. 128.

In civil cases a jury may be waived. Embury v. Connor, 3 N. Y. 511. It is waived by taking part in an assessment of damages for land taken for public improvement. People v. Murray, 5 Hill, 468; by receiving the damages awarded; Heyward v. Mayor of N. Y., 8 Barb. 486; 7 N. Y. 486; by consenting to a reference. Lee v. Tillotson, 24 Wend. 337. See People v. Quigg, 59 N. Y. 83.

The Legislature may constitutionally change the law as to the mode of procuring and impaneling a jury; Stokes v. People, 53 N. Y. 164; for example, as to the territory from which they may be summoned; Gardner v. People, 6 Park. 155; as to challenges to the people; Walter v. People, 32 N. Y. 147.

Courts-martial are recognized by the Constitution; People ex rel. v. Daniell, 50 N. Y. 274; and their fines may be enforced by legislative provision; People v. Daniell, id.

Religious liberty.

SEC. 3. The free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, without discrimination or preference, shall forever be allowed in this State to all mankind; and no person shall be rendered incompetent to be a witness on account of his opinions on matters of religious belief; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness, or justify practices inconsistent with the peace or safety of this State.

This provision does not shield a witness from cross-examination as to his religious belief. Stanbro v. Hopkins, 28 Barb. 265.

A law against theatrical representations on Sunday is valid. Lindenmuller v. People, 33 Barb. 548; Neuendorff v. Duryea, 69 N. Y. 557; S. C., 25 Am. Rep. 235.

Writ of habeas corpus.

SEC. 4. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when, in cases of rebellion or invasion, the public safety may require its suspension.

Bail, fines.

SEC. 5. Excessive bail shall not be required nor excessive fines imposed, nor shall cruel and unusual punishments be inflicted, nor shall witnesses be unreasonably detained.

The act of 1888, chap. 489, prescribing the use of electricity as the means of executing the death penalty, is constitutional. People ex rel. Kremmler v. Durston, 27 State Rep. 966.

Although there is a general maximum, Legislature may change or increase the punishment as to particular localities. Matter of Bayard, 25 Hun, 546.

The provision as to excessive bail applies only to criminal proceedings. People v. Tweed, 13 Abb. (N. S.) 148.

Disqualification for office is not an unconstitutional punishment for crime. Barker v. People, 20 Johns. 427.

Grand jury — Bill of rights.

SEC. 6. No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime (except in cases of impeachment, and in cases of militia when in actual service; and the land and naval forces in time of war, or which this State may keep with the consent of Congress in time of peace, and in cases of petit larceny, under the regulation of the Legislature), unless on presentment or indictment of a grand jury, and in any trial in any court whatever the party accused shall be allowed to appear and defend in person and with counsel as in civil actions. No person shall be subject to be twice put in jeopardy for the same offense; nor shall he be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself; nor be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

See People v. Sharp, 107 N. Y. 427; 1 Am. St. Rep. 851.

INDICTMENT.—A law allowing the indictment and trial of a burglar in any county into which he carries the property is valid: Mack v. People, 82 N. Y. 235; same principle, People v. Dowling, 84 id. 478.

Indictment by a grand jury de facto under an invalid statute is good. People v. Petrea, 92 N. Y. 128.

Provisions of Code Criminal Procedure relative to amending defective indictments are not violative of this section. People v. Johnson, 104 N. Y. 213.

COUNSEL.—This provision entitles the accused to counsel on trials by courts-martial. People ex rel Garling v. Van Allen, 55 N. Y. 31.

Prisoner has a right to interview with counsel. People v. Riseley, 13 Abb. N. C. 186.

Policeman on trial before police board has no right to counsel. People v. Police Comrs., 31 Hun, 209.

TWICE IN JEOPARDY.—“Former jeopardy” does not protect against new trial. People v. Palmer, 109 N. Y. 413. A prisoner may be tried on a second indictment after a nol. pros. or supersedeas of the first, to which a plea to the jurisdiction only had been overruled. Gardiner v. People, 6 Park. 155, 190.

A new trial cannot be granted where the prisoner has been acquitted of a felony. People v. Comstock, 8 Wend. 549.

A writ of error at the suit of the people will not lie after judgment for the defendant in a criminal case. People v. Corning, 2 N. Y. 9.

A prisoner, sentenced upon a regular trial and conviction, cannot be re-tried. Shepherd v. People, 25 N. Y. 406; but the judgment may be corrected under the act of 1863. Hussy v. People, 47 Barb. 503.

Where a conviction is reversed at the suit of the prisoner, a new trial may be ordered. People v. Ruloff, 5 Park. 77.

Where a prisoner has been put on trial, a juror cannot be withdrawn without his consent. People v. Barrett, 2 Cai. 304; Grant v. People, 4 Park. 527; Klock v. People, 2 id. 676.

In case of disagreement the jury may be discharged by the court, and the prisoner may be re-tried; People v. Goodwin, 18 Johns. 187; so where, being unable to agree, they separate without authority, and are afterward discharged. People v. Reagle, 60 Barb. 527.

In cases of misdemeanor the court of sessions may discharge the jury, without consent of the prisoner, and he may be tried again. People v. Denton, 2 Johns. Cas. 275.

An arrest of judgment after conviction for felony is not a bar to a second indictment. People v. Casbourns, 13 Johns. 351.

A prisoner is not put in jeopardy where the evidence fails to establish the offense charged. Canter v. People, 1 Abb. Dec. 305.

Conviction for assault and battery no bar to indictment for murder, where the person assaulted subsequently dies of the blows. Burns v. People, 1 Park. 182.

Where one is convicted of murder, and the law is subsequently repealed without reservation, and a new law enacted, he cannot be tried again, nor can he be executed under a re-enactment of the old law. Hartung v. People, 26 N. Y. 167.

Habitual criminals act valid. People v. McCarthy, 45 How. Pr. 97.

TESTIFYING FOR HIMSELF. — An act requiring parties to make discovery on oath concerning an indictable offense, but forbidding the answers from being used in evidence against them, is unconstitutional; Perrine v. Striker, 7 Pal. 598; nor is a person protected from testifying in a criminal case against another, on the ground that his testimony may tend to implicate him in a crime, provided he is protected by statute against the use of such testimony on his own trial. People ex rel. Hackley v. Kelley, 24 N. Y. 74.

Act allowing prisoners to testify for themselves valid. People v. Courtney, 94 N. Y. 90.

Where a prisoner testifies in his own behalf, he is subject to the same rules and tests as other witnesses. People v. Brandon, 42 N. Y. 265. By offering himself he waives the constitutional privilege. Connors v. People, 50 N. Y. 240.

DUE PROCESS. — A law authorizing the commitment of a person to the State Inebriate Asylum, upon ex parte affidavits alone, is unconstitutional. Matter of James, 30 How. Pr. 446.

Where, before the expiration of a term of imprisonment, the prisoner escapes, no new award of execution is necessary; he may be retaken and confined under the original judgment. Haggerty v. People, 53 N. Y. 478.

A forcible examination, under order of a coroner, of a female prisoner by physicians, for the purpose of obtaining evidence of her recent pregnancy, is a violation of the Constitution. People v. McCoy, 45 How. Pr. 215.

This provision has no reference to disciplinary proceedings before a medical society. Matter of Smith, 10 Wend. 449.

A law authorizing a condemnation of animals found trespassing, without notice to the owner, is unconstitutional; Rockwell v. Nearing, 35 N. Y. 302; otherwise where notice is required. Cook v. Gregg, 46 N. Y. 399.

Canal commissioners are constitutionally authorized to punish witnesses for contempt. People v. Learned, 5 Hun, 626.

As to what is "due process of law," see Matter of McAdam, 27 State Rep. 353.

"Due process" does not require proceeding according to common law, nor personal service. Happy v. Mosher, 48 N. Y. 313. In taking private property for public use notice to owners by publication is valid. Owners v. Albany, 15 Wend. 374; Matter of Union, etc., R. Co., 112 N. Y. 61.

"Due process of law" simply requires that a party shall have his day in court; the Legislature may take away a particular remedy and give a new one. People ex rel. v. Supervisors, 70 N. Y. 228.

As to when the attachment of an indebtedness due a non-resident without notice is within the provision of due process of law, see Martin v. Cent. Vl. R. Co., 50 Hun, 347.

The principle that property shall not be taken without "due process of law," and that such due process includes notices to the owner is for the benefit of the owner and not of third persons. People v. Turner, 49 Hun, 467.

The common council of a city grants to defendant a permit to build certain frame houses within its limits. After the work was commenced the resolution granting the permit was rescinded without notice. Held, void as violative of the constitutional prohibition against taking private property without due process of law. City of Buffalo v. Chadeaque, 27 State Rep. 60.

Chap. 448, Laws 1885, relating to comptroller's deeds as conclusive evidence of regularity of proceedings is constitutional. People v. Turner, 27 State Rep. 158.

As to provisions for the discovery and delivery of the property of a decedent. Matter of Beebe, 20 Hun, 462; Matter of Curry, 25 id. 321.

Provisions for taking testimony of witnesses conditionally in criminal proceedings, valid. People v. Williams, 35 Hun, 516.

A statute allowing sheriffs to withhold property, seized under attachments which have been vacated, from the rightful owners until payment of costs against the wrongful claimant, invalid. Bowe v. U. S. Reflector Co., 36 Hun, 407.

The act for the summary conviction of habitual thieves is valid. People v. McCarthy, 45 How. Pr. 97.

The act compensating parties for damage by mobs and riots is not objectionable as taking private property for public use without due process. Darlington v. Mayor of New York, 31 N. Y. 164.

A statute freeing a sheriff from liability and substituting his indemnitors, valid. Hein v. Davidson, 96 N. Y. 175.

An act authorizing sentence by a different court from that in which the conviction was had is valid. People v. Bork, 96 N. Y. 188.

An act providing for appointing receivers of insolvent insurance companies is valid. Atty-Gen. v. No. Am. Life Ins. Co., 82 N. Y. 172.

An act authorizing service of process on a director of a foreign corporation temporarily within the State, valid. Hiller v. Burlington, etc., R. Co., 70 N. Y. 223.

A statute authorizing the seizure of any property found in possession of a tax debtor is valid. Hersee v. Porter, 100 N. Y. 403.

A statute allowing the prohibition of transfer of negotiable securities by the publication of notice, invalid. People v. Otis, 90 N. Y. 48.

A statute prohibiting the sale or disposal of any article of food or any offer or attempt to do so, upon any representation or inducement that anything else will be delivered as a gift, prize, premium, or reward to the purchaser is unconstitutional. People v. Gillson, 109 N. Y. 389.

Seizure of milk below proper standard without notice, valid. Blazier v. Miller, 10 Hun, 435.

Prohibited sale of adulterated milk, valid. People v. Kibler, 106 N. Y. 323.

Prohibiting sale of imitation butter, valid. People v. Arensberg, 105 N. Y. 123; 59 Am. Rep. 483.

Statute giving houses of Legislature power to punish for contempt for refusing to testify, valid. People v. Keefer, 93 N. Y. 463; 52 Am. Rep. 49.

Act declaring what shall be deemed adulterated milk, invalid. People v. Cipperly, 37 Hun, 319.

Game law valid. Phelps v. Racey, 60 N. Y. 10; 10 Am. Rep. 140.

Destruction of fish-nets found in waters in violation of game law. Lawton v. Steele, 6 N. Y. Supp. 15.

Trial by jury not always essential to due process. Matter of Curry, 25 Hun, 321.

Tenement-house cigar act invalid. Matter of Jacobs, 93 N. Y. 98; 50 Am. Rep. 636.

Act regulating height of buildings, valid. People ex rel. Kemp v. D'Oeuch, 111 N. Y. 359. So act prohibiting sale or bringing of any milk diluted with water or adulterated to a butter or cheese manufactory to be manufactured, is valid. People v. West, 106 N. Y. 293.

Oleomargarine act invalid. People v. Marx, 90 N. Y. 377; 52 Am. Rep. 34.

Civil damage act invalid. Bertholf v. O'Reilly, 74 N. Y. 509; 30 Am. Rep. 323.

TAKING PRIVATE PROPERTY. — The Legislature may prohibit a use of private property which violates the duty the owner owes to his neighbor or to the State. Prentice v. Weston, 111 N. Y. 460. This does not include taxation. People ex rel. Griffin v. Mayor of Brooklyn, 4 N. Y. 419; Brewster v. City of Syracuse, 19 id. 216. But it includes prospective profits on a State contract. Danolds v. State, 89 N. Y. 36.

It belongs to the Legislature and not to the courts to determine whether the public benefit will justify the taking of private property for public use. Beekman v. Saratoga & S. R. R. Co., 3 Pai. 45; Harris v. Thompson, 9 Barb. 350; Bloodgood v. Mohawk & Hudson R. Co., 18 Wend. 9; Buffalo & N. Y. R. R. Co. v. Brainard, 9 N. Y. 100; People v. Smith, 21 id. 595; Ex parte Townsend, 39 id. 171; Dean Street, 53 id. 60; and how much or what interest shall be taken. Brooklyn Park Comm'rs v. Armstrong, 45 N. Y. 234.

But the question whether the purpose is public or private is a judicial one, to be determined by the courts; the grant by the Legislature of the right to take is not conclusive evidence that the use is a public one; so the provisions authorizing the taking of land for a rural cemetery association by proceeding in invitum, is unconstitutional. Matter of Danesville Cemetery Ass'n, 66 N. Y. 569.

The exercise of the right of eminent domain does not impair the validity of contracts. Lansing v. Smith, 4 Wend. 9.

The right may be exercised for the benefit and at the expense of a few. Owners v. Albany, 15 Wend. 374; through the instrumentality of a foreign or other corporation. Ex parte Townsend, 39 N. Y. 171; Bloomfield v. Natural Gas-light Co., 63 Barb. 437.

The national government may apply to condemn lands. Matter of U. S., 96 N. Y. 227.

Owner entitled to notice and hearing. Stuart v. Palmer, 74 N. Y. 183; 30 Am. Rep. 289; but Legislature may dictate manner and procedure; Matter of Mayor, 90 N. Y. 569; Matter of Livingston Street, 82 id. 221; but the court may not be directed to appoint commissioners from a list submitted by a common council. Menges v. City of Albany, 56 id. 374.

The permission to take private property for public use implies that it shall not be taken for any other use. Private property cannot be taken for private use. Cochran v. Van Surlay, 20 Wend. 365; Embury v. Connor, 3 N. Y. 511; Powers v. Bergen, 6 id. 358; even where compensation is made. Varick v. Smith, 5 Pai. 137; Taylor v. Porter, 4 Hill, 140;

By the Federal Constitution, art. 1, § 10, subd. 1, no State can pass any ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligation of contracts.

EX POST FACTO LAWS.—This provision has no application to laws relating exclusively to private rights; Southwick v. Southwick, 49 N. Y. 510; and applies only to crimes and punishments; Dash v. Van Kleeck, 7 Johns. 477.

WHAT LAWS ARE EX POST FACTO.—A law increasing the punishment denounced against an act when committed, or changing the punishment without lessening it; Shepherd v. People, 25 N. Y. 406; Hartung v. People, 26 id. 127; an act imposing upon electors a test oath as to past conduct; Green v. Shumway, 39 id. 418.

An act forbidding suit on insurance policies by a home company if assured die in a State imposing certain restrictions on companies of this State. Hamilton v. Knick. Life Ins. Co., N. Y. Daily Reg., Dec. 15, 1882.

WHAT LAWS ARE NOT EX POST FACTO.—Those changing the rules of evidence of the details of a criminal trial; People v. Stokes, 53 N. Y. 164; a law granting peremptory challenges to the people; Walter v. People, 32 id. 147; an act of Congress providing that deserters from military service, who shall refuse to return to service within a specified time, shall forfeit their citizenship; Gotchens v. Matheson, 58 Barb. 152; a law increasing punishment; People v. Raymond, 32 Hun, 123.

The former law cannot be revived as to persons who meantime have obtained an adjudication in their favor. Hartung v. People, supra.

LAWS IMPAIRING OBLIGATION OF CONTRACTS, WHAT ARE.—Laws divesting vested rights in property. Benson v. Mayor of New York, 10 Barb. 223; whether by State grant. People v. Platt, 17 Johns. 195; People ex rel. Fountain v. Supervisors of Westchester, 4 Barb. 64; or by private conveyance. Van Rensselaer v. Ball, 19 N. Trust Co.*, 96 id. 387; People v. Home Ins. Co., 92 id. 328.

COMPENSATION. — Benefit to the adjacent land of an owner whose land is taken for a public use is compensation, within this provision, and may equalize the damage. Betts v. Williamsburgh, 15 Barb. 255.

The inchoate right of dower of the wife of the owner of land so taken is divested by compensation to the husband. Moore v. Mayor, 8 N. Y. 110.

A statute deferring the payment of the compensation until it can be raised by tax is constitutional. Hammersly v. Mayor, 56 N. Y. 533; Chapman v. Gates, 54 id. 132.

Payment into court, under the general railroad act, when there are adverse claims to the compensation, is valid. Matter of N. Y. C. & H. R. R. Co., 60 N. Y. 116.

The clause, "be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law," is to have a large and liberal interpretation. People v. King, 110 N. Y. 423.

A street railroad franchise is "property" in the highest sense of the term, and not a mere license or privilege revokable at the will of the State. People v. O'Brien, 111 N. Y. 40, 41.

Private property—Private roads.

Sec. 7. When private property shall be taken for any public use, the compensation to be made therefor, when such compensation is not made by the State, shall be ascertained by a jury, or by not less than three commissioners appointed by a court of record, as shall be prescribed by law. Private roads may be opened in the manner to be prescribed by law; but in every case the necessity of the road and the amount of all damage to be sustained by the opening thereof shall be first determined by a jury of freeholders, and such amount, together with the expenses of the proceeding, shall be paid by the person to be benefited. General laws may be passed permitting the owners or occupants of agricultural lands to construct and maintain for the drainage thereof, necessary drains, ditches and dykes upon the lands of others, under proper restrictions and with just compensation, but no special laws shall be enacted for such purposes.

See Matter of Village of Middleton, 82 N. Y. 196.

This mode of assessing damages does not apply to assessments of benefits chargeable on owners whose lands are benefited by a local improvement. People ex rel. Griffin v. Mayor, 4 N. Y. 419.

The "jury" referred to means a body drawn in the ordinary mode, but whose decision may be pronounced by a majority. Cruger v. Hudson R. R. Co., 12 N. Y. 190.

An act providing that such assessors may be appointed by a common council, is unconstitutional. House v. City of Rochester, 15 Barb. 517; so where the common council is empowered to select twelve and draw three for commissioners. Menges v. City of Albany, 56 N. Y. 374; Hilton v. Bender, 69 id. 76.

A statute providing for re-assessment by a jury, when an assessment by commissioners is unsatisfactory, is valid. Clarke v. Miller, 42 Barb. 255.

The creation of a new road, which may answer as a substitute for a private way, does not affect the title of the party to the private way. Crounse v. Wemple, 29 N. Y. 540.

Where there has been an assessment in one mode the Legislature may direct a re-assessment in the other. Clark v. Miller, 54 N. Y. 528.

Freedom of speech and of the press.

Sec. 8. Every citizen may freely speak, write and publish his sentiments on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that right; and no law shall be passed to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech or of the press. In all criminal prosecutions or indictments for libels, the truth may be given in evidence to the jury; and if it shall appear to the jury that the matter charged as libelous is true, and was published with good motives and for justifiable ends, the party shall be acquitted; and the jury shall have the right to determine the law and the fact.

This applies only to criminal prosecutions George v. Jennings, 4 Hun, 66.

Right of petition — Divorces — Lotteries.

Sec. 9. No law shall be passed abridging the right of the people peaceably to assemble and to petition the government, or any department thereof; nor shall any divorce be granted otherwise than by due judicial proceedings; nor shall any lottery or the sale of lottery tickets, pool-selling, book-making, or any other kind of gambling hereafter be authorized or allowed within this State; and the Legislature shall pass appropriate laws to prevent offenses against any of the provisions of this section.

Payment of prizes in money is not an essential ingredient of a lottery; it is equally a lottery if the prizes are lands and chattels. Governors of Alms-house v. Am. Art Union, 7 N. Y. 228.

The sale of foreign lottery tickets is within the prohibition. Charles v. People, 1 N. Y. 180.

The sale of prize packages of candy, some containing money, or tickets entitling the purchaser to other property, constitutes a lottery. Hull v. Ruggles, 56 N. Y. 424.

A "gift concert" enterprise is a lottery. Negley v. Devlin, 12 Abb. (N. S.) 210.

Any distribution of prizes by chance is a lottery. Rolfe v. Delmar, 7 Rob. 80.

"Playing policy" is a lottery; Wilkinson v. Gill, 74 N. Y. 63; 30 Am. Rep. 264; but the issue of foreign government bonds with prizes is not; Kohn v. Koehler, 96 N. Y. 362; 48 Am. Rep. 628.

A statute may prohibit the sale of tickets in a lottery in another State and lawful there. People v. Noelke, 94 N. Y. 137; 46 Am. Rep. 128.

Right of property in lands — Escheats.

SEC. 10. The people of this State, in their right of sovereignty, are deemed to possess the original and ultimate property in and to all lands within the jurisdiction of the State; and all lands the title to which shall fail, from a defect of heirs, shall revert, or escheat to the people.

The acts of 1833 and 1834 concerning the relinquishment of escheats are constitutional. Englishbee v. Helmuth, 3 N. Y. 294.

Escheats are subject to claims of creditors; Mooers v. White, 6 Johns. Ch. 360; and outstanding life estates; People v. Conklin, 2 Hill. 67; and purchase-money mortgages. Farmers' Loan and Trust Co. v. People, 1 Sandf. Ch. 139.

A trust cannot defeat the right of escheat: as in the case of an alien; Leggett v. Dubois, 5 Pal. 114; nor adverse possession; McCaughal v. Ryan, 27 Barb. 376; nor naturalization, by retroactive effect. Heney v. Brooklyn Benev. Soc., 39 N. Y. 333.

Feudal tenures abolished.

SEC. 11. All feudal tenures of every description, with all their incidents, are declared to be abolished, saving, however, all rents and services certain which at any time heretofore have been lawfully created or reserved.

Allodial tenure.

SEC. 12. All lands within this State are declared to be allodial, so that, subject only to the liability to escheat, the entire and absolute property is vested in the owners, according to the nature of their respective estates.

French grants are not a legal title. Jackson v. Ingraham, 4 Johns. 163.

The title to lands under water is in the people. Gould v. Hudson R. R. Co., 6 N. Y. 522.

Certain leases invalid.

SEC. 13. No lease or grant of agricultural land, for a longer period than twelve years, hereafter made in which shall be reserved any rent or service of any kind, shall be valid.

A lease of agricultural lands for twelve years, with covenants for renewals, is void as to the renewals, but good for the original term. Hart v. Hart, 22 Barb. 606.

Two simultaneous leases of same lands, one for eight and the other for twelve years, both void. Clark v. Barnes, 76 N. Y. 301; 33 Am. Rep. 306.

In consideration of a covenant to support the plaintiff for life, she conveyed her real estate for life, and certain personal estate, and covenanted to devise a parcel of land; held not a lease within this provision. Stephens v. Reynolds, 6 N. Y. 454.

In order to render a lease void under this provision, there must be a reservation of a periodical rent as compensation for the estate granted; a grant for life or lives, upon a good consideration, payable at once or in installments, not by way of rent, is valid. Parsell v. Stryker, 41 N. Y. 480.

A lease of agricultural lands for longer than twelve years is void, although for other than agricultural purposes, unless there is a restriction as to their use in the lease. Odell v. Durant, 62 N. Y. 524.

Fines and quarter sales abolished.

SEC. 14. All fines, quarter sales, or other like restraints upon alienation reserved in any grant of and, hereafter to be made, shall be void.

A condition of quarter sale in a lease in fee is void. De Puyster v. Michael, 6 N. Y. 467.

Sale of lands.

SEC. 15. No purchase or contract for the sale of lands in this State made since the fourteenth day of October, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five; or which may hereafter be made, of, or with the Indians, shall be valid, unless made under the authority, and with the consent of the Legislature.

This provision applies to a purchase from a single Indian. Goodell v. Jackson, 20 Johns. 693.

Old Colony laws and acts of the Legislature—Common law—Commissioners to be appointed—Their duties.

Sec. 16. Such parts of the common law, and of the acts of the Legislature of the colony of New York, as together did form the law of the said colony, on the nineteenth day of April, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, and the resolutions of the Congress of the said colony, and of the convention of the State of New York, in force on the twentieth day of April, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, which have not since expired, or been repealed or altered; and such acts of the Legislature of this State as are now in force, shall be and continue the law of this State, subject to such alterations as the Legislature shall make concerning the same. But all such parts of the common law, and such of the said acts, or parts thereof, as are repugnant to this Constitution, are hereby abrogated.

So much only of the common law was in force here as was applicable to our circumstances and conditions: Myers v. Gemmel, 10 Barb 537; thus, the doctrine of easements in light and air never prevailed here.

The statute law of the mother country, when introduced by consent into the colony, became part of the common law. Bogardus v. Trinity Church, 4 Pai. 178, 198.

The English law of charitable uses is no part of the law of this State. Holland v. Alcock, 108 N. Y. 312; 2 Am. St. Rep. 240.

Grants of land since 1775—Prior grants.

Sec. 17. All grants of land within the State, made by the king of Great Britain, or persons acting under his authority, after the fourteenth day of October, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, shall be null and void; but nothing contained in this Constitution shall affect any grants of land within this State, made by the authority of the said king or his predecessors, or shall annul any charters to bodies politic and corporate, by him or them made, before that day; or shall affect any such grants or charters since made by this State, or by persons acting under its authority; or shall impair the obligation of any debts contracted by the State, or individuals, or bodies corporate, or any other rights of property, or any suits, actions, rights of action, or other proceedings in courts of justice.

This provision does not prevent the Legislature from altering or repealing charters in which that right was reserved. Matter of Reciprocity Bank, supra.

Board of assistant aldermen in the city of New York legally abolished. Demarest v. Mayor, 74 N. Y. 161.

Sec. 18. The right of action now existing to recover damages for injuries resulting in death, shall never be abrogated; and the amount recoverable shall not be subject to any statutory limitation.

ARTICLE II.

Qualification of voters.

Section 1. Every male citizen of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been a citizen for ninety days, and an inhabitant of this State one year next preceding an election, and the last four months a resident of the county, and for the last thirty days a resident of the election district in which he may offer his vote, shall be entitled to vote at such election in the election district of which he shall at the time be a resident, and not elsewhere, for all officers that now are or hereafter may be elective by the people; and upon all questions which may be submitted to the vote of the people, provided that in time of war no elector in the actual military service of the State, or of the United States, in the army or navy thereof, shall be deprived of his vote by reason of his absence from such election district; and the Legislature shall have power to provide the manner in which and the time and place at which such absent electors may vote, and for the return and canvass of their votes in the election districts in which they respectively reside.

See People v. Barber, 48 Hun, 198.

An act providing that no supervisor shall be superintendent of poor is valid within this provision. People ex rel. Furman v. Clute, 50 N. Y. 451.

County canvassers may not reject election returns on affidavits that the duplicates on file have been changed since filing. People v. Canvassers, 12 Abb. N. C. 77; 64 How. 334.

Persons excluded from the right of suffrage, etc.

Sec. 2. No person who shall receive, accept, or offer to receive, or pay, offer or promise to pay, contribute, offer or promise to contribute to another, to be paid or used, any money or other valuable thing as a compensation or reward for the giving or withholding a vote at an election, or who shall make any promise to influence the giving or withholding any such vote, or who shall make or become directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager depending upon the result of any election, shall vote at such election; and upon challenge for such cause, the person so challenged, before the officers authorized for that purpose shall receive his vote, shall swear or affirm before such officers that he has not received or offered, does not expect to receive, has not paid, offered or promised to pay, contributed, offered or promised to contribute to another, to be paid or used, any money or other valuable thing as a compensation or reward for the giving or withholding a vote at such election, and has not made any promise to influence the giving or withholding of any such vote, nor made or become directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager depending upon the result of such election. The Legislature shall enact laws excluding from the right of suffrage all persons convicted of bribery or of any infamous crime.

Certain employments not to effect residence of voters.

Sec. 3. For the purpose of voting, no person shall be deemed to have gained or lost a residence, by reason of his presence or absence, while employed in the service of the United States; nor while engaged in the navigation of the waters of this State, or of the United States, or of the high seas; nor while a student of any seminary of learning; nor while kept at any almshouse, or other asylum, or institution wholly or partly supported at public expense, or by charity; nor while confined in any public prison.

Soldiers' Home at Bath is an "asylum." Silvey v. Lindsay, 107 N. Y. 55.

Laws to be passed.

Sec. 4. Laws shall be made for ascertaining, by proper proofs, the citizens who shall be entitled to the right of suffrage hereby established, and for the registration of voters; which registration shall be completed at least ten days before each election. Such registration shall not be required for town and village elections except by express provision of law. In cities and villages having five thousand inhabitants or more, according to the last preceding State enumeration of inhabitants, voters shall be registered upon personal application only; but voters not residing in such cities or villages shall not be required to apply in person for registration at the first meeting of the officers having charge of the registry of voters.

Election to be by ballot.

Sec. 5. All elections by the citizens, except for such town officers as may by law be directed to be otherwise chosen, shall be by ballot, or by such other method as may be prescribed by law, provided that secrecy in voting be preserved.

Sec. 6. All laws creating, regulating or affecting boards of officers charged with the duty of registering voters, or of distributing ballots at the polls to voters, or of receiving, recording or counting votes at elections, shall secure equal representation of the two political parties which, at the general election next preceding that for which such boards or officers are to serve, cast the highest and the next highest number of votes. All such boards and officers shall be appointed or elected in such manner, and upon the nomination of such representatives of said parties respectively, as the Legislature may direct. Existing laws on this subject shall continue until the Legislature shall otherwise provide. This section shall not apply to town meetings, or to village elections.

ARTICLE III.

Legislative powers.

Section 1. The legislative power of this State shall be vested in the Senate and Assembly.

Each of the departments of government—legislative, judicial and executive, is restricted to the exercise of its own legitimate functions, and unless a legal and constitutional warrant can be found no one of the three should be permitted to invade the domain of the other. People ex rel. Sabold v. Webb, 23 State Rep. 325.

Legislative power is absolute and unlimited, except as restrained by the Constitution. Bank of Chenango v. Brown, 26 N. Y. 467; People v. Flagg, 46 id. 401.

Not only is the power, but the responsibility of legislation is imposed on the Legislature; they cannot submit any bill to the popular vote, except on providing for the contracting of a debt. Barto v. Himrod, 8 N. Y. 483.

But they may delegate powers to pass ordinances to municipal corporations. Tanner v. Trustees of Albion, 5 Hill, 121.

They may pass bills to take effect on the happening of a future event; Corning v. Green, 23 Barb. 33; or granting power to be exercised upon conditions; Bank of Rome v. Village of Rome, 18 N. Y. 38; or through a prescribed medium; Bloodgood v. Mohawk & Hudson R. R. Co., 18 Wend. 9; or submit to a vote of a municipality the expediency of borrowing money to build a railroad; Clarke v. Rochester, 28 N. Y. 605; but cannot compel a municipality without its consent to become a stockholder in a railroad. People v. Batchellor, 53 id. 128.

The Legislature has no judicial authority, and cannot bind the courts by a declaratory law; People v. Supervisors of New York, 16 N. Y. 424; nor declare in advance the intent of subsequent legislation, or its effect upon existing statutes. Mongeon v. People, 55 id. 613.

District number fifty (50) shall consist of the counties of Chautauqua and Cattaraugus.

Enumeration to be taken every ten years—Senate districts, how altered.

Sec. 4. An enumeration of the inhabitants of the State shall be taken under the direction of the Secretary of State, during the months of May and June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, and in the same months every tenth year thereafter; and the said districts shall be so altered by the Legislature at the first regular session after the return of every enumeration, that each senate district shall contain as nearly as may be an equal number of inhabitants, excluding aliens, and be in as compact form as practicable, and shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration, and shall at all times, consist of contiguous territory, and no county shall be divided in the formation of a senate district except to make two or more senate districts wholly in such county. No town, and no block in a city inclosed by streets or public ways, shall be divided in the formation of senate districts; nor shall any district contain a greater excess in population over an adjoining district in the same county, than the population of a town or block therein, adjoining such district. Counties, towns or blocks which, from their location, may be included in either of two districts, shall be so placed as to make said districts most nearly equal in number of inhabitants, excluding aliens.

No county shall have four or more senators unless it shall have a full ratio for each senator. No county shall have more than one-third of all the senators; and no two counties or the territory thereof as now organized, which are adjoining counties, or which are separated only by public waters, shall have more than one-half of all the senators.

The ratio for apportioning senators shall always be obtained by dividing the number of inhabitants, excluding aliens, by fifty, and the Senate shall always be composed of fifty members, except that if any county having three or more senators at the time of any apportionment shall be entitled on such ratio to an additional senator or senators, such additional senator or senators shall be given to such county in addition to the fifty senators, and the whole number of senators shall be increased to that extent.

Members of Assembly, number of, etc.

Sec. 5. The members of the Assembly shall be chosen by single districts, and shall be apportioned by the Legislature at the first regular session after the return of every enumeration among the several counties of the State, as nearly as may be according to the number of their respective inhabitants, excluding aliens. Every county heretofore established and separately organized, except the county of Hamilton, shall always be entitled to one member of assembly, and no county shall hereafter be erected unless its population shall entitle it to a member. The county of Hamilton shall elect with the county of Fulton, until the population of the county of Hamilton shall, according to the ratio, entitle it to a member. But the Legislature may abolish the said county of Hamilton and annex the territory thereof to some other county or counties.

The quotient obtained by dividing the whole number of inhabitants of the State, excluding aliens, by the number of members of assembly, shall be the ratio for apportionment, which shall be made as follows: One member of assembly shall be apportioned to every county, including Fulton and Hamilton as one county, containing less than the ratio and one-half over. Two members shall be apportioned to every other county. The remaining members of assembly shall be apportioned to the counties having more than two ratios according to the number of inhabitants, excluding aliens. Members apportioned on remainders shall be apportioned to the counties having the highest remainders in the order thereof respectively. No county shall have more members of assembly than a county having a greater number of inhabitants, excluding aliens.

Until after the next enumeration, members of the Assembly shall be apportioned to the several counties as follows: Albany county, four members; Allegany county, one member; Broome county, two members;

Cattaraugus county, two members; Cayuga county, two members; Chautauqua county, two members; Chemung county, one member; Chenango county, one member; Clinton county, one member; Columbia county, one member; Cortland county, one member; Delaware county, one member; Dutchess county, two members; Erie county, eight members; Essex county, one member; Franklin county, one member; Fulton and Hamilton counties, one member; Genesee county, one member; Greene county, one member; Herkimer county, one member; Jefferson county, two members; Kings county, twenty-one members; Lewis county, one member; Livingston county, one member; Madison county, one member; Monroe county, four members; Montgomery county, one member; New York county, thirty-five members; Niagara county, two members; Oneida county, three members; Onondaga county, four members; Ontario county, one member; Orange county, two members; Orleans county, one member; Oswego county, two members; Otsego county, one member; Putnam county, one member; Queens county, three members; Rensselaer county, three members; Richmond county, one member; Rockland county, one member; St. Lawrence county, two members; Saratoga county, one member; Schenectady county, one member; Schoharie county, one member; Schuyler county, one member; Seneca county, one member; Steuben county, two members; Suffolk county, two members; Sullivan county, one member; Tioga county, one member; Tompkins county, one member; Ulster county, two members; Warren county, one member; Washington county, one member; Wayne county, one member; Westchester county, three members; Wyoming county, one member, and Yates county, one member.

In any county entitled to more than one member, the board of supervisors, and in any city embracing an entire county and having no board of supervisors, the common council, or if there be none, the body exercising the powers of a common council, shall assemble on the second Tuesday of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and at such times as the Legislature making an apportionment shall prescribe, and divide such counties into assembly districts as nearly equal in number of inhabitants, excluding aliens, as may be, of convenient and contiguous territory in as compact form as practicable, each of which shall be wholly within a senate district formed under the same apportionment equal to the number of members of assembly to which such county shall be entitled, and shall cause to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State and of the clerk of such county; a description of such districts, specifying the number of each district and of the inhabitants thereof, excluding aliens, according to the last preceding enumeration; and such apportionment and districts shall remain unaltered until another enumeration shall be made, as herein provided; but said division of the city of Brooklyn and the county of Kings to be made on the second Tuesday of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, shall be made by the common council of said city and the board of supervisors of said county, assembled in joint session. In counties having more than one senate district, the same number of assembly districts shall be put in each senate district, unless the assembly districts cannot be evenly divided among the senate districts of any county, in which case one more assembly district shall be put in the senate district in such county having the largest, or one less assembly district shall be put in the senate district in such county having the smallest number of inhabitants, excluding aliens, as the case may require. No town, and no block in a city inclosed by streets or public ways, shall be divided in the formation of assembly districts, nor shall any district contain a greater excess in population over an adjoining district in the same senate district, than the population of a town or block therein adjoining such assembly district. Towns or blocks which, from their location, may be included in either of two districts, shall be so placed as to make said districts most nearly equal in number of inhabitants, excluding aliens; but in the division of cities under the first apportionment, regard shall be had to the number of inhabitants, excluding aliens, of the election districts according to the State enumeration of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, so far as may be, instead of blocks. Nothing in this section shall prevent the division, at any time, of counties and towns, and the erection of new towns by the Legislature.

An apportionment by the Legislature, or other body, shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court, at the suit of any citizen, under such reasonable regulations as the Legislature may prescribe; and any court before which a cause may be pending involving an apportionment, shall give precedence thereto over all other causes and proceedings, and if said court be not in session it shall convene promptly for the disposition of the same.

The Legislature cannot, by altering bounds of cities and towns, alter an Assembly district except at the decennial apportionment. Kinne v. Syracuse, 3 Keyes, 110.

The provision for reorganizing Senate and Assembly districts at the next session of the Legislature after the decennial census is directory merely; an act for that purpose, passed at a subsequent session, is valid. Rumsey v. People, 19 N. Y. 41.

This provision binds the Legislature as well as boards of supervisors. Lanning v. Carpenter, 20 N. Y. 447.

In determining the question of population the Legislature are not confined to the last census, nor restrained in regard to the nature of the evidence as their basis of the action. DeCamp v. Eveland, 19 Barb. 81.

A new county may be erected for municipal and judicial purposes only, until the next apportionment, with right of suffrage to the electors meanwhile. Id.

Pay of members.

Sec. 6. Each member of the Legislature shall receive for his services an annual salary of one thousand five hundred dollars. The members of either house shall also receive the sum of one dollar for every ten miles they shall travel in going to and returning from their place of meeting, once in each session, on the most usual route. Senators, when the Senate alone is convened in extraordinary session, or when serving as members of the Court for the Trial of Impeachments, and such members of the assembly, not exceeding nine in number, as shall be appointed managers of an impeachment, shall receive an additional allowance of ten dollars a day.

No member to receive an appointment.

Sec. 7. No member of the Legislature shall receive any civil appointment within this State, or the Senate of the United States, from the Governor, the Governor and Senate, or from the Legislature, or from any city government, during the time for which he shall have been elected; and all such appointments and all votes given for any such member for any such office or appointments shall be void.

Persons disqualified for being members.

Sec. 8. No person shall be eligible to the Legislature, who at the time of his election, is, or within one hundred days previous thereto has been, a member of Congress, a civil or military officer under the United States, or an officer under any city government. And if any person shall, after his election as a member of the Legislature, be elected to Congress, or appointed to any office, civil or military, under the government of the United States, or under any city government, his acceptance thereof shall vacate his seat.

Time of election fixed.

Sec. 9. The elections of senators and members of assembly, pursuant to the provisions of this Constitution, shall be held on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday of November, unless otherwise directed by the Legislature.

Powers of each house.

Sec. 10. A majority of each house shall constitute a quorum to do business. Each house shall determine the rules of its own proceedings, and be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members; shall choose its own officers; and the Senate shall choose a temporary president to preside in case of the absence or impeachment of the Lieutenant-Governor, or when he shall refuse to act as president, or shall act as Governor.

Journals to be kept.

Sec. 11. Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and publish the same, except such parts as may require secrecy. The doors of each house shall be kept open, except when the public welfare shall require secrecy. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than two days.

No members to be questioned, etc.

Sec. 12. For any speech or debate in either house of the Legislature, the members shall not be questioned in any other place.

Bills may originate in either house.

Sec. 13. Any bill may originate in either house of the Legislature, and all bills passed by one house may be amended by the other.

Enacting Clause of bills.

Sec. 14. The enacting clause of all bills shall be "The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows," and no law shall be enacted except by bill.

Assent of a majority of all the members required, etc.

Sec. 15. No bill shall be passed or become a law unless it shall have been printed and upon the desks of the members, in its final form, at least three calendar legislative days prior to its final passage, unless the Governor, or the acting Governor, shall have certified to the necessity of its immediate passage, under his hand and the seal of the State; nor shall any bill be passed or become a law, except by the assent of a majority of the members elected to each branch of the Legislature; and upon the last reading of a bill, no amendment thereof shall be allowed, and the question upon its final passage shall be taken immediately thereafter, and the yeas and nays entered on the journal.

Restriction as to private and local bills.

Sec. 16. No private or local bills, which may be passed by the Legislature, shall embrace more than one subject, and that shall be expressed in the title.

An act containing both general and local provisions is not a local act, and the general provisions are not void because the title refers only to the local provisions; People v. McCann, 16 N. Y. 58; but the local provisions are void unless specified in the title. People v. Supervisors of Chautauqua, 43 N. Y. 10.

An expression of the general subject is sufficient. Nuendorff v. Duryea, 69 N. Y. 557.

Existing law not to be made a part of an act except by inserting it therein.

Sec. 17. No act shall be passed which shall provide that any existing law, or any part thereof, shall be made or deemed a part of said act, or which shall enact that any existing law, or part thereof, shall be applicable, except by inserting it in such act.

An act recognizing and validating a concurrent resolution is not within this prohibition: People v. Larned, 5 Hun, 626.

This provision does not require the re-enactment of general laws necessary to carry into effect a special statute. People ex rel. Com'rs v. Banks, 67 N. Y. 568.

An act altering a town by creating a new one out of it, and providing that all laws applicable to the old town is valid. People ex rel. v. Hayt, 7 Hun, 39.

See Wells v. City of Buffalo, 14 Hun, 438; Hurlburt v. Banks, 1 Abb. N. C. 157; People v. Hayt, 7 Hun, 39; Hathaway v. Tuttle, 12 Week. Dig. 240; Nash v. White's Bank of Buffalo, 37 Hun, 57.

Private and local bills not to be passed in certain cases.

Sec. 18. The Legislature shall not pass a private or local bill in any of the following cases:

Changing the names of persons.

Not applicable to corporations. Moran v. Lydecker, 11 Abb. N. C. 298; 27 Hun, 582.

Laying out, opening, altering, working or discontinuing roads, highways or alleys, or for draining swamps or other low lands.

See People ex rel. Morrill v. Supervisors, 112 N. Y. 585.

Not applicable to city streets or avenues. Matter of Woolsey, 95 N. Y. 135.

Locating or changing county seats.

Providing for changes of venue in civil or criminal cases.

Incorporating villages.

But they may amend a village charter existing before this provision was adopted. Reed v. Schmit, 37 Hun, 223.

Providing for election of members of boards of supervisors.

An act providing for election of supervisors in four counties only is void. People v. Hoffman, 60 How. Pr. 324.

Selecting, drawing, summoning or impaneling grand or petit jurors.

Not applicable to an amendment simply transferring power of selection of petit jurors. People v. Petrea, 92 N. Y. 128.

Regulating the rate of interest on money.

The opening and conducting of elections or designating places of voting.

Creating, increasing or decreasing fees, percentage or allowances of public officers, during the term for which said officers are elected or appointed.

Not applicable to general bill increasing fees of sheriffs of Kings county; Kerrigan v. Force, 68 N. Y. 381; nor to New York city consolidation act; Ricketts v. Mayor, 67 How. Pr. 320; nor to regular salaried officers; Mangam v. City of Brooklyn, 98 N. Y. 585; nor to certain county treasurers; Supervisors of Seneca v. Allen, 99 id. 532. See Cole v. State, 101 id. 48.

Nor to act conferring exclusive jurisdiction in criminal matters upon police justices. People ex rel. Lynch v. Duffy, 49 Hun, 276.

Granting to any corporation, association or individual the right to lay down railroad tracks.

See Astor v. Arcade R. Co., 113 N. Y. 93; Farnham v. Benedict, 107 id. 160.

An act authorizing the construction of an "illustrative section" of elevated railway on a street in New York is invalid. People v. Loew, 102 N. Y. 471.

Providing for building bridges, and chartering companies for such purposes, except on the Hudson river below Waterford, and on the East river, or over the waters forming a part of the boundaries of the State.

The Legislature shall pass general laws providing for the cases enumerated in this section, and for all other cases which in its judgment may be provided for by general laws. But no law shall authorize the construction or operation of a street railroad except upon the condition that the consent of the owners of one-half in value of the property bounded on, and the consent also of the local authorities having the control of that portion of a street or highway upon which it is proposed to construct or operate such railroad be first obtained, or in case the consent of such property owners cannot be obtained, the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, in the department in which it is proposed to be constructed, may, upon application, appoint three commissioners who shall determine, after a hearing of all parties interested, whether such railroad ought to be constructed or operated, and their determination, confirmed by the court, may be taken in lieu of the consent of the property owners.

the funds under its management, except in pursuance of an appropriation by law; nor unless such payment be made within two years next after the passage of such appropriation act; and every such law making a new appropriation, or continuing or reviving an appropriation, shall distinctly specify the sum appropriated, and the object to which it is to be applied; and it shall not be sufficient for such law to refer to any other law to fix such sum.

Sec. 22. No provision or enactment shall be embraced in the annual appropriation or supply bill, unless it relates specifically to some particular appropriation in the bill; and any such provision or enactment shall be limited in its operation to such appropriation.

Certain sections not to apply to certain bills.

Sec. 23. Sections seventeen and eighteen of this article shall not apply to any bill, or the amendments to any bill, which shall be reported to the Legislature by commissioners who have been appointed pursuant to law to revise the statutes.

The Legislature are the exclusive judges whether a bill was so reported. People v. Petrea, 92 N. Y. 123.

Bill imposing a tax, manner of passing.

Sec. 24. Every law which imposes, continues or revives a tax shall distinctly state the tax and the object to which it is to be applied, and it shall not be sufficient to refer to any other law to fix such tax or object.

See Clark v. Sheldon, 106 N. Y. 104.

such city the duties and powers of a board of supervisors may be devolved upon the common council or board of aldermen thereof.

Local legislative powers.

Sec. 27. The Legislature shall, by general laws, confer upon the boards of supervisors of the several counties of the State such further powers of local legislation and administration as the Legislature may from time to time deem expedient.

See People ex rel. Morrill v. Supervisors, 112 N. Y. 586.

Occupation and employment of convicts.

Sec. 29. The Legislature shall, by law, provide for the occupation and employment of prisoners sentenced to the several state prisons, penitentiaries, jails and reformatories in the State; and on and after the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, no person in any such prison, penitentiary, jail or reformatory, shall be required or allowed to work, while under sentence thereto, at any trade, industry or occupation, wherein or whereby his work, or the product or profit of his work, shall be farmed out, contracted, given or sold to any person, firm, association or corporation. This section shall not be construed to prevent the Legislature from providing that convicts may work for, and that the products of their labor may be disposed of to, the State or any political division thereof, or for or to any public institution owned or managed and controlled by the State, or any political division thereof.

ARTICLE IV.

Executive power, how vested.

Section 1. The executive power shall be vested in a Governor, who shall hold his office for two years; a Lieutenant-Governor shall be chosen at the same time, and for the same term. The Governor and Lieutenant-Governor elected next preceding the time when this section shall take effect, shall hold office until and including the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and their successors shall be chosen at the general election in that year.

Qualifications of Governor.

Sec. 2. No person shall be eligible to the office of Governor or Lieutenant-Governor, except a citizen of the United States, of the age of not less than thirty years, and who shall have been five years next preceding his election a resident of this State.

Election of Governor and Lieutenant-Governor.

Sec. 3. The Governor and Lieutenant-Governor shall be elected at the times and places of choosing members of the Assembly. The persons respectively having the highest number of votes for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor shall be elected; but in case two or more shall have an equal and the highest number of votes for Governor, or for Lieutenant-Governor, the two houses of the Legislature at its next annual session shall forthwith, by joint ballot, choose one of the said persons so having an equal and the highest number of votes for Governor or Lieutenant-Governor.

Duties and power of the Governor. — His compensation.

Sec. 4. The Governor shall be Commander-in-Chief of the military and naval forces of the State. He shall have power to convene the Legislature, or the Senate only, on extraordinary occasions. At extraordinary sessions no subject shall be acted upon, except such as the Governor may recommend for consideration. He shall communicate by message to the Legislature at every session the condition of the State, and recommend such matters to them as he shall judge expedient. He shall transact all necessary business with the officers of government, civil and military. He shall expedite all such measures as may be resolved upon by the Legislature, and shall take care that the laws are faithfully executed. He shall receive for his services an annual salary of ten thousand dollars, and there shall be provided for his use a suitable and furnished executive residence.

As commander-in-chief the Governor has power to consolidate companies and regiments. People v. Egan, 17 How. Pr. 375.

No action will lie to recover any part of money appropriated by law to the Governor for incidental expenses; the propriety of the expenditure is not a subject of judicial cognizance. People v. Lewis, 7 Johns. 73.

Pardoning powers vested in the Governor.

Sec. 5. The Governor shall have the power to grant reprieves, commutations and pardons after conviction, for all offenses except treason and cases of impeachment, upon such conditions and with such restrictions and limitations, as he may think proper, subject to such regulations as may be provided by law relative to the manner of applying for pardons. Upon conviction for treason, he shall have power to suspend the execution of the sentence, until the case shall be reported to the Legislature at its next meeting, when the Legislature shall either pardon, or commute the sentence, direct the execution of the sentence, or grant a further reprieve. He shall annually communicate to the Legislature each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon granted, stating the name of the convict, the crime of which he was convicted, the sentence and its date, and the date of the commutation, pardon or reprieve.

A provision in a pardon that it shall not remove disabilities, is void People v. Pease, 3 Johns. Cas. 333.

Pardon of one imprisoned for life does not restore rights of previous marriage or of guardianship. 2 R. S. 139, § 7.

The court cannot go behind a pardon although fraudulently obtained. In re Edymoin, 8 How. Pr. 478; a pardon will not be disregarded, although the statutory notice of application for it was not given. Id.

In case of breach of a conditional pardon, the recipient may be remanded, and the original sentence executed. People v. Potter, 1 Park. 47.

The power to grant conditional pardons does not authorize immoral, impossible or illegal conditions. Id.

Powers of Governor to devolve on Lieutenant-Governor.

Sec. 6. In case of the impeachment of the Governor, or his removal from office, death, inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, resignation, or absence from the State, the powers and duties of the office shall devolve upon the Lieutenant-Governor for the residue of the term, or until the disability shall cease. But when the Governor shall, with the consent of the Legislature, be out of the State, in

Qualifications of Lieutenant-Governor.

Sec. 7. The Lieutenant-Governor shall possess the same qualifications of eligibility for office as the Governor. He shall be president of the Senate, but shall have only a casting vote therein. If during a vacancy of the office of Governor, the Lieutenant-Governor shall be impeached, displaced, resign, die, or become incapable of performing the duties of his office, or be absent from the State, the President of the Senate shall act as Governor until the vacancy be filled or the disability shall cease; and if the President of the Senate for any of the above causes shall become incapable of performing the duties pertaining to the office of Governor, the Speaker of the Assembly shall act as Governor until the vacancy be filled or the disability shall cease.

Compensation of Lieutenant-Governor.

Sec. 8. The Lieutenant-Governor shall receive for his services an annual salary of five thousand dollars, and shall not receive or be entitled to any other compensation, fee or perquisite, for any duty or service he may be required to perform by the Constitution or by law.

Bills to be presented to Governor for signature.

Sec. 9. Every bill which shall have passed the Senate and Assembly shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the Governor; if he approve, he shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it with his objections to the house in which it shall have originated, which shall enter the objections at large on the journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration, two-thirds of the members elected to that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house by which it shall likewise be reconsidered; and if approved by two-thirds of the members elected to that house, it shall become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. In all such cases, the votes in both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the Governor within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Legislature shall, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall not become a law without the approval of the Governor. No bill shall become a law after the final adjournment of the Legislature, unless approved by the Governor within thirty days after such adjournment. If any bill presented to the Governor contain several items of appropriation of money, he may object to one or more of such items while approving of the other portion of the bill. In such case, he shall append to the bill, at the time of signing it, a statement of the items to which he objects; and the appropriation so objected to shall not take effect. If the Legislature be in session, he shall transmit to the house in which the bill originated a copy of such statement, and the items objected to shall be separately considered. If on reconsideration one or more of such items be approved by two-thirds of the members elected to each house, the same shall be part of the law, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. All the provisions of this section, in relation to bills not approved by the Governor, shall apply in cases in which he shall withhold his approval from any item or items contained in a bill appropriating money.

Clause that act becomes a law if not returned signed within ten days, unless return is prevented by adjournment, means adjournment at close of session. 49 Hun, 550.

The power of the Governor to approve and sign a bill presented to him within ten days previous to the adjournment does not cease with the adjournment. People v. Bowen, 21 N. Y. 517.

ARTICLE V.

State officers.

Section 1. The Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer, Attorney-General and State Engineer and Surveyor shall be chosen at a general election at the times and places of electing the Governor and Lieutenant-Governor, and shall hold their offices for two years, except as provided in section two of this article. Each of the officers in this article named, excepting the Speaker of the Assembly, shall, at stated times during his continuance in office, receive for his services a compensation which shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which he shall have been elected; nor shall he receive to his use any fees or perquisites of office or other compensation. No person shall be elected to the office of State Engineer and Surveyor who is not a practical civil engineer.

Sec. 2. The first election of the Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer, Attorney-General and State Engineer and Surveyor, pursuant to this article shall be held in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and their terms of office shall begin on the first day of January following, and shall be for three years. At the general election in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, and every two years thereafter, their successors shall be chosen for the term of two years.

Superintendent of Public Works.

Sec. 3. A superintendent of public works shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and hold his office until the end of the term of the Governor by whom he was nominated, and until his successor is appointed and qualified. He shall receive a compensation to be fixed by law. He shall be required by law to give security for the faithful execution of his office before entering upon the duties thereof. He shall be charged with the execution of all laws relating to the repair and navigation of the canals, and also of those relating to the construction and improvement of the canals, except so far as the execution of the laws relating to such construction or improvement shall be confided to the State Engineer and Surveyor; subject to the control of the Legislature, he shall make the rules and regulations for the navigation or use of the canals. He may be suspended or removed from office by the Governor, whenever, in his judgment, the public interest shall so require; but in case of the removal of such Superintendent of Public Works from office, the Governor shall file with the Secretary of State a statement of the cause of such removal, and shall report such removal and the cause thereof to the Legislature at its next session. The Superintendent of Public Works shall appoint not more than three assistant superintendents, whose duties shall be prescribed by him, subject to modification by the Legislature, and who shall receive for their services a compensation to be fixed by law. They shall hold their office for three years, subject to suspension or removal by the Superintendent of Public Works, whenever, in his judgment, the public interest shall so require. Any vacancy in the office of any such assistant superintendents shall be filled for the remainder of the term for which he was appointed, by the Superintendent of Public Works; but in case of the suspension or removal of any such assistant superintendent by him, he shall at once report to the Governor, in writing, the cause of such removal. All other persons employed in the care and management of the canals, except collectors of tolls, and those in the department of the State Engineer and Surveyor, shall be appointed by the Superintendent of Public Works, and be subject to suspension or removal by him. The Superintendent of Public Works shall perform all the duties of the Canal Commissioners, and Board of Canal Commissioners, as now declared by law, until otherwise provided by the Legislature. The Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall have power to fill vacancies in the office of Superintendent of Public Works; if the Senate be not in session, he may grant commissions which shall expire at the end of the next succeeding session of the Senate.

Under this section the Superintendent of Public Works has the exclusive power to determine as to the propriety of the appointments of his subordinates, and the sufficiency of their qualifications. People ex rel. Killeen v. Angle, 109 N. Y. 564.

Superintendent of Prisons.

Sec. 4. A Superintendent of State Prisons shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and hold his office for five years, unless sooner removed; he shall give security in such amount, and with such sureties as shall be required by law for the faithful discharge of his duties; he shall have the superintendence, management and control of State prisons, subject to such laws as now exist or may hereafter be enacted; he shall appoint the agents, wardens, physicians and chaplains of the prisons. The agent and warden of each prison shall appoint all other officers of such prison, except the clerk subject to the approval of the same by the Superintendent. The Comptroller shall appoint the clerks of the prisons. The Superintendent shall have all the powers and perform all the duties not inconsistent herewith, which were formerly had and performed by the Inspectors of State Prisons. The Governor may remove the Superintendent for cause at any time, giving to him a copy of the charges against him, and an opportunity to be heard in his defense.

Commissioners of the Land Office — Of the Canal Fund — Canal Board.

Sec. 5. The Lieutenant-Governor, Speaker of the Assembly, Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer, Attorney-General and State Engineer and Surveyor shall be the Commissioners of the Land Office. The Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer and Attorney-General shall be the Commissioners of the Canal Fund. The Canal Board shall consist of the Commissioners of the Canal Fund, the State Engineer and Surveyor, and the Superintendent of Public Works.

Powers and duties of Boards.

Sec. 6. The powers and duties of the respective boards, and of the several officers in this article mentioned, shall be such as now are or hereafter may be prescribed by law.

The provision of this section does not apply to officers created by the amendment in 1873 to art. 5, § 3. People ex rel. Killeen v. Angle, 109 N. Y. 564.

Treasurer may be suspended by the Governor.

Sec. 7. The Treasurer may be suspended from office by the Governor, during the recess of the Legislature, and until thirty days after the commencement of the next session of the Legislature, whenever it shall appear to him that such Treasurer has, in any particular, violated his duty. The Governor shall appoint a competent person to discharge the duties of the office during such suspension of the Treasurer.

Offices abolished.

Sec. 8. All offices for the weighing, gauging, measuring, culling or inspecting any merchandise, produce, manufacture or commodity whatever, are hereby abolished; and no such office shall hereafter be created by law; but nothing in this section contained shall abrogate any office created for the purpose of protecting the public health or the interests of the State in its property, revenue, tolls or purchases, or of supplying the people with correct standards of weights and measures, or shall prevent the creation of any office for such purposes hereafter.

The act reorganizing the warden's office of the port of New York is not unconstitutional. Tinkham v. Tapscott, 17 N. Y. 141.

Civil Service Law.

Sec. 9. Appointments and promotions in the civil service of the State, and of all the civil divisions thereof, including cities and villages, shall be made according to merit and fitness to be ascertained, so far as practicable, by examinations, which, so far as practicable, shall be competitive; provided, however, that honorably discharged soldiers and sailors from the army and navy of the United States in the late civil war, who are citizens and residents of this State, shall be entitled to preference in appointment and promotion, without regard to their standing on any list from which such appointment or promotion may be made. Laws shall be made to provide for the enforcement of this section.

ARTICLE VI.

Supreme Court, of what it shall consist, etc.

Section 1. The Supreme Court is continued with general jurisdiction in law and equity, subject to such appellate jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals as now is or may be prescribed by law not inconsistent with this article. The existing judicial districts of the State are continued until changed as hereinafter provided, The Supreme Court shall consist of the justices now in office, and of the judges transferred thereto by the fifth section of this article, all of whom shall continue to be justices of the Supreme Court during their respective terms, and of twelve additional justices who shall reside in and be chosen by the electors of, the several existing judicial districts, three in the first district, three in the second, and one in each of the other districts; and of their successors. The successors of said justices shall be chosen by the electors of their respective judicial districts. The Legislature may alter the judicial districts once after every enumeration under the Constitution, of the inhabitants of the State, and thereupon reapportion the justices to be thereafter elected in the districts so altered.

Division of judicial departments.

Sec. 2. The Legislature shall divide the State into four judicial departments. The first department shall consist of the county of New York; the others shall be bounded by county lines, and be compact and equal in population as nearly as may be. Once every ten years the Legislature may alter the judicial departments, but without increasing the number thereof.

There shall be an Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, consisting of seven justices in the first department, and of five justices in each of the other departments. In each department four shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of three shall be necessary to a decision. No more than five justices shall sit in any case.

From all the justices elected to the Supreme Court the Governor shall designate those who shall constitute the Appellate Division in each department; and he shall designate the presiding justice thereof, who shall act as such during his term of office, and shall be a resident of the department. The other justices shall be designated for terms of five years, or the unexpired portions of their respective terms of office, if less than five years. From time to time as the terms of such designations expire, or vacancies occur, he shall make new designations. He may also make temporary designations in case of the absence or inability to act, of any justice in the Appellate Division. A majority of the justices designated to sit in the Appellate Division in each department shall be residents of the department. Whenever the Appellate Division in any department shall be unable to dispose of its business within a reasonable time, a majority of the presiding justices of the several departments at a meeting called by the presiding justice of the department in arrears may transfer any pending appeals from such department to any other department for hearing and determination. No justice of the Appellate Division shall exercise any of the powers of a justice of the Supreme Court, other than those of a justice out of court, and those pertaining to the Appellate Division or to the hearing and decision of motions submitted by consent of counsel. From and after the last day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, the Appellate Division shall have the jurisdiction now exercised by the Supreme Court at its General Terms, and by the General Terms of the Court of Common Pleas for the City and County of New York, the Superior Court of the City of New York, the Superior Court of Buffalo and the City Court of Brooklyn, and such additional jurisdiction as may be conferred by the Legislature. It shall have power to appoint and remove a reporter.

The justices of the Appellate Division in each department shall have power to fix the times and places for holding Special and Trial Terms therein, and to assign the justices in the departments to hold such terms; or to make rules therefor.

Judges not to sit in review in certain cases.

Sec. 3. No judge or justice shall sit in the Appellate Division or in the Court of Appeals in review of a decision made by him or by any court of which he was at the time a sitting member. The testimony in equity cases shall be taken in like manner as in cases at law; and, except as herein otherwise provided, the Legislature shall have the same power to alter and regulate the jurisdiction and proceedings in law and in equity that it has heretofore exercised.

Terms of office.

Sec. 4. The official terms of the justices of the Supreme Court shall be fourteen years from and including the first day of January next after their election. When a vacancy shall occur otherwise than by expiration of term in the office of justice of the Supreme Court the same shall be filled for a full term, at the next general election, happening not less than three months after such vacancy occurs; and, until the vacancy shall be so filled, the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, if the Senate shall be in session, or if not in session the Governor, may fill such vacancy by appointment, which shall continue until and including the last day of December next after the election at which the vacancy shall be filled.

Abolition of city courts.

Sec. 5. The Superior Court of the City of New York, the Court of Common Pleas for the City and County of New York, the Superior Court of Buffalo, and the City Court of Brooklyn, are abolished from and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and thereupon the seals, records, papers and documents of or belonging to such courts, shall be deposited in the offices of the clerks of the several counties in which said courts now exist; and all actions and proceedings then pending in such courts shall be transferred to the Supreme Court for hearing and determination. The judges of said courts in office on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, shall, for the remainder of the terms for which they were elected or appointed, be justices of the Supreme Court; but they shall sit only in the counties in which they were elected or appointed. Their salaries shall be paid by the said counties respectively, and shall be the same as the salaries of the other justices of the Supreme Court residing in the same counties. Their successors shall be elected as justices of the Supreme Court by the electors of the judicial districts in which they respectively reside.

The jurisdiction now exercised by the several courts hereby abolished, shall be vested in the Supreme Court. Appeals from inferior and local courts now heard in the Court of Common Pleas for the City and County of New York and the Superior Court of Buffalo, shall be heard in the Supreme Court in such manner and by such justice or justices as the Appellate Divisions in the respective departments which include New York and Buffalo shall direct, unless otherwise provided by the Legislature.

Abolition of Circuit Courts and Courts of Oyer and Terminer.

Sec. 6. Circuit Courts and Courts of Oyer and Terminer are abolished from and after the last day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five. All their jurisdiction shall thereupon be vested in the Supreme Court, and all actions and proceedings then pending in such courts shall be transferred to the Supreme Court for hearing and determination. Any justice of the Supreme Court, except as otherwise provided in this article, may hold court in any county.

Court of Appeals.

Sec. 7. The Court of Appeals is continued. It shall consist of the chief judge and associate judges now in office, who shall hold their offices until the expiration of their respective terms, and their successors, who shall be chosen by the electors of the State. The official terms of the chief judge and associate judges shall be fourteen years from and including the first day of January next after their election. Five members of the court shall form a quorum, and the concurrence of four shall be necessary to a decision. The court shall have power to appoint and to remove its reporter, clerk and attendants.

Vacancies ; how filled.

Sec. 8. When a vacancy shall occur otherwise than by expiration of term, in the office of chief or associate judge of the Court of Appeals, the same shall be filled, for a full term, at the next general election happening not less than three months after such vacancy occurs; and until the vacancy shall be so filled, the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, if the Senate shall be in session, or if not in session the Governor may fill such vacancy by appointment. If any such appointment of chief judge shall be made from among the associate judges, a temporary appointment of associate judge shall be made in like manner; but in such case, the person appointed chief judge shall not be deemed to vacate his office of associate judge any longer than until the expiration of his appointment as chief judge. The powers and jurisdiction of the court shall not be suspended for want of appointment or election, when the number of judges is sufficient to constitute a quorum. All appointments under this section shall continue until and including the last day of December next after the election at which the vacancy shall be filled.

Jurisdiction of Court of Appeals.

Sec. 9. After the last day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals, except where the judgment is of death, shall be limited to the review of questions of law. No unanimous decision of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court that there is evidence supporting or tending to sustain a finding of fact or a verdict not directed by the court, shall be reviewed by the Court of Appeals. Except where the judgment is of death, appeals may be taken, as of right, to said court only from judgments or orders entered upon decisions of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, finally determining actions or special proceedings, and from orders granting new trials on exceptions, where the appellants stipulate that upon affirmance judgment absolute shall be rendered against them. The Appellate Division in any department may, however, allow an appeal upon any question of law which, in its opinion, ought to be reviewed by the Court of Appeals.

The Legislature may further restrict the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals and the right of appeal thereto, but the right to appeal shall not depend upon the amount involved.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to orders made or judgments rendered by any General Term before the last day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, but appeals therefrom may be taken under existing provisions of law.

Judges of Court of Appeals, or Justices of Supreme Court to hold no other office.

Sec. 10. The judges of the Court of Appeals and the justices of the Supreme Court shall not hold any other office or public trust. All votes for any of them, for any other than a judicial office, given by the Legislature or the people, shall be void.

Removals—Proceedings in relation thereto.

Sec. 11. Judges of the Court of Appeals and justices of the Supreme Court, may be removed by concurrent resolution of both houses of the Legislature, if two-thirds of all the members elected to each house concur therein. All other judicial officers, except justices of the peace and judges or justices of inferior courts not of record, may be removed by the Senate, on the recommendation of the Governor, if two-thirds of all the members elected to the Senate concur therein. But no officer shall be removed by virtue of this section except for cause, which shall be entered on the journals, nor unless he shall have been served with a statement of the cause alleged, and shall have had an opportunity to be heard. On the question of removal, the yeas and nays shall be entered on the journal.

Compensation of judges and justices

Sec. 12. The judges and justices hereinbefore mentioned shall receive for their services a compensation established by law, which shall not be increased or diminished during their official terms, except as provided in section five of this article. No person shall hold the office of judge or justice of any court longer than until and including the last day of December next after he shall be seventy years of age. No judge or justice elected after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, shall be entitled to receive any compensation after the last day of December next after he shall be seventy years of age; but the compensation of every judge of the Court of Appeals or justice of the Supreme Court elected prior to the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, whose term of office has been, or whose present term of office shall be, so abridged, and who shall have served as such judge or justice ten years or more, shall be continued during the remainder of the term for which he was elected; but any such judge or justice may, with his consent, be assigned by the Governor, from time to time, to any duty in the Supreme Court while his compensation is so continued.

Impeachments.

Sec. 13. The Assembly shall have the power of impeachment, by a vote of a majority of all the members elected. The Court for the Trial of Impeachments shall be composed of the President of the Senate, the senators, or the major part of them, and the judges of the Court of Appeals, or the major part of them. On the trial of an impeachment against the Governor or Lieutenant-Governor, the Lieutenant-Governor shall not act as a member of the court. No judicial officer shall exercise his office, after articles of impeachment against him shall have been preferred to the Senate, until he shall have been acquitted. Before the trial of an impeachment the members of the court shall take an oath or affirmation truly and impartially to try the impeachment according to the evidence, and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present. Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from office, or removal from office and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust or profit under this State; but the party impeached shall be liable to indictment and punishment according to law.

County Courts.

Sec. 14. The existing County Courts are continued, and the judges thereof now in office shall hold their offices until the expiration of their respective terms. In the county of Kings there shall be two county judges and the additional county judge shall be chosen at the next general election held after the adoption of this article. The successors of the several county judges shall be chosen by the electors of the counties for the term of six years. County Courts shall have the powers and jurisdiction they now possess, and also original jurisdiction in actions for the recovery of money only, where the defendants reside in the county, and in which the complaint demands judgment for a sum not exceeding two thousand dollars. The Legislature may hereafter enlarge or restrict the jurisdiction of the County Courts, provided, however, that their jurisdiction shall not be so extended as to authorize an action therein for the recovery of money only, in which the sum demanded exceeds two thousand dollars, or in which any person not a resident of the county is a defendant.

Courts of Sessions, except in the county of New York, are abolished from and after the last day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five. All the jurisdiction of the Court of Sessions in each county, except the county of New York, shall thereupon be vested in the County Court thereof, and all actions and proceedings then pending in such Courts of Sessions shall be transferred to said County Courts for hearing and determination. Every county judge shall perform such duties as may be required by law. His salary shall be established by law, payable out of the county treasury. A county judge of any county may hold County Courts in any other county when requested by the judge of such other county.

Surrogate's Courts.

Sec. 15. The existing Surrogates' Courts are continued, and the surrogates now in office shall hold their offices until the expiration of their terms. Their successors shall be chosen by the electors of their respective counties, and their terms of office shall be six years, except in the county of New York, where they shall continue to be fourteen years. Surrogates and Surrogates' Courts shall have the jurisdiction and powers which the surrogates and existing Surrogates' Courts now possess, until otherwise provided by the Legislature. The county judge shall be surrogate of his county, except where a separate surrogate has been or shall be elected. In counties having a population exceeding forty thousand, wherein there is no separate surrogate, the Legislature may provide for the election of a separate officer to be surrogate, whose term of office shall be six years. When the surrogate shall be elected as a separate officer his salary shall be established by law, payable out of the county treasury. No county judge or surrogate shall hold office longer than until and including the last day of December next after he shall be seventy years of age. Vacancies occurring in the office of county judge or surrogate shall be filled in the same manner as like vacancies occurring in the Supreme Court. The compensation of any county judge or surrogate shall not be increased or diminished during his term of office. For the relief of Surrogates' Courts the Legislature may confer upon the Supreme Court in any county having a population exceeding four hundred thousand the powers and jurisdiction of surrogates, with authority to try issues of fact by jury in probate cases.

Local judicial officers.

Sec. 16. The Legislature may, on application of the board of supervisors, provide for the election of local officers, not to exceed two in any county, to discharge the duties of county judge and of surrogate, in cases of their inability or of a vacancy, and in such other cases as may be provided by law, and to exercise such other powers in special cases as are or may be provided by law.

Justices of the peace.

Sec. 17. The electors of the several towns shall, at their annual town meetings, or at such other time and in such manner as the Legislature may direct, elect justices of the peace, whose term of office shall be four years. In case of an election to fill a vacancy occurring before the expiration of a full term, they shall hold for the residue of the unexpired term. Their number and classification may be regulated by law. Justices of the peace and judges or justices of inferior courts not of record, and their clerks, may be removed for cause, after due notice and an opportunity of being heard, by such courts as are or may be prescribed by law. Justices of the peace and District Court justices may be elected in the different cities of this State in such manner, and with such powers, and for such terms, respectively, as are or shall be prescribed by law; all other judicial officers in cities, whose election or appointment is not otherwise provided for in this article, shall be chosen by the electors of such cities, or appointed by some local authorities thereof.

Inferior local courts.

Sec. 18. Inferior local courts of civil and criminal jurisdiction may be established by the Legislature, but no inferior local court hereafter created shall be a court of record. The Legislature shall not hereafter confer upon any inferior or local court of its creation, any equity jurisdiction or any greater jurisdiction in other respects than is conferred upon County Courts by or under this article. Except as herein otherwise provided, all judicial officers shall be elected or appointed at such times and in such manner as the Legislature may direct.

Clerks of Supreme Court and Court of Appeals.

Sec. 19. Clerks of the several counties shall be clerks of the Supreme Court, with such powers and duties as shall be prescribed by law. The justices of the Appellate Division in each department shall have power to appoint and to remove a clerk who shall keep his office at a place to be designated by said justices. The clerk of the Court of Appeals shall keep his office at the seat of government. The clerk of the Court of Appeals and the clerks of the Appellate Division shall receive compensation to be established by law and paid out of the public treasury.

No judicial officer except justice of the peace to receive fees.

Sec. 20. No judicial officer, except justices of the peace, shall receive to his own use any fees or perquisites of office; nor shall any judge of the Court of Appeals, or justice of the Supreme Court, or any county judge or surrogate hereafter elected in a county having a population exceeding one hundred and twenty thousand, practice as an attorney or counselor in any court of record in this State, or act as referee. The Legislature may impose a similar prohibition upon county judges and surrogates in other counties. No one shall be eligible to the office of judge of the Court of Appeals, justice of the Supreme Court, or, except in the county of Hamilton, to the office of county judge or surrogate, who is not an attorney and counselor of this State.

Publication of statutes to be provided for.

Sec. 21. The Legislature shall provide for the speedy publication of all statutes, and shall regulate the reporting of the decisions of the courts; but all laws and judicial decisions shall be free for publication by any person.

Local judicial officers — Terms of incumbents.

Sec. 22. Justices of the peace and other local judicial officers provided for in sections seventeen and eighteen in office when this article takes effect, shall hold their offices until the expiration of their respective terms.

Courts of Special Sessions.

Sec. 23. Courts of Special Sessions shall have such jurisdiction of offenses of the grade of misdemeanors as may be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE VII.

State credit not to be loaned.

Section 1. The credit of the State shall not in any manner be given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation.

An act authorizing insurance companies to deposit a fund with the State Insurance Department, is valid. Attorney-General v. North Am. Life Ins. Co., 82 N. Y. 172.

Power to contract debts.

Sec. 2. The State may, to meet casual deficits or failures in revenues, or for expenses not provided for, contract debts; but such debts, direct or contingent, singly or in the aggregate, shall not at any time exceed one million of dollars; and the moneys arising from the loans creating such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which they were obtained, or to repay the debt so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

Sec. 3. In addition to the above limited power to contract debts, the State may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or defend the State in war; but the money arising from the contracting of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever.

Limitation of legislative power in the creation of debts.

Sec. 4. Except the debts specified in sections two and three of this article, no debts shall be hereafter contracted by or on behalf of this State, unless such debt shall be authorized by law, for some single work or object, to be distinctly specified therein; and such law shall impose and provide for the collection of a direct annual tax to pay, and sufficient to pay, the interest on such debt as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal of such debt within eighteen years from the time of the contracting thereof. No such law shall take effect until it shall, at a general election, have been submitted to the people, and have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election. On the final passage of such bill in either house of the Legislature, the question shall be taken by ayes and noes, to be duly entered on the journals thereof, and shall be: "Shall this bill pass, and ought the same to receive the sanction of the people?"

The Legislature may at any time, after the approval of such law by the people, if no debt shall have been contracted in pursuance thereof, repeal the same; and may at any time, by law, forbid the contracting of any further debt or liability under such law; but the tax imposed by such act, in proportion to the debt and liability which may have been contracted, in pursuance of such law, shall remain in force and be irrepealable, and be annually collected, until the proceeds thereof shall have made the provision hereinbefore specified to pay and discharge the interest and principal of such debt and liability. The money arising from any loan or stock creating such debt or liability shall be applied to the work or object specified in the act authorizing such debt or liability, or for the repayment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose whatever. No such law shall be submitted to be voted on, within three months after its passage, or at any general election when any other law, or any bill, or any amendment to the Constitution, shall be submitted to be voted for or against.

Sec. 5. The sinking funds provided for the payment of interest and the extinguishment of the principal of the debts of the State shall be separately kept and safely invested, and neither of them shall be appropriated or used in any manner other than for the specific purpose for which it shall have been provided.

Claims.

Sec. 6. Neither the Legislature, Canal Board, nor any person or persons acting in behalf of the State, shall audit allow, or pay any claim which, as between citizens of the State, would be barred by lapse of time. This provision shall not be construed to repeal any statute fixing the time within which claims shall be presented or allowed, nor shall it extend to any claims duly presented within the time allowed by law, and prosecuted with due diligence from the time of such presentment. But if the claimant shall be under legal disability, the claim may be presented within two years after such disability is removed.

Forest Preserve.

Sec. 7. The lands of the State, now owned or hereafter acquired, constituting the forest preserve as now fixed by law, shall be forever kept as wild forest lands. They shall not be leased, sold or exchanged, or be taken by any corporation, public or private, nor shall the timber thereon be sold, removed or destroyed.

Sec. 8. The Legislature shall not sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the Erie canal, the Oswego canal, the Champlain canal, the Cayuga and Seneca canal, or the Black River canal; but they shall remain the property of the State and under its management forever. The prohibition of lease, sale or other disposition herein contained, shall not apply to the canal known as the Main and Hamburg street canal, situated in the city of Buffalo, and which extends easterly from the westerly line of Main street to the westerly line of Hamburg street. All funds that may be derived from any lease, sale or other disposition of any canal shall be applied to the improvement, superintendence or repair of the remaining portion of the canals.

Act providing for the use of waters of Skaneateles Lake to supply Syracuse with water, etc., valid. Matter of Comstock, 26 State Rep. 617.

No prescriptive right to use the waters of the canals can be acquired by any citizen, under this section. Burbank v. Foy, 5 Laus. 397.

This does not apply to an abandoned canal. People v. Stephens, 13 Hun, 17.

Maintenance of canals.

Sec. 9. No tolls shall hereafter be imposed on persons or property transported on the canals, but all boats navigating the canals, and the owners and masters thereof, shall be subject to such laws and regulations as have been or may hereafter be enacted concerning the navigation of the canals. The Legislature shall annually, by equitable taxes, make provision for the expenses of the superintendence and repairs of the canals. All contracts for work or materials on any canal shall be made with the persons who shall offer to do or provide the same at the lowest price, with adequate security for their performance. No extra compensation shall be made to any contractor; but if, from any unforeseen cause, the terms of any contract shall prove to be unjust and oppressive, the Canal Board may, upon the application of the contractor, cancel such contract.

Improvement of canals.

Sec. 10. The canals may be improved in such manner as the Legislature shall provide by law. A debt may be authorized for that purpose in the mode prescribed by section four of this article, or the cost of such improvement may be defrayed by the appropriation of funds from the State treasury, or by equitable annual tax.

ARTICLE VIII.

Corporations, how created.

Section 1. Corporations may be formed under general laws; but shall not be created by special act, except for municipal purposes, and in cases where, in the judgment of the Legislature, the objects of the corporation cannot be attained under general laws. All general laws and special acts passed pursuant to this section may be altered from time to time or repealed.

See People v. O'Brien, 111 N. Y. 2.

An act requiring a railroad corporation organized under the general railroad act to pay a tax upon gross receipts instead of a license fee previously exacted may be deemed an alteration and amendment of the charter and so within the power reserved to the Legislature by the above section. Mayor v. Twenty-third St. R. Co., 113 N. Y. 311.

This provision is permissive, not mandatory. Matter of Tax Payers of Kingston, 40 How. 414. This section abolishes the old and provides a new system; hence laws passed since 1846 are exclusive of those of prior date. Rochester v. Barnes, 26 Barb. 657.

An act for the reorganizing an old corporation is not within this provision: Moshier v. Hilton, 15 Barb. 657; nor is an act remedying a technical defect in the organization; Syracuse City Bank v. Davis, 16 Barb. 188; nor an act regulating an existing corporation; Atty.-General v. No. Am. Life Ins. Co., 82 N. Y. 172.

A special act for incorporation is not unconstitutional by reason of the existence of a general law; the necessity of the act is in the legislative discretion. People v. Bowen, 21 N. Y. 517.

The Legislature may impose such restrictions and conditions as the public good requires; thus, in case of a railroad company, the manner of building bridges, speed of trains, rates of fare, etc., although a charter has been granted without reserving power to amend. People, ex rel. v. Boston, etc., R. R. Co., 70 N. Y. 569.

Debts of Corporations.

Sec. 2. Dues from corporations shall be secured by such individual liability of the corporators and other means as may be prescribed by law.

"Corporations" defined.

Sec. 3. The term corporations as used in this article shall be construed to include all associations and joint-stock companies having any of the powers or privileges of corporations not possessed by individuals or partnerships. And all corporations shall have the right to sue and shall be subject to be sued in all courts in like cases as natural persons.

Summary proceedings to enforce individual liability are valid Empire City Bank, 18 N. Y. 199.

A provision in a railway charter that the Supreme Court alone shall issue injunctions against it, is invalid. Story v. N. Y. L. R. Co., 3 Abb. N. C. 473. See Van Franken v. City of Schenectady, 31 Hun, 516.

Sec. 4. The Legislature shall, by general law, conform all charters of savings banks, or institutions for savings, to a uniformity of powers, rights and liabilities, and all charters hereafter granted for such corporations shall be made to conform to such general law, and to such amendments as may be made thereto. And no such corporation shall have any capital stock, nor shall the trustees thereof, or any of them, have any interest whatever, direct or indirect, in the profits of such corporation; and no director or trustee of any such bank or institution shall be interested in any loan or use of any money or property of such bank or institution for savings. The Legislature shall have no power to pass any act granting any special charter for banking purposes; but corporations or associations may be formed for such purposes under general laws.

The United States Trust Company is not within this prohibition. U. S. Trust Company of N. Y. v. Bredin, 20 Barb. 119.

The People's Safe Deposit Company is legally authorized to issue certificates for deposits of money. Pardee v. Fish, 60 N. Y. 394.

Specie payments.

Sec. 5. The Legislature shall have no power to pass any law sanctioning in any manner, directly or indirectly, the suspension of specie payments by any person, association or corporation, issuing bank notes of any description.

Registry of bills or notes.

Sec. 6. The Legislature shall provide by law for the registry of all bills or notes, issued or put in circulation as money, and shall require ample security for the redemption of the same in specie.

Individual responsibility of stockholders.

Sec. 7. The stockholders of every corporation and joint-stock association for banking purposes, shall be individually responsible to the amount of their respective share or shares of stock in any such corporation or association, for all its debts and liabilities of every kind.

This requires, in addition to the loss of the amount of capital stock paid in, the contribution of an amount equal to the amount of the respective shares of stock. Empire City Bank, 18 N. Y. 199.

This provision applies to banks chartered before the year 1846. Matter of Reciprocity Bank, 17 How. Pr. 323.

Insolvency of banks, preference.

Sec. 8. In case of the insolvency of any bank or banking association, the billholders thereof shall be entitled to preference in payment, over all other creditors of such bank or association.

Credit or money of the State not to be given or loaned.

Sec. 9. Neither the credit nor the money of the State shall be given or loaned to or in aid of any association, corporation or private undertaking. This section shall not, however, prevent the Legislature from making such provision for the education and support of the blind, the deaf and dumb, and juvenile delinquents, as to it may seem proper. Nor shall it apply to any fund or property now held, or which may hereafter be held, by the State for educational purposes.

Not applicable to power of supervisors of New York city to levy tax. Shepard's Fold v. Mayor, 96 N. Y. 137.

Counties, etc., not to give or loan money or credit—Limitation of debts.

Sec. 10. No county, city, town or village shall hereafter give any money or property, or loan its money or credit to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation, or become directly or indirectly the owner of stock in, or bonds of, any association or corporation; nor shall any such county, city town or village be allowed to incur any indebtedness except for county, city, town or village purposes. This section shall not prevent such county, city, town or village from making such provision for the aid or support of its poor as may be authorized by law. No county or city shall be allowed to become indebted for any purpose or in any manner to an amount which, including existing indebtedness, shall exceed ten per centum of the assessed valuation of the real estate of such county or city subject to taxation, as it appeared by the assessment-rolls of said county or city on the last assessment for State or county taxes prior to the incurring of such indebtedness; and all indebtedness in excess of such limitation, except such as may now exist, shall be absolutely void, except as herein otherwise provided. No county or city whose present indebtedness exceeds ten per centum of the assessed valuation of its real estate subject to taxation, shall be allowed to become indebted in any further amount until such indebtedness shall be reduced within such limit. This section shall not be construed to prevent the issuing of certificates of indebtedness or revenue bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of taxes for amounts actually contained, or to be contained in the taxes for the year when such certificates or revenue bonds are issued and payable out of such taxes. Nor shall this section be construed to prevent the issue of bonds to provide for the supply of water; but the term of the bonds issued to provide the supply of water shall not exceed twenty years and a sinking fund shall be created on the issuing of the said bonds for their redemption, by raising annually a sum which will produce an amount equal to the sum of the principal and interest of said bonds at their maturity. All certificates of indebtedness or revenue bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of taxes, which are not retired within five years after their date of issue, and bonds issued to provide for the supply of water, and any debt hereafter incurred by any portion or part of a city, if there shall be any such debt, shall be included in ascertaining the power of the city to become otherwise indebted. Whenever hereafter the boundaries of any city shall become the same as those of a county, the power of the county to become indebted shall cease, but the debt of the county at that time existing shall not be included as a part of the city debt. The amount hereafter to be raised by tax for county or city purposes, in any county containing a city of over one hundred thousand inhabitants, or any such city of this State, in addition to providing for the principal and interest of existing debt, shall not in the aggregate exceed in any one year two per centum of the assessed valuation of the real and personal estate of such county or city, to be ascertained as prescribed in this section in respect to county or city debt.

ARTICLE VIII—Continued.

The Legislature may authorize a municipal corporation to subscribe for the stock of a railroad, which, by terminating within the municipal limits, is calculated to benefit the inhabitants. Bank of Rome v. Rome, 18 N. Y. 38; People ex rel. Albany, etc., R. R. Co. v. Mitchell, 35 id. 551.

The Legislature cannot compel a town to become a stockholder in a railroad company without its consent. People ex rel. Dunkirk, W. & P. R. R. Co. v. Batchellor, 53 N. Y. 128.

The Legislature may compel a town to pay bonds issued for a local improvement under an unconstitutional statute. Knapp v. Newtown, 1 Hun, 268.

They cannot authorize a municipal corporation to issue its obligations for the purpose of raising money to pay a subscription of the corporation to the capital stock of a private corporation, and provide for the payment of such obligations by taxation. Weisener v. Village of Douglas, 64 N. Y. 91.

The method of obtaining the assent of a town to subscribe and issue bonds is in the legislative discretion; the Legislature may authorize the assent to be given by an officer of the town. Even where they had previously clothed a majority of taxpayers with the authority, it may also take away previous conditions or impose new ones. Town of Duaneburgh v. Jenkins, 57 N. Y. 177.

This section does not prohibit a statute authorizing two cities to construct a public bridge connecting them. People v. Kelly, 5 Abb. N. C. 383; 76 N. Y. 475.

State Board of Charities.

Sec. 11. The Legislature shall provide for a State Board of Charities, which shall visit and inspect all institutions, whether State, county, municipal, incorporated or not incorporated, which are of a charitable, eleemosynary, correctional or reformatory character, excepting only such institutions as are hereby made subject to the visitation and inspection of either of the commissions hereinafter mentioned, but including all reformatories except those in which adult males convicted of felony shall be confined; a State Commission in Lunacy, which shall visit and inspect all institutions, either public or private, used for the care and treatment of the insane (not including institutions for epileptics or idiots); a State Commission of Prisons which shall visit and inspect all institutions used for the detention of sane adults charged with or convicted of crime, or detained as witnesses or debtors.

Sec. 12. The members of the said board and of the said commissions shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate; and any member may be removed from office by the Governor for cause, an opportunity having been given him to be heard in his defense.

Inspection of institutions.

Sec. 13. Existing laws relating to institutions referred to in the foregoing sections and to their supervision and inspection, in so far as such laws are not inconsistent with the provisions of the Constitution, shall remain in force until amended or repealed by the Legislature. The visitation and inspection herein provided for, shall not be exclusive of other visitation and inspection now authorized by law.

Maintenance of charitable institutions.

Sec. 14. Nothing in this Constitution contained shall prevent the Legislature from making such provision for the education and support of the blind, the deaf and dumb, and juvenile delinquents, as to it may seem proper; or prevent any county, city, town or village from providing for the care, support, maintenance and secular education, of inmates of orphan asylums, homes for dependent children or correctional institutions, whether under public or private control. Payments by counties, cities, towns and villages to charitable, eleemosynary, correctional and reformatory institutions, wholly or partly under private control, for care, support and maintenance, may be authorized, but shall not be required by the Legislature. No such payments shall be made for any inmate of such institutions who is not received and retained therein pursuant to rules established by the State Board of Charities. Such rules shall be subject to the control of the Legislature by general laws.

Commissioners—Terms of office, etc.

Sec. 15. Commissioners of the State Board of Charities and Commissioners of the State Commission in Lunacy, now holding office shall be continued in office for the term for which they were appointed respectively, unless the Legislature shall otherwise provide. The Legislature may confer upon the commissions and upon the board mentioned in the foregoing sections any additional powers that are not inconsistent with other provisions of the Constitution.

ARTICLE IX.

Provision for maintenance of free schools.

Section 1. The Legislature shall provide for the maintenance and support of a system of free common schools, wherein all the children of this State may be educated.

University of the State of New York.

Sec. 2. The corporation created in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, under the name of The Regents of the University of the State of ARTICLE IX — Continued.

New York, is hereby continued under the name of The University of the State of New York. It shall be governed and its corporate powers, which may be increased, modified or diminished by the Legislature, shall be exercised, by not less than nine regents.

Common School, Literature and United States Deposit Funds.

Sec. 3. The capital of the common school fund, the capital of the literature fund, and the capital of the United States deposit fund, shall be respectively preserved inviolate. The revenue of the said common school fund shall be applied to the support of common schools; the revenue of the said literature fund shall be applied to the support of academies; and the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars of the revenues of the United States deposit fund shall each year be appropriated to and made part of the capital of the said common school fund.

A statute authorizing an orphan asylum to share in the distribution of the common school revenues is unconstitutional; People v. Ecard of Ed. of Brooklyn, 13 Barb. 400; so of a normal school; Gordon v. Cornes, 47 N. Y. 608; so of an astronomical observatory; People v. Allen, 42 id. 404.

Property, credit or public money not to be used.

Sec. 4. Neither the State nor any subdivision thereof, shall use its property or credit or any public money, or authorize or permit either to be used, directly or indirectly, in aid or maintenance, other than for examination or inspection, of any school or institution of learning wholly or in part under the control or direction of any religious denomination, or in which any denominational tenet or doctrine is taught.

ARTICLE X.

Governor may remove certain officers.

Section 1. Sheriffs, clerks of counties, district attorneys, and registers in counties having registers, shall be chosen by the electors of the respective counties, once in every three years and as often as vacancies shall happen, except in the counties of New York and Kings, and in counties whose boundaries are the same as those of a city, where such officers shall be chosen by the electors once in every two or four years as the Legislature shall direct. Sheriffs shall hold no other office, and be ineligible for the next term after the termination of their offices. They may be required by law to renew their security, from time to time; and in default of giving such new security, their offices shall be deemed vacant. But the county shall never be made responsible for the acts of the sheriff. The Governor may remove any officer, in this section mentioned, within the term for which he shall have been elected; giving to such officer a copy of the charges against him, and an opportunity of being heard in his defense.

One elected to fill a vacancy serves for a full term of three years. Contant v. People, 11 Wend. 511.

The act making counties liable for damages by mobs and riots does not conflict with this. Moody v. Board of Sup., 46 Barb. 659.

An act taking away custody of Albany county jail and prisoners from the sheriff and giving it to the superintendent of the Albany county penitentiary is invalid. People v. Keeler, 29 Hun, 175; 64 How. Pr. 478.

Sec. 2. All county officers, whose election or appointment is not provided for by this Constitution, shall be elected by the electors of the respective counties or appointed by the boards of supervisors, or other county authorities, as the Legislature shall direct. All city, town and village officers, whose election or appointment is not provided for by this Constitution, shall be elected by the electors of such cities, towns and villages, or of some division thereof, or appointed by such authorities thereof, as the Legislature shall designate for that purpose. All other officers, whose election or appointment is not provided for by this Constitution, and all officers, whose offices may hereafter be created by law, shall be elected by the people, or appointed, as the Legislature may direct.

The Legislature may attach a penalty to the refusal to accept office. City of Brooklyn v. Scholes, 31 Hun, 110.

A county officer is one required to reside in and perform duties in the county; the health officer of the city and county of New York is not one, Matter of Whiting, 2 Barb. 513.

A commissioner of loans is a county officer. Matter of Carpenter, 7 Barb. 30.

The Legislature may appoint commissioners to widen a highway by proceedings unlike those of commissioners of highways. People ex rel. v. McDonald, 60 N. Y. 362.

They may authorize the appointment of a special surrogate by the Supreme Court. Matter of Hathaway, 71 N. Y. 238.

The appointment of Central Park commissioners by the Legislature was valid. Astor v. Mayor, 62 N. Y. 367.

The reservation of the right to elect relates only to such offices as existed at the time the Constitution took effect. People v. Draper, 13 N. Y. 532; People ex rel. Kingsland v. Palmer, 52 id. 53.

This provision applies to town collectors; People ex rel. v. McKinney, 52 N. Y. 371; and tax receiver; People ex rel. v. Crooks, 53 id. 648; and tax commissioners in New York city. People v. Raymond, 37 id. 428.

Where a new town is created out of an old one a provision that the old officers should continue in office and act for both towns till the next election, is constitutional. People ex rel. v. Hayt, 7 Hun, 39.

Not applicable to transfer of power from one local board to another. Matter of Lester, 21 Hun, 130.

An act abolishing election of commissioners of charities and substituting appointment by the pro tem. president of the board of supervisors, is legal. Matter of Carboy, 27 Hun, 82.

Act appointing police justice in a village with criminal jurisdiction of justices of peace of towns, valid. Bocock v. Cochran, 32 Hun, 521.

Not applicable to park police. Matter of Mayor, 90 N. Y. 569.

The members of the board of examiners created by the act of 1874, chap. 547, are not as such, city officers of the city of New York; 100 N. Y. 566.

Duration of office.

Sec. 3. When the duration of any office is not provided by this Constitution, it may be declared by law, and if not so declared, such office shall be held during the pleasure of the authority making the appointment.

ARTICLE X — Continued.

Having been declared by the Legislature it cannot be extended so as to affect an incumbent. People ex rel. Fowler v. Bull, 46 N. Y. 57.

This does not apply to an office only directed to be first filled by the act of the appointing power constituted for the purpose. Bergen v. Powell, 30 Hun, 438.

Time of election.

Sec. 4. The time of electing all officers named in this article shall be prescribed by law.

Vacancies in office.

Sec. 5. The Legislature shall provide for filling vacancies in office, and in case of elective officers, no person appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold his office by virtue of such appointment longer than the commencement of the political year next succeeding the first annual election after the happening of the vacancy.

This does not operate to entitle the appointee to hold until the commencement of the next political year in all cases. People v. Keeler, 17 N. Y. 370.

It does not apply to county superintendents of the poor. People v. Comstock, 78 N. Y. 356.

Political year.

Sec. 6. The political year and legislative term shall begin on the first day of January; and the Legislature shall, every year, assemble on the first Wednesday in January.

Removals from office.

Sec. 7. Provision shall be made by law for the removal for misconduct or malversation in office of all officers, except judicial, whose powers and duties are not local or legislative and who shall be elected at general elections, and also for supplying vacancies created by such removal.

When office deemed Vacant.

Sec. 8. The Legislature may declare the cases in which any office shall be deemed vacant when no provision is made for that purpose in this Constitution.

Compensation of certain officers.

Sec. 9. No officer whose salary is fixed by the Constitution shall receive any additional compensation. Each of the other State officers named in the Constitution shall, during his continuance in office, receive a compensation, to be fixed by law, which shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which he shall have been elected or appointed; nor shall he receive to his use any fees or perquisites of office or other compensation.

An act authorizing supervisors to pay a judge an additional compensation is valid as to one elected subsequently to such action of the supervisors; People v. Edmonds, 15 Barb. 529; otherwise as to judges in office at the time of the passage of the act. People ex rel. Mitchell v. Haws, 32 id. 207.

ARTICLE XI.

Militia.

Section 1. All able-bodied male citizens between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, who are residents of the State, shall constitute the militia, subject, however, to such exemptions as are now, or may be hereafter created by the laws of the United States, or by the Legislature of this State.

Provision for enlistment.

Sec. 2. The Legislature may provide for the enlistment into the active force of such other persons as may make application to be so enlisted.

Organization and maintenance of militia.

Sec. 3. The militia shall be organized and divided into such land and naval, and active and reserve forces, as the Legislature may deem proper, provided, however, that there shall be maintained at all times a force of not less than ten thousand enlisted men, fully uniformed, armed, equipped, disciplined and ready for active service. And it shall be the duty of the Legislature at each session to make sufficient appropriations for the maintenance thereof.

Officers to be appointed by the Governor.

Sec. 4. The Governor shall appoint the chiefs of the several staff departments, his aides-de-camp and military secretary, all of whom shall hold office during his pleasure, their commissions to expire with the term for which the Governor shall have been elected; he shall also nominate, and with the consent of the Senate appoint, all major-generals.

Commissioned and non-commissioned officers, how chosen.

Sec. 5. All other commissioned and non-commissioned officers shall be chosen or appointed in such manner as the Legislature may deem most conducive to the improvement of the militia, provided, however, that no law shall be passed changing the existing mode of election and appointment unless two-thirds of the members present in each house shall concur therein.

Officers, how commissioned.

Sec. 6. The commissioned officers shall be commissioned by the Governor as commander-in-chief. No commissioned officer shall be removed from office during the term for which he shall have been appointed or elected, unless by the Senate on the recommendation of the Governor, stating the grounds on which such removal is recommended, or by the sentence of a court-martial, or upon the findings of an examining board organized pursuant to law, or for absence without leave for a period of six months or more.

ARTICLE XII.

Provision for organization of cities, incorporated villages, etc.

Section 1. It shall be the duty of the Legislature to provide for the organization of cities and incorporated villages, and to restrict their power of taxation, assessment, borrowing money, contracting debts, and loaning their credit, so as to prevent abuses in assessments, and in contracting debt by such municipal corporations.

Classification of cities, etc.

Sec. 2. All cities are classified according to the latest State enumeration, as from time to time made, as follows: The first class includes all cities having a population of two hundred and fifty thousand, or more; the second class, all cities having a population of fifty thousand and less than two hundred and fifty thousand; the third class, all other cities. Laws relating to the property, affairs or government of cities, and the several departments thereof, are divided into general and special city laws; general city laws are those which relate to all the cities of one or more classes; special city laws are those which relate to a single city, or to less than all the cities of a class. Special city laws shall not be passed except in conformity with the provisions of this section. After any bill for a special city law, relating to a city, has been passed by both branches of the Legislature, the house in which it originated shall immediately transmit a certified copy thereof to the mayor of such city, and within fifteen days thereafter the mayor shall return such bill to the house from which it was sent, or if the session of the Legislature at which such bill was passed has terminated, to the Governor, with the mayor's certificate thereon, stating whether the city has or has not accepted the same.

In every city of the first class, the mayor, and in every other city, the mayor and the legislative body thereof concurrently, shall act for such city as to such bill; but the Legislature may provide for the concurrence of the legislative body in cities of the first class. The Legislature shall provide for a public notice and opportunity for a public hearing concerning any such bill in every city to which it relates, before action thereon. Such a bill, if it relates to more than one city, shall be transmitted to the mayor of each city to which it relates, and shall not be deemed accepted unless accepted as herein provided, by every such city. Whenever any such bill is accepted as herein provided, it shall be subject as are other bills, to the action of the Governor. Whenever, during the session at which it was passed, any such bill is returned without the acceptance of the city or cities to which it relates, or within such fifteen days is not returned, it may nevertheless again be passed by both branches of the Legislature, and it shall then be subject as are other bills, to the action of the Governor. In every special city law which has been accepted by the city or cities to which it relates, the title shall be followed by the words "accepted by the city," or "cities," as the case may be; in every such law which is passed without such acceptance, by the words "passed without the acceptance of the city," or "cities," as the case may be.

Elections, how held.

Sec. 3. All elections of city officers, including supervisors and judicial officers of inferior local courts, elected in any city or part of a city, and of county officers elected in the counties of New York and Kings, and in all counties whose boundaries are the same as those of a city, except to fill vacancies, shall be held on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday in November in an odd-numbered year, and the term of every such officer shall expire at the end of an odd-numbered year. The terms of office of all such officers elected before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, whose successors have not then been elected, which under existing laws would expire with an even-numbered year, or in an odd-numbered year and before the end thereof, are extended to and including the last day of December next following the time when such terms would otherwise expire; the terms of office of all such officers, which under existing laws would expire in an even-numbered year, and before the end thereof, are abridged so as to expire at the end of the preceding year. This section shall not apply to any city of the third class, or to elections of any judicial officer, except judges and justices of inferior local courts.

ARTICLE XIII.

Oath of office.

Section 1. Members of the Legislature, and all officers, executive and judicial, except such inferior officers as shall be by law exempted shall, before they enter on the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of New York, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of ———, according to the best of my ability;" and all such officers who shall have been chosen at any election shall, before they enter on the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe the oath or affirmation above prescribed, together with the following addition thereto, as part thereof:

“And I do further solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have not directly or indirectly paid, offered or promised to pay, contribute, or offered or promised to contribute any money or other valuable thing as a consideration or reward for the giving or withholding a vote at the election at which I was elected to said office, and have not made any promise to influence the giving or withholding any such vote,” and no other oath, declaration or test shall be required as a qualification for any office of public trust.

Bribery and corruption.

Sec. 2. Any person holding office under the laws of this State, who, except in payment of his legal salary, fees or perquisites, shall receive or consent to receive, directly or indirectly, any thing of value or of personal advantage, or the promise thereof, for performing or omitting to perform any official act, or with the express or implied understanding that his official action or omission to act is to be in any degree influenced thereby, shall be deemed guilty of a felony. This section shall not affect the validity of any existing statute in relation to the offense of bribery.

Offer of bribery a felony.

Sec. 3. Any person who shall offer or promise a bribe to an officer, if it shall be received, shall be deemed guilty of a felony and liable to punishment, except as herein provided. No person offering a bribe shall, upon any prosecution of the officer for receiving such bribe, be privileged from testifying in relation thereto, and he shall not be liable to civil or criminal prosecution therefor, if he shall testify to the giving or offering of such bribe. Any person who shall offer or promise a bribe, if it be rejected by the officer to whom it was tendered, shall be deemed guilty of an attempt to bribe, which is hereby declared to be a felony.

Witness.

Sec. 4. Any person charged with receiving a bribe, or with offering or promising a bribe, shall be permitted to testify in his own behalf in any civil or criminal prosecution therefor.

Free passes or transportation, a misdemeanor.

Sec. 5. No public officer, or person elected or appointed to a public office, under the laws of this State, shall directly or indirectly ask, demand, accept, receive or consent to receive for his own use or benefit, or for the use or benefit of another, any free pass, free transportation, franking privilege or discrimination in passenger, telegraph or telephone rates, from any person or corporation, or make use of the same himself or in conjunction with another. A person who violates any provision of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall forfeit his office at the suit of the Attorney-General. Any corporation, or officer or agent thereof, who shall offer or promise to a public officer, or person elected or appointed to a public office, any such free pass, free transportation, franking privilege or discrimination, shall also be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and liable to punishment except as herein provided. No person, or officer or agent of a corporation giving any such free pass, free transportation, franking privilege or discrimination hereby prohibited, shall be privileged from testifying in relation thereto, and he shall not be liable to civil or criminal prosecution therefor if he shall testify to the giving of the same.

Removal of district attorney.

Sec. 6. Any district attorney who shall fail faithfully to prosecute a person charged with the violation in his county of any provision of this article which may come to his knowledge, shall be removed from office by the Governor, after due notice and an opportunity of being heard in his defense. The expenses which shall be incurred by any county, in investigating and prosecuting any charge of bribery or attempting to bribe any person holding office under the laws of this State, within such county, or of receiving bribes by any such person in said county, shall be a charge against the State, and their payment by the State shall be provided for by law.

ARTICLE XIV.

Amendments.

Section 1. Any amendment or amendments to this Constitution may be proposed in the Senate and Assembly; and if the same shall be agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each of the two houses, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered on their journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and referred to the Legislature to be chosen at the next general election of senators, and shall be published for three months previous to the time of making such choice; and if in the Legislature so next chosen, as aforesaid, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be agreed to by a majority of all the members elected to each house, then it shall be the duty of the Legislature to submit such proposed amendment or amendments to the people for approval in such manner and at such times as the Legislature shall prescribe; and if the people shall approve and ratify such amendment or amendments by a majority of the electors voting thereon, such amendment or amendments shall become a part of the Constitution from and after the first day of January next after such approval.

Constitutional Convention.

Sec. 2. At the general election to be held in the year one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and every twentieth year thereafter, and also at such times as the Legislature may by law provide, the question: "Shall there be a convention to revise the Constitution and amend the same?" shall be decided by the electors of the State; and in case a majority of the electors voting thereon shall decide in favor of a convention for such purpose, the electors of every senate district of the State, as then organized, shall elect three delegates at the next ensuing general election at which members of the Assembly shall be chosen, and the electors of the State voting at the same election shall elect fifteen delegates-at-large. The delegates so elected shall convene at the capitol on the first Tuesday of April next ensuing after their election, and shall continue their session until the business of such convention shall have been completed. Every delegate shall receive for his services the same compensation and the same mileage as shall then be annually payable to the members of the Assembly. A majority of the convention shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and no amendment to the Constitution shall be submitted for approval to the electors as hereinafter provided, unless by the assent of a majority of all the delegates elected to the convention, the yeas and nays being entered on the journal to be kept. The convention shall have the power to appoint such officers, employes and assistants as it may deem necessary, and fix their compensation and to provide for the printing of its documents, journal and proceedings. The convention shall determine the rules of its own proceedings, choose its own officers, and be the judge of the election, returns and qualifications of its members. In case of a vacancy, by death, resignation or other cause, of any district delegate elected to the convention, such vacancy shall be filled by a vote of the remaining delegates representing the district in which such vacancy occurs. If such vacancy occurs in the office of a delegate-at-large, such vacancy shall be filled by a vote of the remaining delegates-at-large. Any proposed constitution or constitutional amendment which shall have been adopted by such convention, shall be submitted to a vote of the electors of the State at the time and in the manner provided by such convention, at an election which shall be held not less than six weeks after the adjournment of such convention. Upon the approval of such constitution or constitutional amendments, in the manner provided in the last preceding section, such constitution or constitutional amendment, shall go into effect on the first day of January next after such approval.

Constitutional amendments to supersede amendments by Legislature.

Sec. 3. Any amendment proposed by a constitutional convention relating to the same subject as an amendment proposed by the Legislature, coincidently submitted to the people for approval at the general election held in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, or at any subsequent election, shall, if approved, be deemed to supersede the amendment so proposed by the Legislature.

ARTICLE XV.

Section 1. This Constitution shall be in force from and including the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, except as herein otherwise provided.

Done in Convention at the Capitol in the city of Albany, the twenty-ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and nineteenth.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our names.

BEGINNING MARCH 4, 1895: ENDING MARCH 3, 1897.

The Constitution requires nine years' citizenship to qualify for admission to the Senate, and seven years to the House of Representatives. An act, approved July 26, 1866, requires the Legislature of each State, which shall be chosen next preceding the expiration of any Senatorial term, on the second Tuesday after its first meeting, to elect a successor, each House nominating viva voce, and then convening in joint assembly to compare nominations. In case of agreement, such person shall be declared duly elected; and if they do not agree, then balloting to continue from day to day, at 12 m., during the session, until choice has been made. Vacancies are to be filled in like manner. The members of each House receive a salary of $5,000 per annum, and mileage at the rate of twenty cents per mile. For each day's absence, except when caused by sickness, eight dollars per diem may be deducted from the salary. The President pro tem of the Senate receives the same compensation as the Vice-President. The Speaker of the House of Representatives receives $8,000 per year.

SENATE.

NEW YORK SENATORS IN THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS.

The Constitution of the United States provides that the Legislature of each State shall choose two Senators, who shall hold their office for the term of six years. Vacancies occurring during the recess of the Legislature are directed to be filled by the Executive until the next meeting of the Legislature. At the first session they were divided into three classes, so that one-third might be chosen every second year. A Senator must be an inhabitant of the State, from which he is chosen, been nine years a citizen of the United States, and have attained the age of thirty years. This State was not represented in the first session of the first Congress.

THE ARMS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

ARMS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

The Senate adopted a resolution, May 21, 1880, appointing a commission composed of the Governor, Secretary of State and Comptroller, to ascertain, by examination and comparison of the earliest specimens in existence, what, in their judgment, was an exact description of the original Arms of the State, and to report the same to the Legislature, together with the measures by them deemed necessary to perpetuate their use without alteration on the seals in the public offices of the State. May 20, 1882, the Arms as approved by the commission were adopted by the following act of the Legislature, viz.:

CHAPTER 190.

AN ACT to re-establish the original arms of the state of New York, and to provide for the use thereof on the public seals.

PASSED May 20, 1882; three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The device of arms of this state as adopted March sixteenth, seventeen hundred and seventy-eight, is hereby declared to be correctly described as follows:

CHARGE. Azure, in a landscape, the sun in fess, rising in splendor, or, behind a range of three mountains, the middle one the highest, in base, a ship and sloop under sail, passing and about to meet on a river, bordered below by a grassy shore fringed with shrubs, all proper.

CREST. On a wreath, azure and or, an American eagle, proper, rising to the dexter, from a two-thirds of a globe terrestrial showing the North Atlantic ocean with outlines of its shores.

SUPPORTERS. On a quasi compartment formed by the extension of the scroll.

DEXTER. The figure of Liberty proper, her hair disheveled and decorated with pearls, vested azure, sandaled gules, about the waist a cincture or, fringed gules, a mantle of the last depending from the shoulders behind to the feet, in the dexter hand a staff ensigned with a Phrygian cap or, the sinister arm embowed, the hand supporting the shield at the dexter chief point, a royal crown by her sinister foot dejected.

SINISTER. The figure of Justice proper, her hair disheveled and decorated with pearls, vested or, sandaled, cinctured and mantled as Liberty, bound about the eyes with a fillet proper, in the dexter hand a straight sword hilted or, erect, resting on the sinister chief point of the shield, the sinister arm embowed, holding before her her scales proper.

MOTTO. On a scroll below the shield argent, in sable, EXCELSIOR.

§ 2. The secretary of state shall cause to be engraved upon metal two and one-half inches in diameter the device of arms of this state accurately conformed to the description of the same given in section first, and the arms so engraved shall be surrounded with the legend. The great seal of the state of New York, and it alone shall be used as the great seal of the state. He also shall cause to be engraved on metal, the privy seal for the office of the governor, and seals for the court of appeals, the secretary of state, the comptroller, the treasurer, the state engineer and surveyor and the adjutant-general, which shall be two inches and a quarter in diameter and shall contain the same device of arms; and each of said seals shall have an inscription on its face surrounding the arms, containing severally the name and title of each office. He shall also provide in the same manner for all other offices at the capital which are required to have in use official seals.

§ 3. The seals of all state officers other than those named in the preceding section, and which are required or authorized by statute to use a seal, shall conform to the same device described in the first section, shall be one inch and three-quarters in diameter, and shall be surrounded with the appropriate name of the office.

§ 4. From and after the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, the seals provided as aforesaid by the secretary of state shall be used for all the requisite purposes of these offices. The seals of the several offices which can no longer be used shall be delivered to the secretary of state, shall be by him defaced with a suitable mark and deposited with the ancient seals in the state library.

§ 5. The device of arms of the state corresponding to the blazon hereinbefore given shall be painted in colors upon wood or canvas, and hung upon the walls of the executive chamber, the court of appeals, the office of the secretary of state and of the senate and assembly chambers.

§ 6. No pictorial devices other than the arms of the state shall be used in the public offices at the capital for letter headings and envelopes used for official business. Persons printing and circulating public documents under the authority of the state, when they use a vignette, shall place upon the title pages of the documents the standard device of the state arms without alterations or additions.

§ 7. During the hours when the legislature is in session, the state flag bearing the arms of the state shall be displayed from the capitol together with the flag of the United States.

§ 8. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

THE GOVERNOR.

The Constitution of the State vests the executive power in the Governor. He is elected by the people and no person is eligible to the office, except a citizen of the United States, of the age of not less than thirty years, who shall have been five years, next preceding his election, a resident of the State. The Governor is Commander-in-Chief of the military and naval forces of the State, a trustee of certain of its public buildings, a Regent of the University, a trustee of the Soldiers' Home, Union College, Cornell University, Syracuse University, and of the State Institution for Feeble Minded Children. He is required to communicate, by message to the Legislature at every session, the condition of the State, and recommend such matters to them as he shall judge expedient. He is also required to transact all necessary business with the officers of government, civil and military, and expedite all such measures as may be resolved upon by the Legislature, and take care that the laws are faithfully executed. The Governor may convene the Legislature—or Senate only, in extraordinary sessions, and may grant reprieves, commutations and pardons after conviction, for all offenses except treason and cases of impeachment. He appoints (by and with the advice and consent of the Senate), certain officers connected with the government of the State not elective by the people, and fills vacancies occurring therein during the recess of the Senate. He also may suspend or remove many officers under certain restrictions prescribed by statute. During the session of the Legislature he has the power to veto any bill passed by the Senate and Assembly. In the event of two-thirds of the members elected to each house agreeing to pass a vetoed bill the same becomes a law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. After the final adjournment of the Legislature, no bill becomes a law unless approved by the Governor within thirty days, and he has power to disapprove items in any bill appropriating money. The Governor holds his office for the term of two years and receives an annual salary of $10,000, and the use of a furnished executive residence. He is authorized to appoint a private secretary, clerks and messengers, and to a limited degree the Executive Chamber is an office of Record. The Privy Seal is the Arms of the State surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York — Executive Privy Seal."

Lieutenant-Governor.

The Lieutenant-Governor is elected by the people in the same manner and for the same term as the Governor. No person is eligible to the office, except a citizen of the United States, of the age of not less than thirty years, who shall have been five years, next preceding his election, a-resident of the State. In case of the impeachment of the Governor, or his removal from office, death, inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, resignation, or absence from the State, the powers and duties of the office devolve upon the Lieutenant-Governor for the residue of the term, or until the disability shall cease. But when the Governor, with the consent of the Legislature, shall be out of the State in time of war, at the head of a military force thereof, he continues Commander-in-Chief of all the military forces of the State. If, during a vacancy of the office of Governor, the Lieutenant-Governor shall be impeached, displaced, resign, die, or become incapable of performing the duties of his office, or be absent from the State, the President of the Senate acts as Governor until the vacancy is filled, or the disability shall cease. The Lieutenant-Governor is President of the Senate, but has only a casting vote therein. By virtue of that office he is a member of the Court for the Trial of Impeachments, but is prohibited from acting on the trial of an impeachment against the Governor. He is also a Commissioner of the Canal Fund, Land Office and of the new Capitol, a member of the Canal Board, a trustee of the State Institution for Feeble-Minded Children, Union College, Cornell University, a Regent of the University, a trustee of the finished portions of the new Capitol, and trustee of several of the other public buildings of the State, and a member of the State Board of Charities, and of the State Board of Equalization of Assessments. He has an annual salary of $5,000, and is prohibited from receiving any other compensation, fee or perquisite for any duty or service he may be required to perform by the Constitution or by law.

Secretary of State.

The Secretary of State is keeper of the State archives, in connection with which he has numerous specific duties. He superintends the publication and distribution of the laws, and issues patents for lands, commissions, pardons and licenses, and notices for elections. In his office are filed applications from companies formed under general laws, except banking institutions and insurance companies. He reports annually to the Legislature the statistics of pauperism and crime received from the several counties, and upon such other subjects as may be required by law or by a resolution of either branch of the Legislature. At the January session of the Legislature, he administers the oath of office to each member of Assembly. The Secretary of State is ex officio a Regent of the University, a Commissioner of the Land Office and of the Canal Fund, a member of the Canal Board and of the Board of State Canvassers, a trustee of the State Institution for Feeble-Minded Children, a trustee of Union College, a member of the State Board of Equalization of Assessments, ex officio a member of the State Board of Charities, and the custodian of the great seal of the State. He is elected by the people for a term of two years, and receives an annual salary of $5,000. Under the provisions of the Constitution of 1894, the term of office of the Secretary of State elected in 1895, will be for three years. The fees of the office go into the treasury. He appoints a deputy (who is clerk of the Land Office), and the necessary clerks. The Seal of the office is the Arms of the State surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York—Secretary of State."

The Comptroller.

An Auditor-General was appointed by the Provincial Convention in 1776, who held office until 1782, when the Governor and Senate were authorized to appoint an Auditor. The latter office was abolished in 1797 and that of Comptroller substituted in its place. The Comptroller is auditor of public accounts, excepting those payable from the Free School Fund, and manages the funds of the State; loans its moneys; superintends the collection of its taxes, and the payment of current expenses of the State. He is, ex-officio, a Commissioner of the Land Office and of the Canal Fund, a member of the Canal Board and Board of State Canvassers, a trustee of the State Institution for Feeble-Minded Children and of Union College, and a member of the State Board of Charities and of the State Board of Equalization of Assessments. In 1883 the office of Auditor of the Canal Department was abolished and a Bureau of Canal Affairs established in the office of the Comptroller. The main powers and duties previously exercised by the Auditor are now discharged by the Comptroller. He is elected by the people for a term of two years, receives an annual salary of $6,000, and is allowed a deputy, an accountant and necessary clerks. Under the provisions of the Constitution of 1894, the term of office of the Comptroller elected in 1895 will be for three years. The Seal of office is the Arms of the State surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York — Comptroller."

The Treasurer.

The Treasurer is custodian of all moneys paid into the State treasury and moneys owing by the State are paid by him upon proper warrants. He is a Commissioner of the Land Office, a Commissioner of the Canal Fund, a member of the Canal Board, a member of the State Board of Canvassers, a trustee of Union College and a member of the State Board of Equalization of Assessments. No transfer of securities held by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department or by the Superintendent of the Banking Department is valid unless countersigned by the Treasurer. He is also vested by law with certain special powers in regard to the sale and conversion of securities held by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department in trust for insolvent insurance companies. Under the provisions of the Constitution the Treasurer may be suspended from office by the Governor during the recess of the Legislature, and until thirty days after the commencement of the next session of the Legislature, whenever it shall appear to him that the Treasurer has, in any particular, violated his duty. The Governor is authorized to appoint a competent person to discharge the duties of the office during a suspension of the Treasurer. He is elected by the people for a term of two years, receives an annual salary of $5,000, and is allowed a deputy, bookkeeper and necessary clerks. Under the provisions of the Constitution of 1894, the term of office of the Treasurer elected in 1895 will be for three years. Attorney-General.

In addition to the duties with which he is charged as the law officer of the State, the Attorney-General is a Commissioner of the Land Office and of the Canal Fund, a member of the Canal Board, the Board of State Canvassers, the State Board of Equalization of Assessments, and the New York State Soldiers and Sailors' Home, an ex-officio member of the State Board of Charities, State Board of Health and Board of Trustees of Union College. The Attorney-General in person or by deputy attends each session of the Board of Claims on behalf of the State, and prepares all cases on the part of the State for hearing, argues the same when prepared, and causes testimony to be taken when necessary to secure the interest of the State. He prepares forms, files interrogatories, and superintends the taking of testimony in the manner prescribed by the Board of Claims, and generally renders such service as may be necessary to further the interests of the State in all cases before that Board, and in the Court of Appeals on appeal from awards made by the Board of Claims. He is elected by the people for a term of two years, receives an annual salary of $5,000, and is allowed a first, second and third deputy and necessary clerks. Under the provisions of the Constitution of 1894, the term of office of the Attorney-General elected in 1895 will be for three years. The seal of the office is the Arms of the State surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York — Attorney-General."

State Engineer and Surveyor.

The office of Surveyor-General existed under the government of the Province of New Netherland, and was continued throughout the colonial period and renewed under the State government in 1781. The Constitution of 1846 abolished the office of Surveyor-General and created that of State Engineer and Surveyor, to which no person is eligible who is not a practical engineer. He possesses all of the powers with which the Surveyor-General was formerly charged, except that of Commissioner of the Canal Fund, and in addition, he has general duties relative to the public lands and canals not required of the former officer. He is a Commissioner of the Land Office, a member of the Canal Board, the Board of State Canvassers, the Board of Quarantine Commissioners, the Commissioners of the New Capitol, the Greater New York Commission and the State Board of Equalization of Assessments. The Canal Engineering Department is under his supervision, he appoints three Division Engineers and three Resident Engineers and all subordinate engineers. In 1886 the Legislature directed that the records and property of the State Survey be deposited in the office of the State Engineer and Surveyor. Prior to 1883, the railroads operated in the State were required to report the condition of their affairs to the State Engineer and Surveyor, but in that year the supervision of these corporations was transferred to the Board of Railroad Commissioners. The State Engineer and Surveyor is elected by the people for a term of two years, receives an annual salary of $5,000, and is allowed a deputy and necessary clerks. Under the provisions of the Constitution of 1894, the term of office of the State Engineer and Surveyor elected in 1895 will be for three years. The Seal of the office is the Arms of the State, surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York--State Engineer and Surveyor."

University of the State of New York.

Incorporated May 1, 1784.

Reorganized April 13, 1787.

Laws revised and consolidated June 15, 1889.

Scope and powers enlarged by University law April 27, 1892.

Object.—The object of the University as defined by law is to encourage and promote education in advance of the common elementary branches. Its field includes not only the work of academies, colleges, universities, professional and technical schools, but also educational work connected with libraries, museums, university extension courses and similar agencies.

The University is a supervisory and administrative, not a teaching institution. It is a State department and at the same time a federation of 627 teaching institutions of higher and secondary education.

Government.—The University is governed and all its corporate powers exercised by nineteen elective regents and by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State and Superintendent of Public Instruction, who are ex-officio regents. Regents are elected in the same manner as United States Senators. They are unsalaried and are the only public officers in New York chosen for life.

The elective officers are a Chancellor and a Vice-Chancellor, who serve without salary, and a Secretary.

The Secretary is the executive and financial officer, is under official bonds for $10,000, is responsible for the safe-keeping and proper use of the University seal and of the books, records and other property in charge of the Regents, and for the proper administration and discipline of its various offices and departments.

Powers and duties.—Besides many other important powers and duties the Regents have power to incorporate, and to alter or revoke the charters of universities, colleges, academies, libraries, museums, or other educational institutions; to distribute to them funds granted by the State for their use; to inspect their workings and require annual reports under oath of their presiding officers; to establish examinations as to attainments in learning and confer on successful candidates suitable certificates, diplomas and degrees.

They apportion annually an academic fund of $106,000, part for buying books and apparatus for academies and high schools raising an equal amount for the same purpose, and the remainder on the basis of attendance and on the results of instruction as shown in the satisfactory completion of prescribed courses for which the Regents' examinations afford the official test. Each school of academic grade also receives $100 yearly. They also expend $25,000 for the benefit of free public libraries, apportioning not to exceed $200 yearly to communities raising equal amounts, and lending small libraries for periods of six months where such assistance is needed to supplement local free libraries or to stimulate interest in establishing them.

The law allows no option among incorporated institutions as to their membership in the University, but says: "The institutions of the University shall include all institutions of higher education which are now or may hereafter be incorporated in this State, and such other libraries, museums, or other institutions for higher education as may, in conformity with the ordinances of the Regents, after official inspection, be admitted to or incorporated by the University.

Regents meetings.—The regular meetings of the Regents are on the third Thursdays of October, December and March, and during convocation week in June. The executive committee consisting of the chancellor, vice-chancellor and chairman of the six standing committees, meets the third Thursday of each month, except July, August and September. During the year special meetings are held whenever business requires.

Convocation.—The University Convocation of the Regents and the officers of institutions in the University, for consideration of subjects of mutual interest, has been held annually since 1863 in the Senate chamber in Albany, and meets on the last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday in June.

Its reputation as the most important higher educational meeting of the country has in the past few years drawn to it many eminent educators not residents of New York, who are most cordially welcomed and share fully in all discussions. It elects each year a council of five to represent it in intervals between meetings. Its proceedings issued annually are of great value in all educational libraries.

The manifold activities of the University are partly indicated by the summaries of the five administrative departments into which its work is divided.

DEPARTMENTS.

1. Administrative.—Including incorporation, supervision, inspection, reports, legislation, finances and all other work not assigned to another department.

The duplicate division is a state clearing house to which any institution in the University may send books or apparatus which it no longer requires, and select from it in return an equipment suited to its locality and needs. The institutions pay transportation both ways and the State does the work in order to place the books and apparatus where they will be most useful.

2. Examination.—Including preliminary, law student, medical student, academic, higher, law, medical, dental, veterinary, library, extension and any other examinations conducted by the Regents, and also credentials or degrees conferred on examination.

3. Extension.—Including summer, vacation, evening, and correspondence schools and other forms of extension teaching, lecture courses, study clubs, reading circles and other agencies for the promotion and wider extension of opportunities and facilities for education to those unable to attend the usual teaching institutions. The most important part of the movement is provision of the best reading for all citizens through the public libraries division and by means of traveling, extension, home, and capitol libraries and annotated lists.

4. State Library.—Including general, law, medical and education libraries, library school, reading courses, annotated lists and other bibliographic publications, lending books to students, and all other library interests intrusted to the Regents.

5. State Museum.—Including all scientific specimens and collections, works of art, objects of historic interest and similar property appropriate to a general museum, if owned by the State and not placed in other custody by a specific law, also the research department carried on by the State Geologist and Paleontologist, Botanist and Entomologist, with all other scientific interests of the University.

Fuller information regarding the University or any of its departments is given in special hand-books to be had on application at the Regents' office.

State Library.

The State Library was established by the Legislature in 1818, with the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Chancellor and Chief Justice as trustees. The Secretary of State, Attorney-General and Comptroller, were afterward added. In 1844 the Regents of the University were made, ex-officio, sole trustees. The library was kept in the old Capitol till 1854, when a new building was erected for it. In 1883 this building was removed to make way for the eastern approaches of the New Capitol, and the library was temporarily located on its second floor under the Assembly Chamber. In 1889 it was made an integral part of the University and was moved to its permanent home, the third, fourth and fifth floors of the western front. The only public entrance is on the third floor, into the central and largest of the eleven reading-rooms which extend from State street to Washington avenue. The fourth and fifth floors are used for storage of books, for the public libraries and duplicate for administrative purposes, and for special reading-rooms, to which students making special investigations may obtain access. The library contained December 1, 1895, 214,543 volumes, 54,302 in the law, 137,426 in the general library, and 22,815 in the traveling libraries, besides about 100,000 duplicates. It is open daily, except Sundays, from 8 A. M. to 10 P. M., but on legal holidays and Saturdays it closes at 6 P. M., as the engineers are not on duty to supply elevator power.

Public libraries division.—This is devoted solely to promoting general library interests of the State, which through it apportions and expends $25,000 a year for the benefit of free public libraries. Its object is to stimulate the formation of local libraries and on request to give needed advice and supervision in organizing or in improving the methods of existing institutions; to provide annotated lists of the best books on all subjects, and in all practicable ways to assist communities willing to do their part in providing the best reading for their citizens.

Traveling libraries.—These are in charge of the public libraries divisions and are lent six months at a time to local libraries needing such supplements or to communities not yet having organized permanent libraries. To cover transportation both ways, cases, a supply of catalogues, a charging outfit, and needed blanks for records and reports, a fee of from two to five dollars is charged.

Library school.—The law authorizes the State Library to give instruction and assistance in organizing and administering libraries. Students receive from the State Library staff, in return for services rendered to the library during their two years course, careful training in library economy, bibliography, cataloguing, classification and other duties of professional librarianship. Its graduates have already filled 203 library positions in New York and 229 in other States. There is a complete system of library examinations, with pass-cards, certificates and diplomas.

State Museum.

Established 1843.

In 1889, the State Museum was made an integral part of the University, and the fifth floor of the New Capitol was formally assigned for its use. Till the new quarters are completed, most of the museum remains on the four floors of Geological Hall in State street. Here are the collections in mineralogy, geology, paleontology, zoology and ethnology, and the office of the director.

All scientific specimens and collections, works of art, objects of historic interest and similar property appropriate to a general museum, if owned by the State and not placed in other custody by a specific law, shall constitute the State Museum, and one of its officers shall annually inspect all such property not kept in the State Museum rooms, and the annual report of the Museum to the Legislature shall include summaries of such property, with its location, and any needed recommendations as to its safety or usefulness.

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The supervision of the public schools is vested in the Superintendent of Public Instruction, who is elected by joint ballot of the Senate and Assembly for the term of three years. He has general superintendence of the public schools; visits them; inquires into their management; advises and directs in regard to their course of instruction and discipline: apportions and distributes the public moneys appropriated by the State for the support of schools; examines the supplementary apportionments made to all the districts by the School Commissioners, and sees to it that to each district is set apart its proportionate share, and that the same is expended by the trustees, and paid by the supervisors of the towns according to law. He gives advice and direction to school officers, teachers and inhabitants, upon all questions arising under the school laws, and establishes rules and regulations concerning appeals. He hears and decides all appeals, involving school controversies, that are brought before him, and his decision is final. He is charged with the general control and management of Teachers' Institutes, in the various counties of the State; is authorized to employ instructors for the Institutes, and to pay them, and to certify the accounts for expenses incurred by the School Commissioners in conducting the same, and is required by law to visit the Institutes, and to advise and direct concerning their proper management. He establishes rules and regulations concerning district school libraries, and makes appointments of State Pupils to the Institutions for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind, and visits and inquires into the condition and management of these institutions. He apportions among the counties the number of pupils in the State Normal School to which each is entitled. He has charge of all the Indian Schools in the State; employs local agents to superintend them, and visits them, and directs concerning the erection and repairs of their school-houses, and determines the branches of instruction to be pursued in the schools. He is also charged with the enforcement of the compulsory education law. He is, ex-officio, a Regent of the University, Chairman of the Committee on Teachers' Classes in the Academies, ex-officio, a member of the Board of Trustees of Cornell University, of Syracuse University, of the Idiot Asylum, and Chairman of the Executive Committee of the State Normal School at Albany, and he has general supervision of all of the Normal Schools of the State. He receives and compiles the abstracts of the reports from all the school districts in the State, setting forth their condition and proceedings and the account of receipts and expenditures for each year, and makes annual reports to the Legislature of the condition and affairs of the public schools. The Superintendent receives an annual salary of $5,000, and is allowed two deputies and necessary clerks. The Seal of the office is the Arms of the State surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York — State Superintendent of Public Instruction."

Superintendent of Public Works.

The Superintendent of Public Works is appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and holds his office until the end of the term of the Governor by whom he is nominated, and until his successor is appointed and qualified. He receives an annual compensation of $6,000. He is required by law to give security for the faithful execution of his office before entering upon the duties thereof. He is charged with the execution of all laws relating to the repair and navigation of the canals, and also of those relating to the construction and improvement of the canals except so far as the execution of the laws relating to such construction or improvement shall be confided to the State Engineer and Surveyor; subject to the control of the Legislature, he makes the rules and regulations for the navigation or use of the canals. The Superintendent is also charged with the expenditure of moneys appropriated by the Legislature for public improvements authorized by special acts. He may be suspended or removed from office by the Governor whenever, in his judgment, the public interest shall so require; but in case of the removal of such Superintendent of Public Works from office, the Governor shall file with the Secretary of State a statement of the cause of such removal, and shall report such removal, and the cause thereof to the Legislature at its next session. He appoints not more than three assistant superintendents, whose duties are prescribed by him, subject to modification by the Legislature, and who each receives for services an annual compensation of $3,000. They hold their office for three years, subject to suspension or removal by the Superintendent of Public Works, whenever, in his judgment, the public interest shall so require. Any vacancy in the office of any such assistant superintendent is filled for the remainder of the term for which he was appointed, by the Superintendent of Public Works; but in case of the suspension or removal of any such assistant superintendent by him, he shall at once report to the Governor, in writing, the cause of such removal. All other persons employed in the care and management of the canals, except those in the department of the State Engineer and Surveyor, are appointed by the Superintendent of Public Works, and are subject to suspension or removal by him. The Superintendent of Public Works is a member of the Canal Board and Capitol Commission. The Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, has power to fill a vacancy in the office of Superintendent of Public Works; if the Senate be not in session, he may grant a commission which shall expire at the end of the next succeeding session of the Senate.

State Board of Health.

The Governor (by and with the advice and consent of the Senate) appoints three State Commissioners of Health, who hold their offices for the term of three years. Of the State Commissioners it is required that two shall be graduates of legally constituted medical colleges, and of not less than seven years' practice of their profession. The State Commissioners, together with the Attorney-General, the Health Officer of the Port of New York and the Secretary elected by the Board as ex-officio members in conjunction with three representatives of city boards of health (of whom one shall be a commissioner of health of the Board of Health of the City of New York) named by the Governor from time to time, as occasion may require, constitute the Board of Health of the State of New York. The Board has cognizance of the interests of health and life among the people of the State, and is required to make inquiries in respect to the causes of disease, and especially of epidemics, and investigate the sources of mortality, and the effects of localities, employments and other conditions upon the public health, it collects information relative to death, diseases and health, and has general supervision of the State system of registration of births, marriages and deaths, and of prevalent diseases, and it regulates the transfer of dead bodies beyond the limits of counties in which the deaths occur. It also has cognizance of the interests of the public health, as it relates to the sale of food, drugs, spirituous, fermented and malt liquors, and the adulteration thereof. The Governor may require the board to examine into nuisances, and may declare to be public nuisances, matters and things certified to him to be such. No member of the Board, save the Secretary, receives compensation, but expenses incurred by the Commissioners while engaged in the performance of official duties may be paid from the appropriations made for its support. Secretary receives $4,500 salary per year. The Board are required to meet at least once in three months and as much oftener as they may deem necessary, and on or before the first Monday in December of each year, they report in writing to the Governor upon the vital statistics and sanitary condition and prospects of the State. The seal of the office is the Arms of the State surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York — The Board of Health."

Insurance Department.

The Superintendent of the Insurance Department receives his appointment from the Governor (by and with the advice and consent of the Senate), and holds office for the term of three years and until his successor is appointed and has qualified. He has control and supervision of insurance companies transacting business in the State; and life and casualty companies of the State and those of other countries, and fire and marine insurance companies of foreign governments deposit securities with him for the protection of policyholders residing in the United States. Insurance companies organized under the laws of other States or countries are required to obtain renewals of their authority from the Superintendent each year. He is authorized to refuse admission to any company, corporation or association applying for permission to transact insurance business in the State, whenever, upon examination, the capital stock of the same is found to be impaired, and also whenever such refusal to admit shall best promote the interests of the people of this State. Such companies are prohibited from transacting business in the State until they first have, in writing, appointed the Superintendent to be the attorney for the company in and for this State, upon whom process in any action or proceeding may be served. The companies, corporations and associations under the supervision of the Superintendent are subject to visitation and examination by him or such persons as he may designate. Their condition and transactions are reported to him under oath at regular intervals, abstracts of which are made and transmitted to the Legislature in his annual reports to that body. The Superintendent is required to give a bond of $25,000 for the faithful discharge of his official duties and is prohibited from being directly or indirectly interested in any insurance company. His salary is fixed at $7,000 per year, and he is allowed a deputy and necessary clerks to discharge the duties of the office. The entire expenses of the Department are paid by the corporations under its supervision. The Seal of the office is the Arms of the State surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York — Superintendent of the Insurance Department."

Bank Department.

An act of the Legislature, passed in 1782, prohibited any other bank within the limits of the State than the Bank of North America, but the Legislature subsequently chartered State Banks from time to time. In 1829 the Safety Fund was created and the appointment of three Bank Commissioners provided for. The Commissioners visited the banks of the State, examined into their condition and reported the results of their investigations to the Legislature each year. The appointment of a fourth Commissioner was authorized in 1840, and the banks organized under the General Banking Laws were placed under the supervision of the Bank Commissioners. The office was abolished in 1843, and the banks required to report to the Comptroller, which they continued to do until 1851, when the Bank Department was established, to which the books, documents and records pertaining to banks were transferred. The Superintendent of the Banking Department receives his appointment from the Governor (by and with the advice and consent of the Senate), and holds office for the term of three years, and until his successor is appointed and has qualified. He is vested with the general supervision of the banks operated under State laws; they report to him quarterly, and when issuing circulating notes, deposit security for their redemption. The Savings Banks of the State are also under his supervision, as are trust, loan, mortgage, guaranty and indemnity companies or associations, and corporations for the safe-keeping and guaranteeing personal property, each of which report to him semi-annually. Building, Mutual Loan and Accumulating Fund Associations, and Co-operative Savings and Loan Associations, are also under his supervision and report annually. Excepting the several classes of Savings and Building Fund Associations, the institutions over which he has supervisory powers are subjected to regular examinations by him or such persons as he may designate. The Superintendent gives a bond of $50,000 for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office and is prohibited from being interested in any bank, banking association or as an individual banker. He makes digests of the reports of the various institutions, which are incorporated in his annual reports to the Legislature. With the exception of the charges made for the examination of banks of deposit and discount, trust, loan and mortgage companies, and safe deposit companies, the expenses of the department are paid by pro rata assessments on the institutions under its supervision. The Superintendent has an annual salary of $5,000, and is allowed a deputy and necessary clerks and examiners. The Seal of the office is the Arms of the State surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York — Superintendent of the Banking Department."

Board of Railroad Commissioners.

Three Railroad Commissioners are appointed by the Governor (by and with the advice and consent of the Senate), who hold office for the term of five years. They have general supervision of all railroads in the State, as to the manner in which the roads are operated with reference to the security and accommodation of the public. The Commissioners investigate all accidents resulting in loss of life or injury to persons, and have the power to examine the books and affairs of any railroad corporation in the State. All such corporations report to the Board, and digests thereof are made which, with other information, is annually transmitted to the Legislature. The Commissioners are prohibited from engaging in any other business vocation, and they each receive an annual salary of $8,000. The Board employs a secretary and necessary clerks. The office is one of record and its expenses are paid by the railroads operated in the State. The Seal of the office is the Arms of the State surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York — Board of Railroad Commissioners."

State Board of Charities.

By article eight of the Constitution, adopted in 1894, the State Board of Charities, created in 1867, became a constitutional body to take effect January 1, 1895. Such Constitution provides that the Board shall visit and inspect all institutions, whether State, county, municipal, incorporated or not incorporated, which are of a charitable, eleemosynary, correctional or reformatory character, including all reformatories except those in which adult males convicted of felony shall be confined, and excepting all institutions, either public or private, used for the care and treatment of the insane (not including institutions for epileptics or idiots) and also all institutions used for the detention of sane adults charged with or convicted of crime, or detained as witnesses or debtors. It also provides that the members of the said Board shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate; and that all existing laws relating to institutions above mentioned and to their supervision and inspection, in so far as such laws are not inconsistent with the provisions of the Constitution, shall remain in force, and that the Legislature may confer upon the Board any additional powers. It further provides that while payments by counties, cities, towns and villages to charitable, eleemosynary, correctional and reformatory institutions wholly or partly under private control, for care, support and maintenance may be authorized but shall not be required by the Legislature, no such payments shall be made for any inmate of such institution who is not received and retained therein pursuant to rules established by the State Board of Charities.

The Commissioners comprising the Board are eleven in number, and are appointed for the term of eight years, one of whom shall reside in each judicial district of the State, one additional member in the county of Kings, and two additional members in the county of New York, and no Commissioner can act as such while a trustee, manager, director or other administrative officer of any of the institutions subject to the visitation and inspection of the Board.

The general duties of the Board are to visit, inspect and maintain a general supervision of all institutions, societies or associations which are of a charitable, eleemosynary, correctional or reformatory character, whether State or municipal, incorporated or not incorporated, made subject to its supervision by the Constitution and the statutes.

The officers of the Board are a President and Vice President, elected annually from its members. Each Commissioner receives as compensation ten dollars for each day's attendance at meetings of the Board or any of its committees (said compensation, however, not to exceed $500 for any one year for each Commissioner) and his expenses while engaged and his outlay for any aid or assistance required in the performance of his duties. The Board is required to report to the Legislature annually. The Seal of the office is the Arms of the State, surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York — The State Board of Charities."

Board of Claims.

The Commissioners of Claims are appointed by the Governor (by and with the advice and consent of the Senate), for the term of six years. The Board of Claims is composed of three Commissioners, of whom two, and no more, are practicing attorneys and counselors of the Supreme Court. It has jurisdiction to hear, audit and determine private claims against the State, and to allow thereon such sums as should be paid by the State. It also has jurisdiction to hear and determine claims that the Legislature may authorize to be heard. Regular sessions of the Board are held in the city of Albany, the second Tuesday of January, April, September and November, with such adjourned sessions there or elsewhere in the State, as may be deemed necessary. The Attorney-General or a deputy attends at each of its sessions on behalf of the State. A record of the proceedings of the Board is kept and reported to the Legislature annually. Each Commissioner receives an annual salary of $5,000, and an allowance of $500 for expenses. The Board appoints a clerk, deputy clerk, a stenographer and a messenger. The Seal of the office is the Arms of the State, surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York — Board of Claims."

Board of Mediation and Arbitration.

The State Board of Mediation and Arbitration is composed of three members, who are appointed by the Governor (by and with the advice and consent of the Senate), and hold office for the term of three years. Whenever a strike or lock-out occurs, or if seriously threatened in any part of the State, it is the duty of the Board to proceed, as soon as practicable, to the locality of such strike or lock-out, and put themselves in communication with the parties to the controversy, and endeavor by mediation to effect an amicable settlement thereof. It is also the duty of the Board to hear and consider appeals from decisions of local boards, and to investigate such cases, and the decision of the State Board thereon is final and conclusive in the premises upon both parties to the arbitration. The Board has power to compel the production of books, papers and documents in the same manner as courts of record, or the judges thereof, in this State. Each Arbitrator receives an annual salary of $3,000. The Board makes a report to the Legislature each year, and is authorized to appoint a secretary, who receives an annual salary of $2,000.

Civil Service Commission

The New York Civil Service Commission is composed of three Commissioners appointed by the Governor (by and with the advice and consent of the Senate). The term of office of the Commissioners is not fixed by statute. The Commission is charged with the duty of aiding the Governor in the preparation of suitable rules with which to test, by practical and competitive examinations, the capacity and fitness of applicants for employment in the public service of the State, and of those therein as well, to the end that appointments and promotions shall be made on the basis of merit and competition. The civil service regulations prescribed by mayors of cities are also subject to the inspection of the State Commission. The Commissioners are prohibited from holding other place or office under the State government; they receive annual salaries of $2,000 each and traveling expenses. The Commission is authorized to appoint a chief examiner, secretary and necessary clerks, and its proceedings are annually reported to the Governor for transmission to the Legislature. The Seal of the office is the Arms of the State, surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York — Civil Service Commission."

Board of State Canvassers.

[Meeting held in the office of the Secretary of State.]

The Board of State Canvassers is composed of five State officers, any three of whom form a quorum. The Secretary of State is required to convene the Board at his office, or that of the Treasurer or Comptroller, on or before the fifteenth of December after a general election, and within forty days after a special election. If a majority of the Board are unable to attend, the Secretary of State notifies the Mayor and Recorder of Albany of the fact, and requires their attendance. The members of the Board are:

The Secretary of State.	The Attorney-General.
The Comptroller.	The State Treasurer.
The State Engineer and Surveyor.

Commissioners of the Land Office.

[Meetings held in the office of the Secretary of State.]

The power to grant the waste and unappropriated lands belonging to the State was conferred upon the Commissioners of the Land Office in 1784. In 1885 the powers previously vested in the Commissioners, so far as they related to wild lands set aside for a forest preserve, were transferred to the Forest Commission. The Deputy Secretary of State is ex officio clerk of the Land Office. The Commissioners are:

The Lieutenant-Governor.	The Comptroller.
The Speaker of the Assembly.	The State Treasurer.
The Secretary of State.	The Attorney-General.
The State Engineer and Surveyor.

Trustees of Public Buildings.

[Meetings held at irregular intervals.]

The finished portions of the Capitol, and the other public buildings of the State of Albany are under the supervision of the Trustees of Public Buildings. Such trustees are:

The Governor.	The Lieutenant-Governor.
The Speaker of the Assembly.

The Canal Board.

[Meetings held in the office of the Comptroller.]

The Canal Board was created by an act of the Legislature, passed April 18, 1826. The members of the Board are :

The Lieutenant-Governor.	The State Treasurer.
The Secretary of State.	The Attorney-General.
The Comptroller.	The Supt. of Public Works.
The State Engineer and Surveyor.

Commissioners of the Canal Fund.

[Meetings held in the office of the Comptroller.]

The Canal Fund was created by an act of the Legislature, passed April 15, 1817. Its management is intrusted to the Commissioners of the Canal Fund, consisting of :

The Lieutenant-Governor.	The Comptroller.
The Secretary of State.	The State Treasurer.
The Attorney-General.

State Board of Equalization and Assessments.

[Annual meeting first Tuesday in September, at Albany.]

The State Assessors and the Commissioners of the Land Office constitute the Board of Equalization, charged with the duty of equalizing the State tax among the several counties of the State, and fixing the amount of assessment of real and personal estate on which the State tax is levied. The Board is composed of:

The Lieutenant-Governor.

The State Treasurer.

The Secretary of State.

The Attorney-General.

The Comptroller.

The Speaker of the Assembly.

The State Engineer and Surveyor and the Three State Assessors.

State Board of Pharmacy.

The members of the State Board of Pharmacy are appointed by the Governor from five pharmacists nominated at an annual meeting of the New York Pharmaceutical Association, and hold office for the term of five years. The Board, consisting of five members, holds quarterly meetings, examines persons applying for licenses as pharmacists, and grants licenses to those entitled thereto. The Board renders annual reports to the Governor and to the State Pharmaceutical Association. Its expenses are paid from the fees received for licenses.

Agricultural Experiment Station.

The Governor appoints the trustees of the State Agricultural Experiment Station, located at Geneva, N. Y., who hold office for the term of three years. The management of the affairs of the Station is intrusted to a Board of Control, composed of ten trustees, of which the Governor is one. Its purpose is to promote agriculture in its various branches by scientific investigation and experiments. The Board appoints a director, and employs chemists and other persons to carry on the work of the Station. Property acquired by the Board belongs to the State, and can be disposed of only as authorized by law. They elect from their number a President and appoint a Secretary and a Treasurer; the latter gives a bond of $10,000. The members of the Board serve without compensation, but may be paid actual traveling expenses incurred while in attendance at meetings of the Board.

Health Officers of the Port of New York.

The Governor (by and with the advice and consent of the Senate) appoints the Health Officer of the Port of New York, who holds office for the term of four years. No person is eligible for appointment, except a doctor of medicine of good standing of at least ten years' experience in the practice of his profession and practically familiar with quarantine diseases. The Health Officer has general superintendence and control of the quarantine establishment, and the care and treatment of the sick. He appoints two deputies and a resident physician of the Swinburne Island Hospital, for whose conduct he is responsible; and also appoints nurses, boatmen and other employes, and, in conjunction with the Quarantine Commissioners, licenses lightermen, stevedores, laborers and other employes. He receives fees fixed by law for his services, out of which he is required to pay the salaries of all employes necessary for the performance of the duties imposed upon him, and for the carrying on of the quarantine establishment, except the salaries of the Commissioners of Quarantine. To the latter he makes annual reports of the condition of the quarantine establishment.

The Health Officer shall be entitled to receive a total compensation of $12,500 per annum.

State Commission in Lunacy.

Under the Constitution adopted in 1894 the State Commission in Lunacy, created in 1889, became a constitutional body, to take effect January 1, 1895, and all laws existing at that date are preserved, in so far as they are not in conflict with the provisions of the Constitution, which also provides that the Legislature may devolve further powers and duties upon this body. Under existing laws there are three Commissioners appointed by the Governor (by and with the advice and consent of the Senate), for the term of six years each, the term of one Commissioner expiring at the end of each two years. Under the new Constitution the Commission is given exclusive jurisdiction over the insane, not including institutions for epileptics and idiots. It is the duty of the Commission to examine into the condition of all institutions for the insane, public and private; to inquire into methods of management and government; to examine the condition of buildings, grounds and other property, and into all matters pertaining to the usefulness of the institutions. No private institution for the insane is permitted to exist without a license from the Commission. By chapter 214 of the Laws of 1893 the Commission is given supervision over the expenditures of all State hospitals for the insane; no expenditures can now be made by these institutions except upon monthly estimates, which must be submitted to the Commission for revision and approval. By chapter 358 of the Laws of 1894, the additional power was conferred on the Commission of supervising the expenditure of moneys by the State hospitals under special appropriations. The Commission is required to appoint agents, whose duty it shall be to secure from friends and relatives of patients who are able and liable therefor the cost of their support, and to reimburse the State therefor. The Commission is required to submit a report to the Legislature each year. One Commissioner is required to be a physician, a citizen of the State, a graduate of a legally chartered medical college, of at least ten years in the actual practice of his profession, and who has had experience in the care and treatment of the insane, and in the management of institutions for the insane. He is by law the President of the Commission, and receives a salary of $5,000. The second Commissioner is required to be a lawyer of at least ten years' standing, a citizen of the State, and receives a salary of $3,000. The third Commissioner shall be a layman, and he receives ten dollars per day for his actual services. Each Commissioner receives $1,200 per annum in lieu of his traveling and other incidental expenses. The Seal of office is the Arms of the State, surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York — State Commission in Lunacy."

Institutions for the Deaf and Dumb.

The several educational institutions for the deaf and dumb receive $260 a year per capita from the State for such pupils, between the ages of twelve and twenty-five years, as may receive appointments from the Superintendent of Public Instruction. Pupils between five and twelve years of age are received as county pupils at the annual charge to counties—$300, upon the order of an overseer of the poor or a county supervisor. As a rule, the grounds and buildings of these institutions belong exclusively to private corporations, who appoint the superintendent or principal.

RULES OF THE SENATE.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

RULE 1. The President shall take the chair at the hour to which the Senate shall have adjourned, and a quorum being present, the Journal of the preceding day shall be read, to the end that, any mistakes therein may be corrected. After the reading and approving of the Journal the order of business shall be as follows :

1. The presentation of petitions.
2. Introduction of bills, by districts, in their numerical order.
3. Messages from the Assembly.
4. Messages from the Governor.
5. Reports of standing committees.
6. Reports of select committees.
7. Communications and reports from State officers.
8. Third reading of bills.
9. Motions and resolutions.
10. Special orders.
11. General orders, but messages from the Governor and Assembly and communications and reports from State officers may be received at any time, and the committees on rules, engrossed bills, revision, and privileges and elections, when the report involves the right of a Senator to his seat, may report at any time, and it shall always be in order to call up for consideration a report from the committee on rules.

OF THE PRESIDENT.

RULE 2. (1). The President shall preserve order and decorum; in case of disturbance or disorderly conduct in the lobby or galleries, he may cause the same to be cleared; he shall decide all questions of order, subject to appeal to the Senate. On every appeal he shall have the right, in his place, to assign his reasons for his decision; he shall appoint all committees, except when the Senate shall otherwise order. When the Senate shall be ready to go into committee of the whole, he shall name a chairman to preside therein.

(2). He shall assign to the doorkeepers their respective duties and stations

(3). Immediately upon the final passage of any bill by the Senate, he shall certify that the same has been duly passed, with the date thereof, together with the fact whether passed as a majority, three-fifths or two-thirds bill, as required by the Constitution and Laws of the State, and deliver said bill to the Clerk.

OF THE TEMPORARY PRESIDENT.

RULE 3. The Temporary President, when acting as President shall be invested with all the powers and duties conferred by these rules upon the President.

OF THE CLERK.

RULE 4. (1). It shall be the duty of the Clerk to have the Journal of each day's proceedings printed, and copies thereof placed on the files of the President, Senators and reporters within three days after approval by the Senate.

(2). He shall also furnish each Senator daily with a printed list of the general orders, which shall be kept on file by the superintendent of documents, in the same manner as other documents, and he shall also prepare a daily calendar of all bills, engrossed or printed, for a final reading, and place and keep the same, together with printed copies of such bills, on the desk of each Senator; he shall see that all bills shall be acted upon by the Senate in the order in which they are reported and stand upon the calendar, unless otherwise ordered by two-thirds of the Senate.

(3). He shall present to the Governor, and enter upon the Journals, such bills as shall have originated in the Senate and been passed by both Houses.

(4). He shall designate what persons are entitled to admission to the floor as reporters for the public press, not exceeding thirty in number, but no person shall be entitled to the privileges of the floor of the Senate as a legislative reporter of a newspaper who is interested in pending or contemplated legislation, or who is employed to or receives compensation for influencing legislation.

OF THE SERGEANT-AT-ARMS.

RULE 5. The Sergeant-at-Arms, except when absent in the discharge of his duties, shall be in constant attendance upon the sessions of the Senate, and, under the direction of the President, aid in enforcing order on the floor of the Senate, in the lobbies, and in the rooms adjoining the Senate Chamber, and also see that no person remains on the floor unless entitled to the privileges of the same.

OF THE RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF SENATORS.

RULE 6. (1). A Senator presenting a paper shall indorse the same ; if a petition, memorial, or report to the Legislature, with a brief statement of the subject of its contents, adding his name ; if a notice or resolution, with his name ; if a report of a committee, a statement of such report, with the name of the committee and Senator making the same.

(2). Senators shall not speak to each other or otherwise interrupt the business of the Senate, or read any newspaper while the Journals or public papers are being read ; or walk out of or across the chamber when the President is putting a question, or when a Senator is speaking pass between him and the Chair.

(3). A Senator rising to debate or to present a petition or other paper, to give a notice, make a motion or report, shall address the President and shall not proceed further until recognized by the Chair ; he shall speak on the same subject but twice the same day without leave of the Senate ; and where two or more Senators address the Chair, the President shall name the Senator who is first to speak.

(4). Every Senator shall be present within the Senate Chamber during the sessions of the Senate, unless duly excused or necessarily prevented, and shall vote on each question stated from the Chair unless excused by the Senate, or unless he has a direct personal or pecuniary interest in the event of such question. If any Senator refuses to vote, unless he be excused by the Senate, or unless he be interested, such refusal shall be deemed a contempt.

(5). A Senator desiring to be excused from voting may, when his name is called, make a brief statement not occupying over five minutes, of the reasons for making such request, and the question on excusing him shall then be taken without debate, and any Senator desiring to explain his vote upon a bill, may, when his name is called, be allowed a like opportunity.

(6). In case a less number than a quorum of the Senate shall convene, those present are authorized to send the Sergeant-at-Arms, or any other person, for the absent Senators.

(7). In all cases of absence of Senators during the sessions of the Senate, the Senators present may take such measures as they deem necessary to secure the presence of the absentees, and in addition to suspension for a given period, may inflict such censure or penalty as they may deem just on those who shall not render sufficient excuse for their absence.

RULE 7. There shall be the following standing committees:

- To consist of eleven members each,
 - Finance.
 - Judiciary.
 - Affairs of Cities.

- To consist of nine members each,
 - Canals.
 - Commerce and Navigation.
 - Codes.
 - Insurance.
 - Railroads.

Revision.

To consist of five members each,

Affairs of Villages.

Agricultural.

Printed and Engrossed Bills.

Indian Affairs.

Trade and manufactures.

Privileges and Elections.

Public Printing.

Roads and Bridges.

To consist of three members,

Rules.

RULE 8. It shall be the duty of the Committee on Public Printing to examine and report on all questions of printing referred to them, and every motion to print any petition, resolution, report, bill, message or other manuscript, except as provided in the joint rules, shall be referred to such committee. They shall, when practicable, report the approximate cost of all extra printing, and report to the Senate, from time to time, any measure they shall deem useful for the economical and proper management of the public printing.

RULE 9. The Committee on Printed and Engrossed Bills shall examine all bills, amendments and resolutions which are required to be printed or engrossed, before they go out of the possession of the Senate, and make report when they find them correctly printed or engrossed before they are read the third time; they shall also compare such amendments as may be made in the Assembly to Senate bills, and that are concurred in by the Senate after they shall have been re-printed or re-engrossed in the Senate, for the purpose of seeing if they are correctly printed or engrossed. And no bill shall be passed unless it shall have been printed and upon the desk of each Senator in its final form at least three calendar legislative days prior to its final passage, unless the Governor or acting Governor shall have certified to the necessity of its immediate passage, under his hand and the seal of the State, nor unless the Committee on Printed and Engrossed Bills, shall have reported that such bill is correctly printed or engrossed. All bills recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment, if amended, and all Senate bills amended by the Assembly, and returned to the Senate for its concurrence, and all bills amended by the report of a conference committee, shall be subjected to the provisions of this rule, and the second clause of Rule 4.

RULE 10. The committee on revision shall examine and correct bills referred to it, for the purpose of avoiding repetitions and ensuring accuracy in the text and references. It shall also report whether the object sought to be accomplished can be secured without a special act under existing laws, or by enactment of a general law.

RULE 11. Every report of a committee upon a bill which shall not be considered at the time of making the same, or laid on the table by a vote of the Senate, shall stand upon the general orders with the bill, and be entered upon the journal.

OF GENERAL ORDERS AND SPECIAL ORDERS.

RULE 12. The matters referred to the committee of the whole Senate shall constitute the general orders, and the business of the general orders shall be taken up as follows, viz.: When the chairman named by the President has taken the chair, the Clerk shall announce the title of each bill, with the printed number, or other matter, as it shall be reached in its order, when it may be taken up on the motion of any Senator without the putting of any question therefor, and be considered immediately, and so on until the calendar is exhausted, or a motion is carried that the committee rise. Any bill not so moved shall lose its preference for the day.

RULE 13. Whenever any bill or other matter is made a special order for a particular day, and it shall not be completed on that day, it shall retain its place in the general orders for another day; and when a special order is under consideration, it shall take precedence of any special order for a subsequent hour of the same day; but such subsequent special order may be taken up immediately after the previous special order has been disposed of.

OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

RULE 14. The rules of the Senate shall be observed in the committee of the whole, so far as they may be applicable, except limiting the number of times of speaking, and except that the ayes and noes shall not be taken. Such committee may strike out the enacting clause of a bill and report that fact to the Senate; and if the report be agreed to by the Senate, it shall be deemed a rejection of the bill.

RULE 15. Bills committed to a committee of the whole Senate shall, in committee of the whole, be read through by sections. The report shall state whether or not said bill has been amended in committee of the whole. After the report the bill shall be subject to debate and amendment before the question to print or engross it is put; but such amendments only shall be in order as were offered and decided in the committee of the whole Senate, except by unanimous consent.

RULE 16. A motion that the committee rise and report progress on any bill shall always be in order, and shall be decided without debate.

OF BILLS.

RULE 17. Every bill shall be introduced by a Senator in his place, or on the report of a committee, or by message from the Assembly, and after its first and second reading, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate, shall be referred to a standing or select committee, to consider and report thereon. No private bill shall be introduced by a Senator, or on the report of a committee, unless accompanied by a memorial or petition signed and verified by the party or parties praying for the passage of the same, except by order of the Senate.

Every bill introduced by a Senator shall be in duplicate and shall have indorsed thereon a statement of its title, with his name.

RULE 18. When a bill shall be reported by a committee of the whole, and not otherwise disposed of, the question shall be, "Shall the report be agreed to?" And when the report of such committee, if favorable, shall be agreed to and the bill not otherwise disposed of, the bill shall be ordered printed or engrossed for a third reading. Upon such question the merits of the bill may be debated, and a motion to commit or recommit, or to amend, as provided in the fourteenth rule, or lay on the table, or to postpone to a future day, shall be in order. If such question be decided in the negative, such bills shall be deemed lost.

RULE 19. Every bill shall receive three readings previous to its being passed, and the President shall give notice at each, whether it be the first, second or third. No bill shall be amended or committed until it shall have been twice read, and no bill shall be read a third time out of its regular order, unless on a vote of two-thirds of all the Senators present voting; and all resolutions which propose any amendment of the Constitution shall be treated in the form of proceedings on them, in a similar manner with bills, and no bill shall be ordered to a third reading without having been acted upon in committee of the whole.

RULE 20. After a bill or resolution to amend the Constitution shall be ordered to a third reading, no motion to amend the same shall be in order without unanimous consent; but any such bill or resolution may be committed prior to the final reading thereof.

RULE 21. When any bill requiring the concurrence of two-thirds of the Senators is under consideration, such concurrence shall not be requisite except on the question of its final passage.

RULE 22. The question on the final passage of every bill shall be taken by ayes and noes, which shall be entered on the Journal, and unless the bill receives the number of votes required by the Constitution to pass it, it shall be declared lost, except in cases provided for by the twenty-fifth rule, and such question shall be taken immediately after the third reading and without debate.

RULE 23. When a bill is introduced and when printed amending an existing law, the new matter shall be underscored, and all portions of the law proposed to be omitted shall be included in brackets. Every bill, immediately upon its introduction, shall be printed and placed on the files of the Senators. It shall retain its original printed number when reprinted, together with its new number thereafter, during all stages of its progress. All bills reported favorably or for consideration, if reported with amendments, shall be immediately reprinted; the new matter underscored and the parts of the law proposed to be omitted included in brackets.

RULE 24. The vote on the final passage of any bill appropriating moneys or property, or creating, continuing, altering or removing any body politic or corporate, shall not be reconsidered whenever any such bill shall be lost, unless by a vote of a majority of all the Senators elected, but all other bills, when the same shall have been lost, may be reconsidered by a vote of a majority of all the Senators present and voting; nor shall any bill be referred to a select committee with power to report complete, unless such bill has previously been considered in committee of the whole and read through by sections.

RULE 25. If, on taking the final question on a bill, it shall appear that a constitutional quorum is not present, or if the bill requires a vote of two-thirds of all the Senators elected to pass it, and it appears that such number is not present, the bill shall be laid on the table and the final question taken thereon at such time as the Senate may order.

ON MOTIONS AND THEIR PRECEDENCE.

RULE 26. When a question is before the Senate only, the following motions shall be received and such motions shall have precedence in the order here stated, viz.:

1. For an adjournment.
2. For a call of the Senate.
3. To lay on the table.
4. To postpone indefinitely.
5. To postpone to a certain day.
6. To commit to a standing committee.
7. To commit to a select committee.
8. To commit to the committee of the whole.
9. To amend.

The motion to adjourn, or for a call of the Senate, or to lay on the table, shall be decided without debate, and shall always be in order, except as provided in Rules 33 and 48.

RULE 27. All motions shall be reduced to writing, if desired by the President or any Senator, delivered to the Clerk, and read before the same shall be debated; any motion may be withdrawn at any time before decision or amendment.

RULE 28. If the question in debate contains several points, a Senator may have the same divided, provided the division called for embodies a distinct principle or statement of fact.

RULE 29. A motion to postpone, commit or refer, until it is decided, shall preclude all debate of the main question.

RULE 30. When a blank is to be filled, and different sums or time shall be proposed, the question shall be first taken on the highest sum, and the longest time.

RULE 31. When a question has once been put and decided, it shall be in order for any Senator to move for the reconsideration thereof; but no motion for the reconsideration of any vote shall be in order after the bill, resolution, message, report, amendment or motion upon which the vote was taken shall have gone out of the possession of the Senate; and, before the first day of April, no bill or resolution shall be sent from the Senate on the day of its passage; nor shall any motion or reconsideration be in order unless made on the same day on which the vote was taken, or within the next three days of the actual session of the Senate thereafter. Nor shall any question be reconsidered more than once. But when a bill or resolution shall have been recalled from the Governor or from the Assembly a motion for reconsideration may be made at any time thereafter while the same is in the possession of the Senate, and all resolutions recalling a bill or resolution from the Governor or Assembly shall be regarded as privileged. No vote shall be reconsidered upon either of the following motions:

To adjourn.

To lay on the table.

RULE 32. All concurrent resolutions shall lie on the table at least one day, except as otherwise directed by Rule 31, and except concurrent resolutions referring to adjournment.

OF CLOSING DEBATE.

RULE 33. When any bill, resolution or motion shall have been under consideration for six hours it shall be in order for any Senator to move to close debate, and the President shall recognize the Senator who wishes to make such motion. Such motion shall not be amendable or debatable, and shall be immediately put, and if it shall receive the affirmative votes of a majority of the Senators present the pending measure shall take precedence over all other business. The vote shall thereupon be taken upon such bill, motion or resolution, with such amendments as may be pending at the time of such motion, according to the rules of the Senate, but without further debate, except that any Senator who may desire so to do shall be permitted to speak thereon not more than once, and not exceeding one-half hour. Any Senator who does not wish to use the time thus allotted to him may yield the whole or any part thereof to any other Senator or Senators. After such motion to close debate has been made by any Senator no other motion shall be in order until the same has been voted upon by the Senate. After the Senate shall have adopted the motion to close debate, as hereinbefore provided, no motion shall be in order but one motion to adjourn. Should said motion to adjourn be carried, the measure under consideration shall be the pending question when the Senate shall again convene, and shall be taken up at the point where it was at the time of such adjournment. Provided, however, that upon a report from the committee on rules, which committee may sit at any time, a motion to close debate thereon shall cut off all debate and bring the Senate to a direct vote upon the immediate question or questions on which it has been asked or ordered, and that when the motion to close debate is ordered on any proposition on which there has been no debate, it shall be in order to debate the proposition to be voted on for two hours, one-half of such time to be given to debate in opposition to such proposition. The motion to close debate may be ordered upon a single motion, a series of motions allowable under the rules, or an amendment or amendments, or may be made to embrace all authorized motions or amendments and include the bill to its passage or rejection. It shall be in order, pending or after the motion to close debate shall have been ordered on its passage, for the President to entertain and permit a motion to commit, with or without instructions, to a standing or select committee, and a motion to lay upon the table shall be in order when the bill is announced for its third reading. All incidental questions of order, or motions to commit, arising after a motion is made to close debate, and pending such motion, shall be decided, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate.

RULE 34. If at any time during the session of the Senate a question shall be raised by any Senator as to the presence of a quorum, the presiding officer shall forthwith direct the clerk to call the roll, and shall announce the result, and such proceedings shall be without debate; but no Senator, while speaking, shall be interrupted by any other Senator raising the question of a lack of a quorum, and the question as to the presence of a quorum shall not be raised oftener than once in every hour unless the lack of a quorum shall be disclosed upon a roll-call of the ayes and noes. Whenever, upon a roll-call, any Senator who is upon the floor of the Senate chamber refuses to make response when his name is called, it shall be the duty of the presiding officer, either upon his own motion or upon the suggestion of any Senator, to request the Senator so remaining silent to respond to his name, and if such Senator fails to do so, the fact of such request and refusal shall be entered in the Journal, and such Senator shall be counted as present for the purpose of constituting a quorum.

OF QUESTIONS OF ORDER.

RULE 35. All questions relating to the priority of business shall be decided without debate.

RULE 36. When the reading of a paper is called for, except petitions, and the same is objected to by any Senator, it shall be determined by a vote of the Senate, without debate.

RULE 37. When a Senator shall be called to order, he shall take his seat until the President shall have determined whether he is in order or not; and if decided to be out of order, he shall not proceed without the permission of the Senate; and every question of order shall be decided by the President, subject to an appeal to the Senate by any Senator. No second appeal shall be determined until the original appeal shall be decided; and if a Senator shall be called to order for words spoken the words excepted to shall be immediately taken down in writing.

RULE 38. Upon a division in the Senate, the names of those who voted for or against a question shall be entered alphabetically on the minutes, if any Senator require it, except on motion to excuse a Senator from voting which shall be decided by count; and each Senator called upon, unless for special reasons he be excused by the Senate, shall declare openly and without debate, his assent or dissent to the question.

OF EXECUTIVE SESSION.

RULE 39. On motion to close the doors of the Senate on the discussion of business which in the opinion of any Senator may require secrecy, and during the consideration of all business in executive session, the President shall direct all persons, except the Senators and Clerks of the Senate, his messenger, the Journal Clerk and Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate to withdraw; and during the discussion of said motion the doors shall remain shut; and every Senator and officer of the Senate shall keep secret all such matters, proceedings and things which shall transpire while the doors remain closed.

RULE 40. The proceedings of the Senate upon executive business shall be kept in a Journal separate from its proceedings upon legislative business.

RULE 41. The Senate shall go into consideration of executive business on the first and third Wednesdays of every month that it is in session at 12 o'clock, noon and at such other times as may be ordered by a vote of the majority of the Senators present. All nominations sent by the Governor for the appointment of any officer (except notaries public) shall be referred, unless the Senate so otherwise orders, to any standing committee the Senate. Nominations of persons for the office of notary public shall be referred to the Senator from the district in which the nominee resides, except that when the nominee resides in the city and county of New York, the reference shall be to the Senators from that city and county; and when the nominee resides in the county of Kings, the reference shall be to the Senators from that county.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

RULE 42. None but the President, Senators and Clerks shall be allowed to take books belonging to the Senate library; and on taking books, each of the persons above mentioned shall furnish to the Librarian a list of those taken and his name, and shall be responsible for them; and it shall be the duty of the Librarian to have a book in which to enter the delivery of the books so taken and their return; and it shall be his duty to see that the books in the library are kept in order and in their place at the opening of each morning session.

RULE 43. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of documents and his assistants to have the documents and bills promptly placed on the files of the President and Senators in the order of their numbers, and it shall be the duty of the Postmaster to see that the mails are punctually delivered.

RULE 44. The Senate library, post-office and document rooms shall be opened every morning during the session at 8:30 o'clock and remain open until 5 o'clock P. M., and shall also be open at all times when the Senate may be in session.

RULE 45. A rule of the Senate shall not be altered, suspended or rescinded without a vote of a majority of all the Senators elected; and a motion to suspend, alter or rescind any such rule, or any joint rule of the two Houses, shall not be in order, without the unanimous consent of the Senate, unless one day's previous notice hereof in writing shall be given; specifying the pur pose of the proposed suspension, alteration or rescision provided, that nothing in this rule shall limit the provisions of the first and thirty-third rules.

RULE 46. Whenever a claim is referred to a committee and the committee reports that the claim ought not to be allowed, and the report is adopted by the Senate, shall not be in order to move to take the papers from the files for the purpose of referring them to a subsequent session, unless the claimants shall present a memorial for that purpose, stating in what manner the committee have erred in their report, or that new evidence had been discovered since the report, and setting forth the same in the memorial.

RULE 47. All resolutions calling for the expenditure of moneys must be decided by a majority vote of all the members elected to the Senate, upon a call of the roll.

RULE 48. For the purpose of securing the attendance of Senators, a call of the Senate may be ordered at any time, but such call shall not be in order after the voting on any question has begun, nor after the third reading of a bill has been completed, nor after the motion to close debate has been ordered pursuant to Rule 33, unless it shall appear upon an actual count by the President that a quorum is not present.

RULE 49. The following persons only shall be admitted to the floor of the Senate during its sessions:

1. The Governor, his Private Secretary, and appointment clerk.
2. The members of the Assembly.
3. The State officers and their deputies.
4. The Judges and Clerk of the Court of Appeals.
5. The Adjutant-General.
6. The Commissioners to revise the statutes.
7. Reporters for the press, designated under the provisions of rule 4, or of the rules of the Assembly.
8. Persons in the exercise of an official duty directly connected with the business of the Senate.
9. Ladies may be admitted on the card of the President.

RULE 52. Committees; final reports.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE SPEAKER.

RULE 1. The Speaker shall take the chair each day at the hour to which the House shall have adjourned. He shall call to order, and, except in the absence of a quorum, shall proceed to business in the manner prescribed by these rules.

RULE 2. He shall possess the powers and perform the duties herein prescribed, viz.:

1. He shall preserve order and decorum, and, in debate, shall prevent personal reflections, and confine members to the question under discussion. When two or more members rise at the same time, he shall name the one entitled to the floor.

2. He shall decide all questions of order subject to appeal to the House. On every appeal he shall have the right, in his place, to assign his reason for his decision. In case of such appeal no member shall speak more than once.

3. He shall appoint all committees, except where the House shall otherwise order.

4. He may substitute any member to perform the duties of the Chair for a period not exceeding two consecutive legislative days, but for no longer period, except by special consent of the House.

5. When the House shall be ready to go into Committee of the Whole, he shall name a chairman to preside therein.

6. He shall designate the persons who shall act as reporters for the public press, not exceeding thirty in number; but no reporter shall be admitted to the floor who is not an authorized representative of a daily paper. Such reporters, so appointed, shall be entitled to such seats as the speaker shall designate, and shall have the right to pass to and fro from such seats in entering or leaving the Assembly Chamber.

7. He shall not be required to vote in ordinary legislative proceedings, except where his vote shall be decisive. In case of a tie vote the question shall be lost.

He shall have general control, except as provided by rule or law, of the Assembly Chamber, and of the corridors and passages in that part of the Capitol assigned to the use of the Assembly. In case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct in the galleries, corridors or passages, he shall have power to order the same to be cleared, and may cause any person guilty of such disturbance or disorderly conduct to be brought before the bar of the House. In all such cases the members present may take such measures as they shall deem necessary to prevent a repetition of such misconduct, either by the infliction of censure or pecuniary penalty, as they may deem best, on the parties thus offending.

8. He shall also be ex-officio member and chairman of the committee on rules.

ORDER ON BUSINESS.

RULE 3. The first business of each day's session shall be the reading of the journal of the preceding day, and the correction of any errors that may be found to exist therein. Immediately thereafter, except on days and at times set apart for the consideration of special orders, the order of business, which shall not be departed from, except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, to be determined by a call of the roll, shall be as follows :

1. Messages from the Governor and from the Senate, communications from State officers, reports from State institutions, and reports from the committee on revision and printed and engrossed bills.

2. First reading of a bill by its title, and reference on the same, during the months of January and February, and thereafter on Wednesdays and Fridays only.

3. Reports of standing committees in their order. (See Rule 14.)

4. Report of select committees.

After the foregoing orders have been finished the following shall be the orders of the day:

For Mondays:

1. Bills on second reading.
2. Original resolutions by counties in alphabetical order during the months of January and February only.
3. Unfinished business (other than bills) may be considered.

For Tuesdays:

1. Bills on third reading.
2. Bills on second reading.

For Wednesdays:

1. Bills on second reading.
2. Bills on third reading.

For Thursdays:

1. Bills on third reading.
2. Bills on second reading.

For Fridays:

1. Bills on second reading.
2. Bills on third reading.

For Saturdays:

1. Bills on second reading.

When the regular orders for any day shall be gone through, the following shall be the order of business:

1. Bills on third reading.
2. Bills on second reading.

When the consideration of the orders of the day is not finished, those not acted upon shall be the orders for the next and each succeeding day until disposed of, and shall be entered first in the calendar, without change in their order.

CHAPTER III.

RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF MEMBERS.

RULE 4. Petitions, memorials and remonstrances may be presented to the Clerk at the close of each day's session. Bills may be deposited, at any time during the session, in a box to be known as the "bill box," which shall be under the immediate charge of the Clerk, and which shall be kept securely locked until all bills so deposited are removed by him, or by a deputy clerk authorized by him. Every bill shall be in duplicate, and both shall be indorsed with a statement of the title, accompanied by the name of the member introducing it.

At the close of each day's session one of each of such bills so deposited shall be handed by the Clerk to the Speaker for his examination, after due record thereof has been entered in a book which shall be kept for that purpose. At the next regular session, as provided for in subdivision 2 of rule 3, the Speaker shall announce the introduction of all bills thus received by him, for their first reading, and thereupon shall refer them to the appropriate committees with the consent of the house. The other of each such bills having first been entered in the record-book, shall on the day of their reception be filed by the Clerk with the Librarian of the Assembly, who shall keep a record thereof, which together with the bills, shall, under his supervision, be subject to public inspection during the regular office hours of the library.

RULE 5. A report of a committee must be indorsed with a statement of such report, together with the name of the committee making the same, with the amendments, if any, adopted by the committee, to be signed by the chairman; a petition, memorial or remonstrance, with a brief statement of its contents, accompanied by the name of the member presenting it; a notice or resolution with his name.

RULE 6. Every member who shall be within the bar of the house when a question is stated from the chair shall vote thereon, unless he is excused by the house, or unless he be directly interested in the question: nor shall the roll of absentees be more than once called. The bar of the house shall be deemed to include the body of the Assembly Chamber.

CHAPTER IV.

OF ORDER AND DECORUM.

RULE 7. No member rising to debate, to give notice, make a motion or report, or to present a petition or other paper, shall proceed until he shall have addressed the speaker from his place and have been recognized by him.

RULE 8. While a member is speaking, no member shall entertain any private discourse or pass between him and the chair.

RULE 9. While the speaker is putting a question, or a count is being had, no member shall speak or leave his place.

RULE 10. When a motion to adjourn is carried, the members and officers shall keep their seats and places until the Speaker declares the house adjourned.

CHAPTER V.

OF ORDER IN DEBATE.

RULE 11. No member shall speak except in his place, nor more than twice on any question, without leave of the house.

RULE 12. If any member, in speaking, transgresses the rules of the House, the Speaker, or any member, may call to order, in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, and shall not rise unless to explain or proceed in order.

RULE 13. All questions relating to the priority of one question or subject-matter over another, under the same order of business, shall be decided without debate.

CHAPTER VI.

ON COMMITTEES AND THEIR DUTIES.

RULE 14. The standing committees shall be as follows viz.:

To consist each of thirteen members :

Ways and Means.

Judiciary.

General Laws.

Revision.

Codes.

Taxation and Retrenchment.

Canals.

Affairs of Cities.

Railroads.

Commerce and Navigation.

Insurance.

Banks.

Electricity, Gas and Water Supply.

Internal Affairs.

Labor and Industries.

Excise.

Affairs of Villages.

To consist of eleven members .

Public Printing.

Public Health.

Public Education.

Public Lands and Forestry.

Public Institutions.

Military Affairs.

Soldiers' Home.

To consist each of nine members .

Claims.

Federal Relations.

Charitable and Religious Societies.

State Prisons.

Fisheries and Game.

Privileges and Elections.

Trade and Manufactures.

Agriculture.

Indian Affairs.

To consist each of five members :

Rules.

Printed and Engrossed Bills.
Unfinished Business.

RULE 15. The Committee on Revision shall examine and correct the bills which are referred to it, for the purpose of avoiding repetitions and unconstitutional provisions, insuring accuracy in the text and references, and consistency with the language of the existing statutes. It shall also report whether the object sought to be accomplished can be secured without a special act, under existing laws, or without detriment to the public interests, by the enactment of a general law (provided, that any change in the sense or legal effect, or any material change in construction, shall be reported to the house as a recommendation and not as an amendment.) All bills shall be so referred prior to their third reading.

CHAPTER VII.

OF SPECIAL ORDERS.

RULE 16. Any matter may be made a special order for any particular day, by assent of two-thirds of the members present. When so made, a similar vote shall be requisite to rescind or postpone.

During the last ten days of the session a notice may be given requesting that any matter be made a special order, or that the rules be suspended for the purpose of reading a bill out of its order, which shall be referred, without debate, to the Committee on Rules. The member making the motion or giving the notice shall submit in writing the reasons for making such special order or suspension, and attach thereto a copy of the bill.

The committee may report at any time, and such report shall stand as the determination of the house, unless otherwise ordered by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, and the committee shall not be discharged from the further consideration of any matter pending, unless by a like vote.

CHAPTER VIII.

OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

RULE 17. Any matter may be committed to the Committee of the Whole, by the assent of two-thirds of the members present.

RULE 18. The same rules shall be observed in Committee of the Whole as in the house, so far as the same are applicable, except that the previous question shall not apply, nor the yeas and nays be taken.

RULE 19. Bills and other matters shall be considered in Committee of the Whole in the following manner, viz.: They shall be first read through, if the committee so direct; otherwise they shall be read and considered by sections, leaving the title to be last considered. All amendments, in their proper connection, shall be reported to the house by the chairman. Bills reported by Committee of the Whole shall be subject to debate before the question to agree with the committee in their report is put, but such amendments only shall be in order as were offered in Committee of the Whole, and where a bill shall be reported by the Committee of the Whole, with the enacting clause stricken out, and the report shall be agreed to by the house, or a report favorable to the passage of a bill shall be disagreed to by a vote of the house, such bill shall be considered as rejected.

RULE 20. If, at any time, when in Committee of the Whole House, it be ascertained that there is no quorum, the chairman shall immediately report the fact to the Speaker.

CHAPTER IX.

OF BILLS.

RULE 21. No bill shall be introduced in the house, except in one of the following modes, viz.:

1. As specified in Rule 4.
2. By report of a committee.
3. By order of the house.
4. By message from the Senate.

RULE 22. No private bill shall be introduced, but upon a memorial or petition presented to the house, and signed and verified by the party or parties praying for the passage of the same, except by order of the house.

RULE 23. Every message from the Senate, communicating any bill for the concurrence of the house, shall, with the accompanying documents, if any, be referred to a standing or select committee to consider and report thereon, and every such message communicating an amendment, shall be referred to the committee which reported the measure proposed to be amended, with power to report at any time.

RULE 24. All bills, whether introduced in the house or communicated by message from the Senate, shall, after their first reading, be referred to a standing or select committee, to consider and report thereon. Such committee may report any bill, either with or without amendments, or they may report against the same. All bills reported favorably or for consideration, if reported with amendments, shall be immediately printed, and the amendments proposed by the committee shall be printed in Roman, except in cases where the committee recommend striking out certain words, in which case they shall be printed "Stricken through."

All bills favorably reported shall, if the report be agreed to, be placed on the order of second reading, but where a bill has been reported adversely, and such report shall be agreed to by the House, it shall be considered as rejected. No committee shall be discharged from the consideration of a bill thus referred until the committee has had a meeting subsequent to its reference, and has neglected to consider the bill; nor shall an adverse report be received unless the introducer of the bill has first had an opportunity to be heard.

RULE 25. Bills on the order of second reading shall be subject to debate before the motion to order them to a third reading is entertained; such bills shall be considered section by section. The main question, if ordered, shall apply only to the section at the time under consideration. After the bill has been thus read through, one-half hour shall be allowed for debate, but no person shall speak more than fifteen minutes, except by consent of the House.

RULE 26. Every bill shall receive three separate readings, and on three different days, previous to its passage, except by unanimous consent, or when made special order.

CHAPTER X.

ON MOTIONS AND THEIR PRECEDENCE.

RULE 27. When a question shall be under consideration, no motion shall be received, except as herein specified, which motion shall have precedence in the order stated viz.:

1. For an adjournment of the House.
2. A call of the House.
3. For the previous question.
4. To lay on the table.

5. To postpone indefinitely.
6. To postpone to a certain day.
7. To go into Committee of the Whole on the pending subject immediately.

RULE 28. A motion to reconsider any vote must be made on the same day on which the vote proposed to be reconsidered was taken, or on the legislative day next succeeding, and, except in the case of a vote on the final passage of a bill, by a member who voted in the majority. Such motion may be made under any order of business, but shall be considered only under the order of business in which the vote proposed to be reconsidered occurred. The motion to reconsider the vote on the final passage of any bill shall be privileged to any member, but no motion for the reconsideration of any vote shall be in order after a bill, resolution, message, report, amendment or motion upon which the vote was taken shall have gone out of the possession of the House, unless subsequently recalled by a vote of the House, and in possession of the Clerk.

RULE 29. When a motion for reconsideration is decided, that decision shall not be reconsidered, and no question shall be twice reconsidered; nor shall any vote be reconsidered upon either of the following motions:

To adjourn.

To lay on the table.

To take from the table; or

For the previous question.

A motion to recall a bill from the Governor for correction may be made by or on behalf of the member who introduced the bill under any order of business, and the votes for consideration and amendment and final passage of such bill may be taken immediately upon its return.

CHAPTER XI.

OF RESOLUTIONS

RULE 30. The following classes of resolutions shall lie over one day for consideration, after which they may be called up, as, of course, under the appropriate order of business.

1. All concurrent resolutions; except resolutions in reference to adjournments and those recalling bills from the Governor or Senate, which shall be regarded as privileged.

2. Resolutions containing calls for information on the Executive Department.

3. Resolutions giving rise to debate, except such as relate to the disposition of matters immediately before the House, such as relates to the business of the day on which they were offered, and such as relates to adjournment or taking recess for a day.

RULE 31. All resolutions for printing extra copies of documents shall be referred to the Committee on Printing, who shall report on each resolution within seven days after such reference.

RULE 32. All other resolutions calling for or leading to expenditures for the uses of the Legislature shall be referred to, and reported on, by the Committee on Ways and means, unless the House shall designate some other committee.

CHAPTER XII.

OF THE PREVIOUS QUESTION.

RULE 33. The "previous question" shall be put as follows: "Shall the main question now be put?" and, until it is decided, shall preclude all amendments or debate. When, on taking the previous question, the House shall decide that the main question shall not now be put, the main question shall be considered as still remaining under debate. The "main question" shall be on the passage of the bill, resolution or other matter under consideration; but when amendments are pending, the question shall first be taken upon such amendments in their order, and when amendments have been adopted in Committee of the Whole, and not acted on in the House, the question shall be taken upon such amendments in like order, and, if the previous question has been ordered without further debate or amendment.

CHAPTER XIII.

OF THE ASSEMBLY CHAMBER AND THE PRIVILEGES OF ADMISSION TO THE FLOOR THEREOF.

RULE 34. The use of the Assembly Chamber may be granted to the State Agricultural Society, the State Medical Society and such other societies as are required by law to report to the Legislature. No application for the use of the Chamber for any other purposes shall be entertained without the unanimous consent of the House.

RULE 35. The following classes of persons shall be entitled to admission to the floor of the House during the sessions thereof, viz.;

1. The Governor and Lieutenant-Governor.
2. The members of the Senate.
3. The State Officers and Deputies.
4. The Regents of the University.
5. The Capitol Commissioners.
6. Persons in the exercise of an official duty directly connected with the business of the House.
7. The reporters for the press, as provided by subdivision 7 of Rule 2.
8. Ex-speakers of the Assembly.

No other person shall be admitted to the floor during the session, except upon the permission of the Speaker or by vote of the House; and persons so admitted shall be allowed to occupy places only in the seats in the rear of the Assembly Chamber. All permits granted by the Speaker may be revoked by him at pleasure, or upon the order of the House.

CHAPTER XIV.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

RULE 36. In all cases of the absence of members during the sessions of the House, the members present may take such measures as they shall deem necessary to secure their presence, and in addition to suspending them from the service of the House for a given period, may inflict such censure or pecuniary penalty as they may deem just on those who, on being called for that purpose, shall render not sufficient excuse for their absence.

RULE 37. For the purpose of securing the attendance of members, a call of the House may be made, but such call shall not be in order, after the main question has been ordered, nor after the voting on any question has commenced, nor after the third reading of a bill has been completed.

RULE 38. When less than a quorum vote on any subject under the consideration of the House, it shall be in order, on motion, to close the bar of the House, whereupon the roll of members shall be called by the Clerk, and if it is ascertained that a quorum is present, either by answering to their names or by their presence in the House, the yeas and nays shall again be ordered by the Speaker, and if any member present refuses to vote, such refusal shall be deemed a contempt, and unless purged, the House may order the Sergeant-at-arms to remove said member or members without the bar of the House, and all privileges of membership shall be refused the person or persons so offending until the contempt be duly purged.

RULE 39. Whenever any person shall be brought before the bar of the House for adjudged breach of its privileges, no debate shall be in order; but the Speaker shall proceed to execute the judgment of the House without delay or debate.

RULE 40. When the House shall be equally divided on any question, including the Speaker's vote, the question shall be deemed to be lost.

RULE 41. If any question contains several distinct propositions, it shall be divided by the Chair at the request of any member, but a motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible.

RULE 42. In all cases where a bill, order, motion or resolution shall be entered on the journal, the name of the member introducing or moving the same shall also be entered on the journal.

RULE 43. The yeas and nays may be taken on any question whenever so required, by any ten members (unless a division by yeas and nays be already pending), and when so taken shall be entered on the journal.

RULE 44. In all cases where unanimous consent is asked for advancing a bill out of its order, it shall be the duty of the Speaker to order a roll call for the purpose of determining if such consent will be granted.

RULE 45. No reporter for the Assembly, who has an appointment as a reporter in the Senate, shall receive any order for stationery from the Clerk of the Assembly.

RULE 46. No standing rule or order of the House shall be changed, suspended or rescinded unless one day's notice shall have been given of the motion therefor, nor shall such change be made unless by a vote of a majority of all the members elected to the Assembly; any such rule or order, however, may be suspended by unanimous consent. But such notice shall not be necessary on the last day of the session. The notice and motion shall in all cases, state specifically the object of the suspension, and every case of suspension of a rule under such notice and motion shall be held to apply only to the object specified therein.

Such notice shall be given and such motion made under the order of business in which the matter proposed to be advanced by the suspension shall stand.

RULE 47. No persons, except members of the Legislature and the officers thereof, shall be permitted within the Clerk's desk, or the rooms set apart for the use of the Clerk during the session of the House, and no member or other person shall visit or remain by the Clerk's table while the yeas and nays are being called, except officers of the House in the discharge of their duties.

RULE 48. It shall be the duty of the stenographer of the Assembly to be present at every session of the House. He shall take stenographic notes of the debates in the House in the Committee of the Whole; and shall furnish a copy of the same written out in long-hand, to any member applying therefor, upon the payment to said stenographer of ten cents for each folio, which charge said stenographer may receive in addition to his fixed compensation. The stenographic notes of the debates shall be filed with the Clerk, and shall form a portion of the archives of the House. The Clerk of the Assembly is authorized to furnish said stenographer with the proper stenographic blank-books in which to record said debates, not to exceed fifty dollars for an annual session of the Legislature.

RULE 49. All questions of order, as they shall occur, with the decisions thereon, shall be entered in the journal, and at the close of the session a statement of all such questions and decisions shall be printed at the close of and as an appendix to the journal.

RULE 50. Any member requesting to be excused from voting upon the final passage of a bill, or upon the passing of a resolution requiring the expenditure of money, may make, when his name is called, a brief statement of the reasons for making such request, not exceeding two minutes in time, and the House, without debate, shall decide if it will grant such request; but nothing in this rule contained shall abridge the right of any member to record his vote on any question previous to the announcement of the result.

RULE 51. It shall be the duty of the Sergeant-at-arms, at all times, not to allow any person to smoke in the Assembly Chamber. Subject to the direction of the Speaker, he shall enforce the rules of the House.

RULE 52. On or before the fifth day of April, committees shall make final report upon matters referred to them prior to that day, unless further time is granted for cause, and after that date no bill shall be introduced, except by message from the Senate.

RULE 53. No person shall be entitled to the privileges of the floor of the Assembly as a legislative reporter of a newspaper who is interested in pending or contemplated legislation, or who is employed by or receives compensation from any corporation for influencing legislation.

JOINT RULES

OF THE

SENATE AND ASSEMBLY.

NOT ADOPTED. FEBRUARY II, 1896.

[NOTE. No joint rules have been adopted for several years.
The rules here printed are as last reported.]

RULE 1. Papers to be transmitted.

RULE 2. Bills rejected.

RULE 3. Messages delivered by the clerks.

RULE 4. Amendments.

RULE 5. In case of difference, committees to be appointed.

RULE 6. Matters of difference, how settled.

RULE 7. Bills, when deemed lost.

RULE 8. Joint committee.

RULE 9. Final reading of bills.

RULE 10. No bill shall create more than one incorporation.

RULE 11. Election of officers to be certified and reported by presiding officers.

RULE 12. Usual number of bills and documents to be printed.

RULE 13. Printing or purchase of books.

RULE 14. Documents ordered by both houses.

RULE 15. Distribution of documents.

RULE 16. Superintendent of Documents to receive printed matter.

RULE 17. Distribution of the bills and documents when printed.

RULE 18. Joint committee on State Library.

RULE 19. Supply bill.

RULE 20. Bills introduced after fifteenth March not to take precedence of bill previously introduced.

RULE 21. Bills lost in both houses not again introduced during the session.

RULE 22. Regulations for weighing, stamping and transmitting mail-matter.

RULE 1. Each house shall transmit to the other all papers in which any bill or resolution shall be founded.

RULE 2. When a bill or resolution which shall have passed in one house shall be rejected in the other, notice thereof shall be given to the house in which the same may have passed.

RULE 3. Messages from one house to the other shall be communicated by their clerks respectively, unless the house transmitting the message shall specially direct otherwise.

RULE 4. It shall be in the power of either house to amend any amendment made by the other to any bill or resolution.

RULE 5. In every case of difference between the two houses, upon any subject of legislation, either house may request a conference, and appoint a committee for that purpose, and the other shall also appoint a committee to confer. The committee shall meet at such hour and place as shall be appointed by the chairman of the committee on the part of the house requesting such conference. The conferees shall state to each other verbally, or in writing, as either shall choose, the reason of their respective houses, and confer freely thereon, The committee shall report in writing, and shall be authorized to report such modifications or amendments as they think advisable. But no committee on conference shall consider or report on any matter except those directly at issue between the two houses. The papers shall be left with the conferees of the house assenting to such conference, and they shall present the report of the committee to their house. When such house shall have acted thereon, it shall transmit the same, and the papers relating thereto, to the other, with a message certifying its action thereon. Every report of a committee of conference shall be read through, in each house, before a vote is taken on the same.

RULE 6. It shall be in order for either house to recede from any subject-matter of difference subsisting between the two houses at any time previous to conference, whether the papers on which such differences arose are before the house receding, formally or informally; and on such vote to recede, the same number shall be required to constitute a quorum to act thereon, and to assent to such receding, as was required on the original question out of which the difference arose.

RULE 7. After each house shall have adhered to their disagreement, the bill which is the subject of difference shall be deemed lost, and shall not be again revived during the same session in either house.

RULE 8. All joint committees of the two houses, and all committees of conference, shall consist of three senators and five members of the assembly, unless otherwise specially ordered by concurrent resolution.

RULE 9. No bill which shall have passed one house shall have its final reading in the other in less than two days thereafter, without the consent of two-thirds of the members thereof present; and whenever ten or more bills shall be in readiness for final reading in either house, such house shall forthwith proceed to the final reading of such bills, under the order of "third reading of bills," and continue the same from day to day, until all such bills then in readiness for final reading shall have been read, unless this order or business shall, by the vote of two-thirds of the members present, be suspended or laid on the table. All such bills shall have their last reading in each house in the order in which the same shall have been ordered to a final reading in such house, unless the bill to be read be laid on the table. In all cases where a bill shall be so ordered to lie on the table, it shall retain its place in the order of the final reading of bills, but shall not be called up for consideration unless by a vote of a majority of the members present.

RULE 10. The same bill shall not, specially or by name create, renew or continue more than one incorporation, nor contain any provisions in relation to the altering of more than one incorporation by name; but this rule shall not be construed to apply to corporations to be formed under general laws according to the eighth article of the Constitution, nor to bills for consolidating corporations. After any bill has been reported by a committee, no amendment shall be made thereto which introduces an entirely new and different subject-matter from the subject-matter of the bill reported.

RULE 11. Whenever there shall be an election of officers by the joint action of the two houses, the result shall be certified by the president of the senate and speaker of the assembly, and shall be reported by the presiding officer of each house to their respective houses, and be entered on the journals of each, and shall be communicated to the governor by the clerks of the two houses.

RULE 12. There shall be printed, of course, and without order, 639 copies of all original bills reported by committees of either house; and 800 copies of all messages from the governor (except messages certifying his approval of bills), all reports of standing or select committees, and all reports or communications made in pursuance of law; and 796 copies of the journal of each house, which number shall be denominated the usual number.

RULE 13. Neither house shall order the printing or purchasing of books for the use of members or for distribution, except by joint resolution, upon which the ayes and noes shall be called, and which must receive the votes of a majority of each house; and no printing shall be done by order of either house, which is not embraced in the contract for doing the public printing. Whenever either house shall order more than the usual number of any message or document, the fact shall be communicated immediately by message to the other. Whenever extra copies of any document or publication of any kind shall be ordered printed, the printer shall be authorized and required to deliver to the trustees of the State library at least five copies in addition to the number so ordered, for the use of the said library, and whenever more than five hundred copies are so ordered, the printer shall in like manner furnish five additional copies for each five hundred for the purpose of literary exchanges.

RULE 14. When the same document shall by separate orders be directed to be printed by both houses, it shall be regarded as but one order, unless otherwise expressly directed by either house.

RULE 15. In the distribution of documents, the Governor and elective State officers and State officers appointed by the Governor and senate or elected by joint or concurrent action of the two houses, adjutant-general, and the clerks of the two houses, shall each have the same number as each of the members; and a specified number may be added for any committee, officer, or author of a document.

RULE 16. The superintendent of documents of each house shall receive from the printer all matter ordered by the respective houses, and shall keep a book and enter therein the time of reception by him of every such bill or document, and the number of copies received, and shall cause each and any of such bill or document to be immediately placed on the desks of the members.

RULE 17. There shall be printed six hundred and forty bills, and distributed as follows:

To the senate.....	150 copies.
To the assembly.....	450 copies.
To the State officers.	30 copies.
To the State library.....	1 copy.
Retained to bind..	9 copies.

There shall be printed three hundred and one messages and documents, and distributed as follows:

To the senate.....	80 copies.
To the assembly.....	190 copies.
To the State officers	30 copies.
To the State library....	1 copy.

There shall be printed three hundred and one journals of each house, and distributed as follows:

To the senate.....	80 copies.
To the assembly.....	190 copies.
To the State officers... ..	30 copies.
To the State library.....	1 copy.

There shall be printed to bind, four hundred and eighteen journals of each house, and the same number of messages and documents, distributed as follows:

For the senate.....	38 copies.
For the assembly.....	140 copies.
For senate library.....	3 copies.

For assembly library.....	5 copies.
For the counties and public officers.....	123 copies.
For literary and scientific exchanges, to be made by the regents of the university, including one copy for each State and Territory, and one copy for each of the regents who are not othorwise provided for.....	107 copies.
For State library.....	2 copies.

There shall also be printed and bound for the State library five copies of the Session Laws, and also of the journal of each house, and fifty-five copies of the same for the regents of the university, for the purpose of literary exchanges.

The clerk of each house shall forthwith, after the journal thereof of each day is approved, deliver a legible copy thereof to the printer for the two houses, who shall have the same printed and delivered to the sergeant-at-arms of each house within forty-eight hours thereafter.

RULE 18. There shall be a standing committee, consisting of three members of the senate and five members of the assembly, to be called the joint committee on the State library and cabinet of natural history.

RULE 19. The supply bill and the annual appropriation bill shall be reported by the fifteenth day of March, and printed immediately thereafter, and made the special order for the twenty-fifth day of March, or some day prior thereto, immediately after the reading of the journal.

RULE 20. No bill introduced after the fifteenth day of March in either house shall have its final reading in either house until all bills previously introduced in either, and sent from one house to the other house for concurrence and ready for third reading, shall be disposed of, unless by unanimous consent, except the supply bill and the annual appropriation bill; and the clerk of each house shall note on such engrossed bill the day on which it was introduced, and the day on which it was received from the other house, and shall announce such facts when the same is proposed to be read a third time.

RULE 21. When a bill originated in the senate or assembly shall have been lost in either house, neither the same nor any other bill on the same subject, and containing similar provisions, shall be subsequently introduced into the senate or assembly during the same session, unless by unanimous consent.

RULE 22. The postmaster of each house shall weigh and stamp all documents sent by mail or express, and enter in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, the amount of postage or express charge thereon, and report to the clerk of the respective houses the aggregate thereof weekly; and the assistant postmaster of each house shall enter in a book to be kept by him for that purpose an accurate account of all documents, with the postage or express charges paid thereon, transmitted from the post-office of their respective houses by mail or express, and report the aggregate thereof weekly to the respective clerks of the senate and assembly; and the clerks of the senate and assembly shall, from time to time, furnish to the postmaster of each house respectively, the stamps requisite for carrying into execution this rule, and an account thereof shall be kept by them in books to be by them provided for that purpose; and the books kept by the postmaster and assistant postmaster, above specified, shall be at all times open to the inspection of the clerks and members of each house respectively.

RULE 23. The titles of all bills introduced into either house proposing amendments to Chap. 410 of the Laws of 1882, entitled "An act to consolidate into one act and to declare the special and local laws affecting public interests in the city of New York." and also of chapter 583 of the Laws of 1888, entitled "An act to revise and combine into a single act all existing special and local laws affecting public interests in the city of Brooklyn," and also all amendments proposed to the Penal Code, the Code of Criminal Procedure, the Code of Civil Procedure, and the Revised Statutes, shall contain the numbers of the sections which it is proposed to amend, and some brief reference to the subject-matter of the proposed amendment and that with respect to this class of bills, the clerks of the two houses are directed to have the rule strictly enforced.

The Court of Appeals.

The Court of Appeals succeeded the Court for the Trial of Impeachments and the Correction of Errors, so far as the correction of errors is concerned. As first organized, under the Constitution of 1846, it was composed of eight Judges, four of whom were chosen by the electors of the State for a term of eight years, and four were elected from the class of Justices of the Supreme Court having the shortest time to serve. The Judges elected by the people were so classified that an election occurred every odd year. The Judges selected from the Supreme Court were taken each even year from the First, Third, Fifth and Seventh districts; and each odd year from the Second, Fourth, Sixth and Eighth districts, and served one year. The Judge elected by the State at large having the shortest term to serve, acted as Chief Judge. The Clerk was elected by the people for the term of three years. The reporter was appointed by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor and Attorney-General, for three years.

The article in relation to the Judiciary, framed by the Convention of 1867-8 reorganized the Court of Appeals. This article was approved by the people at the general election held in 1869. In accordance with its provisions, the Court of Appeals is now composed of a Chief Judge and six Associate Judges, who "hold their office for the term of fourteen years, from and including the first day of January after their election," which was the year 1871. The first Judges were elected at a special election held in 1870. At the first election of Judges each elector voted for the Chief Judge and four only of the Associate Justices. Vacancies are to be filled at the next general election happening not less than three months after such vacancy occurs, and until so filled, by the Governor and Senate, or by the Governor alone, if the Senate is not in session.

Judges are prohibited, by the Constitution, from holding any other office or place of public trust; from exercising any power of appointment to public office and from practicing as attorney or counselor, or acting as referee. They are removable by concurrent resolution of both houses of the Legislature, if two-thirds of all the members elected to each branch concur therein.

The court is almost continually in session, taking recess as it may from time to time order.

The court has full power to correct or reverse the decisions of the Supreme Court. Five Judges constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of four is necessary to pronounce a judgment. If such concurrence be not had, the case must be reheard; but no more than two rehearsals can be had, and if then four Judges do not concur, the judgment of the court below is affirmed. The Legislature may authorize the judgments, decrees and decisions of any inferior local court of record established in a city, having original civil jurisdiction, to be removed for review directly into the Court of Appeals.

The salary of the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals is $10,500, and of the Associate Judges $10,000, with an additional allowance of $2,000 each for expenses.

A Clerk is appointed by the court to hold office during its pleasure. He gives a bond to the people of the State in the penalty of $25,000, with two sufficient sureties, for the faithful performance of his duties, which bond is filed with the Comptroller. He appoints a deputy, by writing under his hand and seal, who takes the oath of office, and acts as Clerk in case of a vacancy, or when the Clerk is absent, or incapable of performing the duties. The salary of the Clerk is $5,000. He keeps his office in the New Capitol, Albany. In it are deposited the records of the former Court of Errors, Supreme Court and Court of Chancery.

The court also appoints its Reporter. He has a salary of $5,000.

Supreme Court.

The Constitution of 1894 continued the Supreme Court as it then existed, with general jurisdiction in law and equity, subject to such appellate jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals as is or may be prescribed by law, and also vested in the Supreme Court the jurisdiction theretofore exercised by the Superior Court of the city of New York, the Court of Common Pleas for the city and county of New York, the Superior Court of Buffalo, and the City Court of Brooklyn, which courts were abolished from and after January 1, 1896, and the judges thereof and their successors in office becoming Justices of the Supreme Court.

The general jurisdiction in law and equity, which the Supreme Court possesses under the Constitution, includes all the jurisdiction which was possessed and exercised by the Supreme Court of the colony of New York at any time, and by the Court of Chancery in England on the fourth day of July, 1776, with the exceptions, additions and limitations created and imposed by the Constitution and laws of the State. This general jurisdiction in law and equity includes all actions, civil and criminal.

The State is divided into eight judicial districts. There are twenty-two Justices in the first district; twelve in the second; six each in the third, fourth and sixth districts; seven each in the fifth and seventh districts, and ten in the eighth — seventy-six in all. Justices are elected by the voters of their respective districts. Although elected in districts, the jurisdiction of each Justice extends to every part of the State. The term of office is fourteen years from the first day of January next after their election, but no Justice can hold his office longer than until the last day of December next after he shall be seventy years of age. They can hold no other office or public trust. When a vacancy shall occur otherwise than by expiration of the term of office, the same shall be filled for a full term at the next general election happening not less than three months after such vacancy occurs; and until the vacancy shall be so filled, the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, if the Senate shall be in session, or if not in session, the Governor may fill such vacancy by appointment, which shall continue until and including the last day of December next after the election at which the vacancy shall be filled.

The salaries of the Justices are $6,000 per annum; besides which they receive an annual allowance of $1,200 each for expenses (except in the first district). The Justices of the second district (except those residing in the county of Kings) each receive an additional annual allowance of $2,500. In New York and Kings counties the Justices each receive an additional allowance which is paid by the respective counties.

The State is also divided into four Judicial Departments.

There is an Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in each Judicial Department, consisting of seven Justices in the first department, and of five Justices in each of the other departments. In each department four Justices constitute a quorum, and three shall be necessary to a decision. No more than five Justices sit in any case. From all the Justices elected to the Supreme Court the Governor designates the presiding Justice and the other Justices who shall constitute the Appellate Division in each department. The presiding and a majority of the other Justices must reside in the department. The presiding Justices serve during their respective terms of office. The other Justices for terms of five years, or the unexpired portions of their respective terms, if less than five years. No Justice of the Appellate Division can exercise any of the powers of a Justice of the Supreme Court, other than those of a Justice out of court, and those pertaining to the Appellate Division, or to the hearing and decision of motions submitted by consent of counsel. The Appellate Court is located respectively in the first department in New York city; in the second department in Brooklyn; in the third department in Albany, and in the fourth department in Rochester, but terms thereof may be held elsewhere in such departments, whenever in the discretion of the Justices thereof, respectively, public interests may require.

The Appellate Divisions have power to appoint and remove a reporter, and the Justices of the Appellate Division in each department have power to appoint and remove a clerk.

The county clerks of the several counties are clerks of the Supreme Court in their respective counties, and the seal of such county clerks are the seals of the court.

RULES

IN RELATION TO THE

ADMISSION OF ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW

AS AMENDED AND ADOPTED

JUDGES OF THE COURT OF APPEALS,

December 2, 1895, to take effect January 1, 1896.

RULE I.

No person shall be admitted to practice as an attorney or counsellor in any court of record in this State, without a regular admission to the bar and license to practice granted by an Appellate Division of the Supreme Court.

RULE II.

Any person who has been admitted to practice, and has practiced three years as an attorney and counsellor in the highest court of law in another State, and any person who has thus practiced in another country, or who, being an American citizen and domiciled in a foreign country, has received such diploma or degree therein, as would have entitled him, if a citizen of such foreign country, to practice law in its courts may, in the discretion of an Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, be admitted and licensed without an examination. But he must possess the other qualifications required by these rules, and must produce a letter of recommendation from one of the Judges of the highest court of law of such other State, or country, or furnish other satisfactory evidence of character and qualifications.

RULE III.

All other persons may be admitted and licensed upon producing and filing with the court the certificate of the State Board of Law Examiners that the applicant has satisfactorily passed the examination prescribed by these rules and has complied with their provisions; and upon producing and filing with the court evidence that such applicant is a person of good moral character, which may be shown by the certificate of the attorney with whom he has passed his clerkship, or by some attorney in the town or city where he resides, but such certificate shall not be conclusive, and the court may make further examination and inquiry.

RULE IV.

To entitle an applicant to an examination as an attorney and counsellor, he must prove, by his own affidavit, to the satisfaction of the State Board of Law Examiners:

First. That he is a citizen of the United States, twenty-one years of age, stating his age, and a resident of the State, and that he has not been examined for admission to practice and been refused admission and license within three months immediately preceding.

Second. That he has studied law in the manner and according to the conditions hereinafter prescribed for a period of three years, and that he is the same person mentioned in his annexed preliminary papers, except that if the applicant be a graduate of any college or university, his period of study may be two years instead of three; and except also that persons who have been admitted as attorneys in the highest court of original jurisdiction of another State or country, and have remained therein as practicing attorneys for at least one year, may be admitted to such examination after a period of law-study of one year within this State.

RULE V.

Applicants for examination shall be deemed to have studied law within the meaning of these rules only when they have complied with the following terms and conditions, viz.:

1. The provisions for requisite periods of study must be fulfilled by serving a regular clerkship in the office of a practicing attorney of the Supreme Court in this State after the age of eighteen years; or after such age, by attending an incorporated law school, or a law school connected with an incorporated college or university having a law department organized with competent instructors and professors, in which instruction is regularly given; or after such age, by pursuing such course of study, in part by attendance at such law school, and in part by serving such clerkship.

2. If the applicant be a graduate of a college or university, he must have pursued the prescribed course of study after his graduation; and if he be a person admitted to the bar of another State or country, he must have pursued his prescribed period of study after having remained an attorney in such other State or country for the period of one year.

3. Applicants who are not graduates of a college or university, or members of the bar as above prescribed, shall, before entering upon the clerkship or attendance at a law school herein prescribed, or within one year thereafter, have passed an examination conducted under the authority and in accordance with the ordinances and rules of the University of the State of New York, in English composition, advanced English, first year Latin, arithmetic, algebra, geometry, United States and English history, civics and economics, or in their substantial equivalents as defined by the rules of the University, and shall have filed a certificate of such fact signed by the Secretary of the University with the Clerk of the Court of Appeals, whose duty it shall be to return to the person named therein a certified copy of the same showing the date of such filing. The Regents may accept as the equivalent of and substitute for the examination in this rule prescribed either, first, a certificate properly authenticated, of having successfully completed a full year's course of study in any college or university; second, a certificate properly authenticated, of having satisfactorily completed a three years' course of study in any institution registered by the Regents as maintaining a satisfactory academic standard; or third, a Regents' diploma. The Regents' certificate above prescribed shall be deemed to take effect as of the date of the completion of the Regents' examination, as the same shall appear upon said certificate.

Attendance on a law school during a school year of not less than eight months in any year, shall be deemed a year's attendance under this rule; and in computing the period of clerkship a vacation actually taken, not exceeding two months in each year, shall be allowed as part of such year.

It shall be the duty of attorneys, with whom a clerkship shall be commenced, to file a certificate of the same in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals, which certificate shall in each case state the date of the beginning of the period of clerkship, and such period shall be deemed to commence at the time of such filing, and shall be computed by the calendar year. The same period of time shall not be duplicated for different purposes, except that a student attending a law school as herein provided, and who, during the vacations of such school, not exceeding three months in any one year, shall pursue his studies in the office of a practicing attorney, shall be allowed to count the time so occupied during such vacation or vacations as part of the clerkship in a law office specified in these rules.

RULE VI.

The State Board of Law Examiners, before admitting an applicant to the examination, shall require proof that the preliminary conditions prescribed by these rules have been fulfilled; which proof shall be made as follows, viz.:

1. That the applicant is a college graduate, by the production of his diploma or certificate of graduation under the seal of the college.

2. That he has been admitted to the bar of another State or country, by the production of his license or certificate executed by the proper authorities.

3. That he has served a regular clerkship in the office of a practicing attorney of the Supreme Court in this State, after the age of eighteen years, by producing and filing with the Board a certified copy of the attorney's certificate as filed in the office of the clerk of the Court of Appeals, and producing and filing an affidavit of the attorney or attorneys with whom such clerkship was served, showing the actual service of such a clerkship, the continuance and end thereof, and that not more than two months' vacation was taken in any one year.

4. The time of study allowed in a law school must be proved by the certificate of the teacher or president of the faculty under whose instructions the person has studied, under the seal of the school, if such there be, in addition to the affidavit of the applicant, which must also state the age at which the applicant began his attendance at such law school, which proof must be satisfactory to the Board of Examiners.

5. That the applicant has passed the Regents' examination or its equivalent, must be proved by the production of a certified copy of the Regents' certificate filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals, as hereinbefore provided.

6. When it satisfactorily appears that any diploma, affidavit, or certificate required to be produced has been lost or destroyed without the fault of the applicant, or has been unjustly refused or withheld, or by the death or absence of the person or officer who should have made it, cannot be obtained, the Board of Law Examiners may accept such other proof of the requisite facts as they shall deem sufficient.

7. A law student whose clerkship or attendance at a law school has already begun, as shown by the record of the Court of Appeals, or of any incorporated law school, or law school established in connection with any college or university, may at his option file or produce instead of the proofs required by these rules those required by the rules of the Court of Appeals adopted October 28, 1892.

RULE VII.

When the filing of a certificate as required by these rules has been omitted by excusable mistake, or without fault, the court may order such filing as of the proper date. All certificates heretofore issued to law students by the Board of Regents and founded upon equivalents instead of an actual examination, are validated and made effectual, and may be accepted as sufficient by the Board of Law Examiners.

RULE VIII.

The State Board of Law Examiners shall be paid as compensation, each the sum of two thousand dollars per year, and, in addition, such further sum as the court may direct, and an annual sum not exceeding two thousand dollars per year shall be allowed for necessary disbursements of the Board. Every applicant for examination shall pay to the examiners a fee of fifteen dollars, which shall be applied upon the compensation and allowance above provided, and any surplus thereafter remaining they shall pay into the treasury of the State; provided, however, that such compensation and allowance for any one year shall not exceed the aggregate of fees received for such year. The examinations held by such State Board of Examiners may be conducted by oral or written questions and answers, or partly oral and partly written, but shall be as nearly uniform in the knowledge and capacity which they shall require, as is reasonably possible. An applicant who has failed to pass one examination cannot again be examined, until at least three months after such failure.

RULE IX.

The State Board of Law Examiners shall hold at least one examination in each judicial department, at the city or village in which the Appellate Divisions of the Supreme Court are held, between the tenth day of June and the twentieth day of July in each year, and one examination in each department at the places above named, during the month of January in each year. They may appoint other times and places for additional examinations and may hold some or all of such additional examinations concurrently with the regular or annual examinations of any law school in this State, and any applicant entitled to be examined, may be so examined, in any department whether a resident therein or not.

Staff of the Commander-in-Chief.

The staff of the Commander-in-Chief consists of one Adjutant-General of the grade of Major-General, who shall be Chief of Staff; one Inspector-General, one Chief of Ordnance; one Judge-Advocate-General, who shall be a counselor-at law of the Supreme Court, of at least five years' standing; one Surgeon-General, who shall be a graduate of some incorporated school of medicine and of at least five years' practice; one Chief of Engineers, who shall have been educated as an engineer; one Chief of Artillery, one Quartermaster-General; one Paymaster-General, one Commissary-General of Subsistence; one General Inspector of Rifle Practice, each of the grade of Brigadier-General; six Aides-de-Camp, each of the grade of Colonel, and one Military Secretary of the grade of Colonel.

These officers are appointed directly by the Governor, and their commissions expire with the term for which the Governor appointing them is elected.

The Adjutant-General, Inspector-General, Chief of Ordnance and General Inspector of Rifle Practice are constantly on duty, as well as their chief assistants, who rank as Colonel.

Everything relating to the effective state of the troops to formation, instruction and discipline, falls within the department over which the Adjutant-General presides. He is the regular channel of communication with the Commander-in-Chief, and all orders, special instructions and general regulations issued by the Commander-in-Chief, are prepared and published by the Adjutant-General.

By an act passed April 16, 1827, the Adjutant-General was directed to prepare a seal to be used on military commissions, certificates or other official documents, and all copies of records or papers in his office, duly certified under the said seal, are made evidence in all cases, the same as if the originals are produced.

The Inspector-General is charged with the constant inspection of all branches of the military service.

The Chief of Ordnance has charge of the purchase, sale, preservation, return and issue of military property, the care of all arsenals and armories, and the issue of ammunition for rifle practice, etc.

The General Inspector of Rifle Practice has charge of the rifle practice of the National Guard throughout the State, and, under the direction of the Commander-in-Chief, prescribes the manner in which it shall be performed. He reports to general headquarters the improvement in marksmanship, together with other matters appertaining to his duties.

The Judge-Advocate-General is the legal adviser of the several staff departments upon all legal questions which arise therein, and much of his time is employed in the review of court-martial proceedings, of appeals, and disputed points of military law and regulations.

In case of war, insurrection, rebellion, or imminent danger thereof, when the military forces or volunteers of the State of New York, or any part thereof, shall be in the actual service of the State, or in the service of the United States, the Staff of the Commander-in-Chief may be paid such reasonable and just compensation, not exceeding the full pay and allowances of officers of the same rank in the army of the United States, as the Commander-in-Chief may deem proper, together with their necessary expenses.
